Spending Time with The Lord

His Love is Blind

When we come before Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration, we are not the only ones doing the looking and gazing. Jesus himself fixes his gaze on us, and as he looks at us, he is filled with such love and passion that it is as if his love is “blind”. When he sees us, Jesus is filled with an over-abundance of tenderness, mercy, love, and affection.

Of course, Jesus is not really blind. Naturally, he sees the anger, the jealousy, the lust, or the greed that is lurking in our hearts. But he also looks beyond these faults and failings. His vision penetrates deeper, and it ranges wider than our sin. He also sees our deepest longings for love, our hidden desires for holiness and even his own plans and intentions to transform us and fill us with his divine life and power.

When you come to Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration, remember one thing: His loving gaze is already fixed on you. Yes, you may need to repent for your sins. Yes, you may need to fix some broken or divided relationships. Yes, you may need inner healing over past hurts. But whether you are perfectly right with Jesus or not—he sees and dwells on all that is good and beautiful and commendable in you.

“The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.” (2 Corinthians 13:11-13)

This familiar verse from St. Paul’s second letter to the Corinthians is one of the clearest passages in the New Testament that talks about the Holy Trinity. And while Paul’s prayer does not even begin to exhaust the depth and complexity of the Trinity, it can certainly give us some insight. So let’s ponder these words to explore how each Person of the Trinity might want to be with all of us today.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus has made God’s saving grace available to us. He pours out that grace in the form of mercy from God for us sinful human beings. He manifests that grace every time he forgives and heals and restores us. And he offers that grace to you, anew, each day.

The love of God. Love is the foundation of everything God the Father does. Why did he create? Out of love. Why did he send his Son into the world? Because he loved us and wanted to redeem us. Why did he send the Holy Spirit? Because his love naturally and freely flows outward toward us. It’s a creative and generous and expansive love. And your heavenly Father wants to fill you with that love today.

The fellowship of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit, the third Person of the Trinity, is the communion of love between the Father and the Son. Because, in a sense, he is fellowship, he gathers us into that communion.
He enflames our hearts with love for God. He draws us out of isolation or sin and into unity with God and with the people around us. That’s the “fellowship” he offers you today—fellowship with him and with his people.

As you join your fellow parishioners in worshipping this Triune God at Mass today, know that he is pouring out his grace on “all of you”. So go ahead and open your hearts to receive it.

“Holy Trinity, you are a mystery. Help me to say yes to your work in my life today.”
