Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)
If there is someone you think would like to explore what Baptism in the Catholic faith means, invite them to RCIA. We welcome those who have never been baptized or who have been baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, as well as adult Catholics who have not been confirmed, to learn more about our loving God and our Savior, Jesus Christ. As we journey through Lent, invite someone to take a journey through RCIA to learn more about the Catholic faith.

Join us every Monday at 6:30 PM in the Church Fellowship Hall.

Did you know…

That the angels are also present and worshiping with us as we celebrate the Holy Eucharist at Mass?

DISCUSSIONS WITH DAVE...

At times during Mass, I see Father and others bowing their heads quickly during some of the prayers. Why is this done and should I be doing it?

To answer this question, I want to quote #275 from the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) as approved by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops:

275. A bow signifies reverence and honor shown to the persons themselves or to the signs that represent them. There are two kinds of bow: a bow of the head and a bow of the body. A bow of the head is made when the three Divine Persons are named together and at the names of Jesus, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of the Saint in whose honor Mass is being celebrated.

What you are witnessing is a bow of the head being made in honor of their name being proclaimed. Aside from the reverence and honor given, I think this also ensures that we remain "present" at Mass. By intently listening to the Word and words being spoken we immerse ourselves in the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Our outward sign of reverence shows the honor and respect given to the Divine Persons, Jesus Christ, our Blessed Mother and the Saint who is being honored at that Mass. Our Catholic faith is rich with special moments and actions which touch our senses, this is by no mere accident. Embrace your faith in order to, "...love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength." Mark 12:30
