Lent with Father Julius

Brothers and sisters, if God is for us who can be against us? He who did not spare his own son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else with him. (Rom 8:31-32)

At the transfiguration (Mk 9:2-10) the apostles were granted a glimpse into the divine glory of the Lord and were absolutely amazed at the power and glory he forfeited, giving up his glorious divine entitlements for the discomfort of the incarnation, and eventually giving up himself for our redemption.

The second Sunday of Lent invites us to giving-giving like the Father and the Son, giving even when we have little, giving with faith, giving fearlessly, giving sacrificially until we give ourselves. This is one of the practices of lent. In Gen 22 an example of such giving is given us in Abraham's willingness to give his only son at God's request.

Therefore, if THROUGH HIM, WITH HIM, AND IN HIM we have received grace upon grace abundantly, then, through him, with him and in him we must always be willing to give.
