What is All Saints' Day?

All Saints' Day celebrates the feast or solemnity of all the saints in Heaven, both saints recognized by the Church as holy men and women and those who remain unknown.

Is All Saints' Day a holy day of obligation?

Yes, All Saints' Day is a holy day of obligation. Catholics are expected to attend Mass on All Saints' Day.

What is the difference between All Saints' Day & All Souls' Day?

All Saints' Day celebrates the holy men and women in Heaven, those known and unknown by the Church, on November 1, whereas All Souls' Day honors all of the faithful departed on November 2. In some countries, such as Mexico, people know All Souls' Day as the second day of "Día de Los Muertos. Join us for Mass!
