Please contact the parish office if you would like to pledge. We encourage you to set up Online Giving for your recurring donations.

God, our Father, our ancestors in the faith built this beautiful edifice that You might be worshiped here with dignity and reverence, that Your children might have a shelter from the storms of this world, and that it might be a refuge for sinners and the lost who come under its protection. We are now called to continue our mission to proclaim Jesus Christ the font of all Truth, Beauty, and Goodness and to bring all the nations under the one roof of Your Church. May our goal of preserving this Basilica be realized through the generosity of this present generation and make it a lasting legacy, so that our children's children may continue to be united Under One Roof in our Catholic faith, through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Pastor's Notes: Merry Christmas!

December 25, 2021

Merry Christmas! I pray that this year's celebration of the birth of Christ may bring you and your loved ones joy! In the midst of the darkness the Northern hemisphere experiences at the winter solstice, we celebrate the ray of light that has dawned on the human race with the birth of Jesus our Savior. Unto us a Son is given! And they will name Him Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Prince of Peace! These themes of joy, light, salvation, hope, and tenderness come out in all of the many ways we celebrate this feast day. In the middle of our gloom and darkness, we are given many reminders of the gift that our God has given to us of His very self. This is a season of nostalgia and tradition, where signs and symbols, such as trees and wreaths and sounds and sayings, resound in our ears - from Christmas carols to greetings of "Merry Christmas."

This is truly a blessed time. It's also a season of gift-giving, in recognition of the fact that we ourselves have been given the greatest gift, God Emmanuel, God-with-us, Jesus, God who saves. In keeping with this tradition of giving gifts, we have had the custom of giving the gift of a book at Christmas time. Thanks to the great work of Matthew Kelly and his company, Dynamic Catholic, we have "The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen: 365 Days of Inspiration" available in book form. From the back cover:

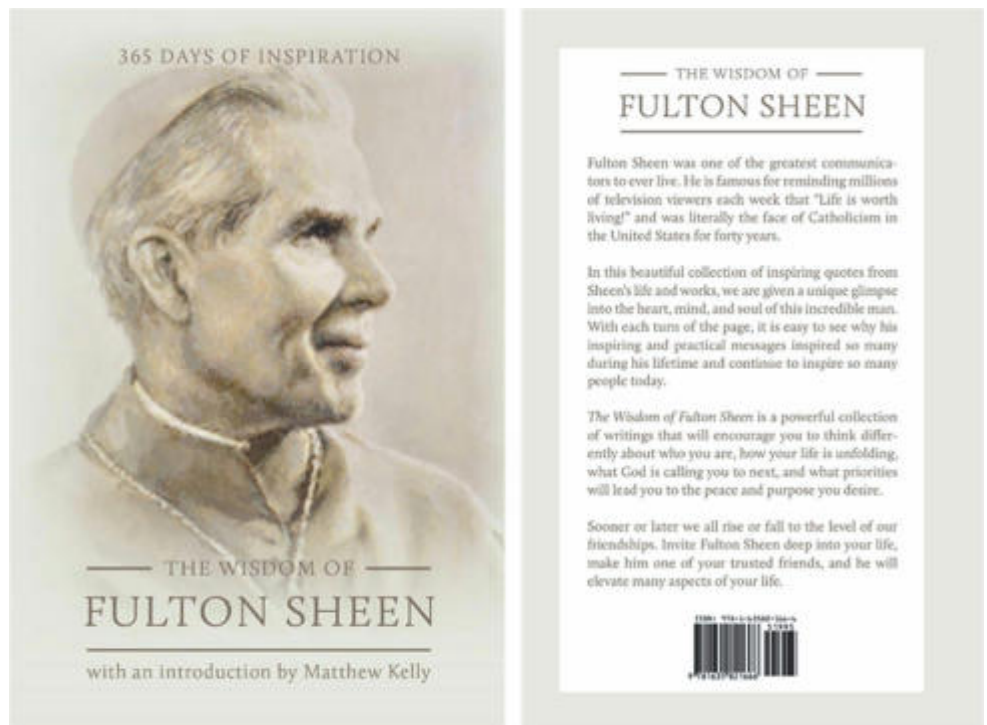

"In this beautiful collection of inspiring quotes from Sheen's life and works, we are given a unique glimpse into the heart, mind, and soul of this incredible man. With each turn of the page, it is easy to see why his inspiring and practical messages inspired so many during his lifetime and continue to inspire so many people today."

The Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen's life and ministry influenced many in his day, and he was truly an inviting figure who evangelized a generation of Catholics. I invite you, as soon as you have read through this book, or after next year is over and you have gone through the daily inspirations, to consider paying it forward by giving this book away to someone else you think might be able to use it.

Continuing in the theme of Evangelization as Invitation that I have discerned for this new liturgical year, I have a reflection that I would like to share with you. The Gospel way of evangelization is not that we love God, but that God has first loved us (1 John 4). I am asking that all of our ministries here at the Basilica, instead of first asking people to help and give, that they first give people an experience of love, that we should first acknowledge that people whom they meet matter to us, at least in the simple ways that we can express that. I invite you, as a parishioner of Sts. Peter and Paul, to reach out to your fellow parishioner, or stranger in the pew, or someone you know who is going through a tough time - and give them the gift of invitation by acknowledging them and sharing with them what you have received.

This season of gift-giving, then, stems directly from the fact that we have already been given the greatest gift of a relationship with the Lord our God, who forgives us our sins and promises us an everlasting life. Again, Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year!
