

Pastor's Notes: Council of Catholic Women Convention

March 13, 2022

Dear Ladies of the Basilica,

I am very happy that Council of Catholic Women in our diocese are planning to resume their annual convention in-person this year. I support this ministry, and I encourage you to join this group of faithful Catholic women and attend the convention, held at St. Therese of Lisieux in Cleveland on April 28-30. It is a great opportunity for fellowship, service, and spiritual growth. The group will benefit from the presence of more of our Basilica ladies! See the announcement below. The registration form is available on our website, and you can find printed forms in the vestibule. I am told that there is an "early bird" discount for registering by March 28.

Rev. J. David Carter

KNOXVILLE DIOCESAN COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN
32nd Annual Convention
St. Therese of Lisieux Catholic Church
900 Clingan Ridge Road, Cleveland, TN 37312

You are cordially invited to join the Knoxville Diocesan Council of Catholic Women at its 32nd Annual Convention to be held at St. Therese of Lisieux Catholic Church in Cleveland, TN, April 28-30, 2022. The theme this year is The Holy Family, a theme that can go in so many different directions. Our slate of speakers is outstanding and they have been chosen specifically from our own diocese, in keeping with our "Family" theme as they are part of our own diocesan family. We are very excited to bring this convention to you and know that you will not only be spiritually enriched, have wonderful fellowship with friends new and old, but have fun as well. Hint: Bunco . . .

Registration forms and other pertinent information is available at kdccw.org/conventions.html

It will be so good to have everyone together again and we look forward to seeing all of you!