MEET YOUR RCIA ELECT

"My name is Shawn Pacheco, and I came to St. Jerome to become closer to my Catholic faith. My girlfriend at the time, Alex Kuelbs, brought me to a Midnight Mass when we were dating, and it's the church I have associated myself with ever since. We have since married and have three children; two are in CCD here. I joined RCIA not only with my sister so she could become godmother to my daughter, but for myself. I never saw myself doing RCIA, but thought if my daughter was baptized, then I would love to get closer to my faith. My family did it, and now my wife and I wanted to take this next step together. My favorite dessert is anything cookies and cream, my hobby is working on cars, and my all time favorite movie is Gremlins."

The RCIA elect and candidates have been at the Sunday 8AM Mass for a blessing before class, and starting this Sunday will be staying in preparation for the Easter Vigil. When you see them, please give them a "Welcome to our Family of Families" greeting. Please keep them in your daily prayers. Thank you!

SAVE THE DATE: Lenten Mission from March 20th to March 24th, with mission speaker, Fr. Francisco Ramirez.

Adoration is held every Wednesday beginning after the 8AM Mass and throughout the day in the chapel until 7PM. Please consider visiting the Blessed Sacrament and spending some time in prayer with Jesus during this season of Lent.

Every Wednesday of Lent we will hold a Lenten Night of Adoration at 7 PM in the church. We will hear a different Gospel account of Christ's passion each Wednesday leading up to our Lenten mission and Fr. Kris will be available for confession.
