33rd Sunday—Ordinary Time

Our readings today are truly frightening, for they look ahead to the end of the world and the second coming of our Lord. Everything that the human race has achieved will come crashing down. Natural disasters and violent conflicts will erupt. The faithful will be persecuted, but will be vindicated in the end.

"The day is coming," Malachi prophesied (3:19). "The days will come," Jesus warned (Luke 21:6). Sometimes it feels like the days they anticipated are right around the corner. A pandemic, political and civil unrest, global warming, natural disasters—a warning that the end of the world has arrived doesn't seem so farfetched. Yet it wouldn't have been a surprise a year ago either . . . or at various other points over the last few years. So when we hear someone say, "The time has come," recall Jesus' words of wisdom: "Do not follow them!" (21:8). There will always be those who will exploit fear for their own ends, who will vilify whoever opposes them, who will try to divide us from each other, and who will insist that they alone know the truth. Do not follow them! We know whom we can trust and always follow. And, as the one who is the way and the truth and the life assured us, "By your perseverance you will secure your lives" (21:19). May this assurance given to us by Jesus give us confidence as we look forward to an uncertain future.

Question of the Week

Can I take the urgency of not knowing when the end times will come for me or for the world and channel it to do something good? What practical thing can I do this week to help carry out Jesus' mission?

33° DOMINGO—TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Nuestras lecturas de hoy son realmente aterradoras, porque miran hacia el fin del mundo y la segunda venida de nuestro Señor. Todo lo que la raza humana ha logrado se derrumbará. Estallarán desastres naturales y conflictos violentos. Los fieles serán perseguidos, pero al final serán reivindicados.

“Se acerca el día”, profetizó Malaquías (3:19). “Llegarán los días”, advirtió Jesús (Lucas 21:6). A veces parece que los días que esperaban se aproximan rápidamente. Una pandemia, conflictos políticos y civiles, calentamiento global, desastres naturales: tal advertencia que el fin del mundo ha llegado no parece tan descabellada. Sin embargo, tampoco habría sido una sorpresa hace un año. . . o en varios otros puntos en los últimos años. Entonces, cuando escuchamos a alguien decir: “Ha llegado el momento”, recordemos las palabras de sabiduría de Jesús: “¡No los sigan!” (21:8). Siempre habrá quienes explotarán el miedo para sus propios fines, quienes vilipendiarán a quienes se les opongan, quienes intentarán separarnos unos de otros, y quienes insistirán en que solo ellos saben la verdad. ¡No los sigas! Nosotros sabemos en quién podemos confiar y seguir siempre. Y, como nos aseguró El que es el camino, la verdad y la vida, “Con vuestra perseverancia salvaréis vuestra vida” (21,19). Que esta garantía que nos dio Jesús nos dé confianza mientras miramos hacia un futuro incierto.

Pregunta de la Semana

¿Puedo tomar la urgencia de no saber cuándo llegará el fin de los tiempos para mí o para el mundo y canalizarla para hacer algo bueno? ¿Qué cosa práctica puedo hacer esta semana para ayudar a llevar a cabo la misión de Jesús?

CHRISTMAS TREES

We know it is a little early, but we are already planning for our Santa Brunch scheduled in December. We are in need of artificial Christmas trees (all sizes, in any condition). If you have one (or two) you would like to donate, please contact Kristin Rumfield at 210-386-7472 or drop it in the carport area of the Parish Life Building (Old Rectory) by December 1st. We are also taking monetary donations to purchase trees. Any amount helps. Thank you!

SACRISTANS

We are looking for new Sacristans. Our Catholic Faith is full of traditions. If you are interested in learning more about these traditions then becoming a Sacristan is for you. Or if you would just like to serve in a new ministry, that works too. You can serve as little or as much as you would like to. Some of the services the Sacristans are involved in are opening and setting up for weddings, funerals, quinces, baptisms, morning Masses, and weekend Masses. Reach out to Gayle Haese 210-262-1091 or catch one of the Sacristans you may see around church: Robert Neugebauer, Gary Thompson, Jennifer Davis or Millie Dupnik and ask them about it. We would love to have you join our amazing ministry.
