FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Parishioners,

Yesterday I had a chance to watch the movie “I can only Imagine” which is now in theaters throughout the country. It is based on the real-life experiences of Bart Millard who wrote the song “I can only Imagine” after forgiving his father from all the troubles and heartaches he caused Bart. The movie depicts true forgiveness, family, transformation and healing. I do recommend the whole family watch it.

In the gospel this weekend Jesus tells His disciples that He loved them. That same love emanates from the love of His Father to Him. And through that love all of us are considered His friends, because true friendship happens when everyone knows how to live together in mutual love. This love is our pattern for the perfect love for our family, friends, and others. I ask you to continue spreading that love of God to wherever you go and whatever you do.

The work on the Reconciliation Room and Ministers Room already started last week. The work will include mold abatement, tearing down and changing the sheet rock and installing new flooring. Please be patient as we improve these rooms so we will have a more comfortable space to receive God’s grace and healing and a work room for our ministers. It will take several weeks to finish all the work.

Lastly, I want to leave you with this quote from Mother Teresa:

—Fr. Eric Flores

MAY - THE MONTH OF MARY

The month of May is the month which the Catholic faithful have especially dedicated to Our Blessed Lady, and it is the occasion for a moving tribute of faith and love which Catholics in every part of the world pay to the Queen of Heaven.

During this month Catholics, both in church and in the privacy of their home, offer up to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance" (Paul VI: Encyclical on the Month of May, no. 1).

During the month of May, we are all encouraged to pray the rosary as much as possible. In the foyer you will find a handout on how to pray the rosary with all the Mysteries listed. Please feel free to take home a copy and give copies to those you know are unable to come to Mass.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

“Get Together” was a popular song in 1967 by the Youngbloods. I was not alive when the song was released, but it was a song I played frequently learning how to play guitar when I was younger. The song called for all of us to come together and “try to love one another right now.” It was a song that came out in the Vietnam War era and during somewhat of a hippie revolution, but perhaps the words belong to no real moment in time. They are simply the commands of Jesus.

Sometimes we minimize the power of love by cute pop songs and slogans that mean little without action. However, we can never underestimate the power of love. Love can tear down barriers between people, change tears to laughter, and mend relationships torn apart by sin.

No option exists for disciples of Jesus Christ to not love others. Not only are we commanded to do so, but love is a gift we must pass on freely. If we give of our time, talent, and treasure, but choose not to love, we cannot claim to be truly committed disciples and good stewards. As this Easter season draws ever closer to an end, we must allow our love to bear witness to the source of all love, the Risen Jesus. This is our calling until, as the words of the Youngbloods’ song states, “the one who left us here returns for us at last.”

—Tracy Welliver, MTS

GOSPEL MEDITATION FOR MAY 6TH

“I have called you friends.” Authentic friendship can seem hard to come by these days, especially in our transient society. We move away from family, change jobs, switch parishes, and end up in entirely new places with entirely new people. When we look for new friends, we all have different qualities we’re looking for. While we may think of certain standards of behavior necessary to be a “good” friend, we would hardly refer to them as rules or “commandments.”

In fact, if a friendship or romantic relationship—new or old—becomes characterized by imposed obligations, we would rightly be suspicious. Friendships, we understand, ought to be characterized by freedom. We love the person, even sacrifice for them at times because, within ourselves, we want to maintain the friendship. So why does Jesus use the language of command as he calls the Apostles his friends? “You are my friends if you do what I command you.”

Jesus is radically transforming the concept of commandment. In the Jewish heritage of the Apostles, they would hear the word “command” and immediately think of the strict Levitical law and distance from God. In introducing the language of friendship, Jesus ties “commandment” to inner freedom of heart. The disciples have this freedom precisely because they know “what the Master is doing.” Jesus has invited his followers into intimate friendship all along. He shares openly with them. He has patience with their flaws. He isn’t scandalized by their failures. He celebrates their successes. We, too, have been called by love and invited into a relationship with Jesus. It is you and I that Jesus chooses and appoints. He does so personally, not from a distant mountain shrouded in clouds. This “new commandment” to “love one another” is received around the shared table in the breaking of the bread.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

For Children: In what ways do you experience God’s love, offered to you through family, friends, and teachers?

For Youth: Jesus commanded us to love one another. Who is most in need of your love and kindness right now? How can you be more loving to those most in need this week?

For Adults: Concretely, how do you show love to others?
