A MESSAGE FROM FR. RAJ

My dear friends in Christ,

We are coming to the end of the liturgical year, and as we come to the end of things we are all called to be prepared. And that is why, as some of you know, and as some of you may have noticed, this week I am taking a few days off for vacation. =)

Next week is the solemnity of Christ the King, and then we fly right into Advent, and the next thing you know it is Christmas and we are celebrating the birth of our Lord and Savior. Given the situation this year, many of us priests haven't had a chance to use up our vacation time, but the bishop has encouraged us to find a way to take even a short break, if we can, before the end of the year. And so, in order to be ready for these great celebrations that are coming up, I am resting this week - spending some time with family, catching up on reading, maybe relaxing on the beach in Maui (I wish! haha). I hope to be recharged in order to serve God and his people more fruitfully.

I entrust myself to your prayers in this time, and know that even though I am away briefly, you are all in my prayers.

And just as the Lord reminds us in the Gospel this weekend, may all of us, take good care of what God has given us (even our own mental, physical, and spiritual health) so that we can bear greater fruit in the world, and "share in the master's joy."

God Bless you all.

In Christ,
Fr. Raj

Mis queridos amigos en Cristo,

Estamos llegando al final del año litúrgico, y cuando llegamos al final de las cosas, todos estamos llamados a estar preparados. Y por eso, como algunos de ustedes saben, y como algunos de ustedes se habrán dado cuenta, esta semana me tomo unos días libres de vacaciones. =)

La próxima semana es la solemnidad de Cristo Rey, y luego volamos directamente al Adviento, y lo siguiente que sabes es Navidad y estamos celebrando el nacimiento de nuestro Señor y Salvador. Dada la situación de este año, muchos de nosotros, los sacerdotes, no hemos tenido la oportunidad de utilizar nuestro tiempo de vacaciones, pero el obispo nos ha animado a encontrar la manera de tomarnos un pequeño descanso, si podemos, antes de fin de año. Entonces, para estar listo para estas grandes celebraciones que vienen, estoy descansando esta semana, pasando un tiempo con la familia, poniéndome al día con la lectura, tal vez relajándome en la playa en Maui (¡ojalá! jaja). Espero recargarme para poder servir a Dios y a su pueblo con más fruto.

Me encomiendo a sus oraciones en este tiempo, y sé que aunque estoy ausente brevemente, todos ustedes están en mis oraciones.

Y así como el Señor nos recuerda en el Evangelio este fin de semana, que todos cuidemos bien lo que Dios nos ha dado (incluso nuestra propia salud mental, física y espiritual) para que podamos dar mayor fruto en el mundo, y "comparte la alegría del maestro".

Dios los bendiga a todos.

En Cristo,
P. Raj

PROJECT ANGEL TREE

As in past years, Sacred Heart will be supporting Project Angel Tree (which gives gifts to the children of incarcerated parents) and LeBrun Place (a local assisted living facility). This year, because of Covid 19, Project Angel Tree will purchase a gift card for each child, allowing for a no-contact/no risk way for us to still share the love of Christ with these kids. Each child also receives a Bible. For Le Brun place, we will again be gifting residents with sweatshirt and sweatpants set. This year, the coordinators will be doing all the shopping on-line. We are asking for donations of $25 to sponsor either a child or adult, but we will accept any and all donations! We need a total of 70 donations of $25 to provide for everyone. You may mail your donation to Sacred Heart Parish, drop it in the collection or at the Parish office. Please be sure to mark it "ANGEL TREE". For further information please call Sandy, 524-4092 or Cindy, 949-9483. Please send donations by December 1st to allow time for processing. May God bless you for your generosity!

WEEKLY REFLECTIONS

GOSPEL MEDITATION FOR NOVEMBER 15TH

God gives us the gift of His very self and asks us to invest it. Investing God's greatest gift of Himself wisely, allows God's kingdom to grow and flourish. God trusts us with this pearl of great price in hopes that it will produce abundant fruit. While God's gift of self is realized in the gifts of faith, hope, and love, they are not meant to be solely for personal benefit. They are intended to be shared and are at the heart of Jesus' blueprint for happiness, the Beatitudes.

When we properly invest God's greatest gift, His most treasured possession, we invest in the wellbeing of all of our brothers and sisters and the world in which we live. We take up most seriously our call to be stewards and properly manage, not only our own affairs, but the affairs of those around and before us. God has put tremendous confidence in us. Do we have that same confidence in God?

We often go the extra mile and put in the additional effort when it comes to those concerns closest to us: our families, friends, careers, home and securities. But when it comes to things that are not as close to us, we can become lax and less conscientious. Tending to God's treasure requires a great deal of focus and persistent hard work. It demands that I see the bigger picture, God's picture, in which self-sacrifice is a given as we labor for the establishment of God's kingdom, God's vision. Fear and a lack of trust can loom large, however. We are afraid of letting go of what is "mine" and apprehensive of jeopardizing what we have in order to venture into something bigger and more promising.

Fear and a lack of trust serve no purpose in God's kingdom. They benefit neither the person nor God. What is required is a courageous resolve that produces the fortitude necessary to stay the course and do what God is asking. Doing all in our power to cultivate the seeds of faith, hope, and love in our world, working diligently to put all of our relationships in proper order, becoming attentive to systems and ideologies that hurt and oppress people, being mindful of injustice, and laboring on behalf of the poor and the needy are at the core of what each of us is asked to do. It is how we invest God's most precious gift wisely. If persistent, alert and attentive, then life will gradually improve around us, there will be greater peace and we will experience joy.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO 15 DE NOVIEMBRE

Este domingo escucharemos en la Liturgia sobre la parábola de los talentos y de cómo el Señor reparte estos de acuerdo a las habilidades de las personas. Dios ha invertido en nosotros y espera que esa inversión dé frutos de acuerdo a la capacidad personal. Hablando en términos actuales, algunas personas ahorran en bancos, y hasta ponen su dinero en la bolsa de valores, otras en cambio prefieren tener su dinero en casa, aunque no gane ningún interés.

De acuerdo al Evangelio, dos de los servidores hicieron muy bien. Sin embargo, el tercero no se preocupó en lo absoluto de poner a trabajar lo recibido. "Es importante no encerrarse en sí mismos, enterrando el propio talento, las propias riquezas espirituales, intelectuales, materiales, todo lo que el Señor nos ha dado, sino abrirse, ser solidarios, tener cuidado de los demás". ¿Han pensado en los talentos que Dios les ha dado? ¿Han pensado en cómo se pueden poner al servicio de los demás? ¡No entierren los talentos! Apuesten por grandes ideales, los ideales que agrandan el corazón, aquellos ideales de servicio que harán fructíferos sus talentos". La vida no se nos ha dado para que la conservemos celosamente para nosotros mismos, sino que se nos ha dado, para que la donemos. ¡Queridos jóvenes, tengan un corazón grande! ¡No tengan miedo de soñar cosas grandes!" Y añadió el Papa. "Nos dice que la espera del retorno del Señor es el tiempo de la acción. Nosotros somos el tiempo de la acción, tiempo para sacar provecho de los dones de Dios. (Papa Francisco a los jóvenes).
