Village People

Village People have an amazing success story of live performances worldwide for young audiences, television and video appearances. Village People recently celebrated their 20th anniversary with a national tour that included NYC's Madison Square Garden and Radio City Music Hall and L.A.'s Greek Theater. As they enter their third decade, they continue to thrill audiences from 4 to 94, at concerts world wide! Of the original and long term members, five of the six have continued on. The group's newest member Eric (Biker) joined in 1997. Selling more than 65 million recordings, the Village People are an instant phenomenon with hits such as: Macho Man • YMCA • In The Navy • San Francisco / In Hollywood • Go West • and More !

Guy Lombardo's Royal Canadians w/ Al Pierson

Founded in 1919, the Guy Lombardo Orchestra quickly established the fact that a song's "melody" and tempo was most important. The orchestra's "sweetest music this side of heaven" has always been consistently strong at the box office. Lombardo gave birth to the Royal Canadians, building their popularity via radio broadcast, television and a consistent string of best selling albums, which topped the million mark, a tradition which is still evident today, under the baton of Al Pierson. Entering the new Millennium, the man who invented New Year's Eve with his theme song "Auld Lang Syne" would be thrilled and honored knowing Al Pierson is reintroducing this album of Lombardo favorites with the same tradition, showmanship and style that has never been equaled in the era of big band music.

Al Pierson

Born Albert Theodore Pizzamiglio, Pierson studied music theory and composition at Illinois State University where he earned a Masters Degree. He taught music in colleges and high schools for over 15 years before going on the road with his own Big Band U.S.A. They toured the world during the next 15 years playing about 300 engagements annually, from Bangkok to Dallas to the Caribbean. The Lombardo estate approached Pierson in 1989 to take over and rejuvenate the band and the musical library without sacrificing his own identity and personality. Pierson was immediately attracted to the idea, in part because he had such fond memories of the orchestra when Lombardo was in charge, and had been disappointed by it in its recent incarnations. Guy Lombardo's Royal Canadians with Al Pierson is enjoying the resurgence of popularity through their sold-out concerts, crowded dance floors, PBS-TV series and specials, and sold-out cruises both domestic and international.

Jim Belushi & The Sacred Hearts Band

Jim Belushi is well known to audiences worldwide as a talented film actor who has appeared in films, such as "Return To Me" a current box office hit, "About Last Night," Oliver Stone's "Salvador," "Taking Care Of Business," "K-9," "Curley Sue," "Mr. Destiny," Michael Mann's "Thief," "Jingle All The Way," and "Red Heat" with Arnold Schwarzenegger and others too numerous to mention. Four years ago, Belushi and The Sacred Hearts Band formed the House of Blues, joined forces, performing all over the United States. He and his band have performed for audiences, including the President and Vice President of the United States. With a Heavy blues bent and a whole lot of soul, Jim Belushi & The Sacred Hearts Band are truly one of the greatest blues-rock bands on stage today!

The Max Carl Band

Max Carl is the founder, singer, performer and the writer of the legendary Los Angeles based soul act, Jack Mack and The Heart Attacks. His voice can be heard on recordings of superstars Elton John, Rod Stewart, Don Henley, Glenn Frey, Bonnie Raitt and many others. Max gained national attention when a song he sang and co-wrote for 38 special entitled "Second Chance" became Billboard's adult contemporary "Song of the Year." Max Carl's songs have been covered by such artists as: Bette Midler • Aaron Neville • Jennifer Warnes • Tower of Power • Huey Lewis • Just to name a few!

"Weird Al" Yankovic

The Tommy Dorsey Orchestra Conducted by Buddy Morrow

Buddy Morrow is one of the rare Big Band leaders of today; a man whose skill on his horn is both an inspiration to his band and a thrill to audiences wherever he appears. The band's repertoire embraces not only the classics, but also the spectrum of poplar music from Dixieland rhythm & blues and intricate ballads to progressive jazz and even current rock & roll. By the time Morrow was just thirteen, he was already playing with dance groups; at fifteen, he joined the Yale Collegians and toured the East Coast playing a variety of college events. Jazz great Bunny Berigan heard him sitting in on a jam session and was so impressed that he recommended him to Artie Shaw who hired him for his newly formed orchestra. Later, he joined Eddy Duchin, then Paul Whiteman, next came a call from Tommy Dorsey, to join his orchestra. One night in Detroit, Buddy came across an exciting rhythm and blues number and insisted that the band record it. The song was "Night Train", which became a national sensation and sold over one million copies.

America's Premier Doo-wop Group

The Alley Cats

The four members of The Alley Cats are a perfect blend both vocally and personally. More than a decade after they began, Royce Reynolds, whose solid bass vocals created the Cats' musical foundation, and Mando Fonseca, the second tenor, always ready with a pun or quick quip, has the ease of familiarity which make their camaraderie and vocal play radiate from the stage. Baritone John O'Campo, whose smooth vocals melt hearts all over the world; and the newest member, Phil Gold, re-creator of those searing 50's first tenor lines, brought their freshness and talent to an already solid foundation of A Cappella tradition. Together they are truly the Cats' meow!
