Peter Frampton

sponsored by
John & Monica McEntee

Frampton was one of several rock artists (Kiss, Cheap Trick, etc.) to break through to a wide audience with a live album; much like the others, he'd recorded several previous albums and built a following through extensive touring, in the process honing an exciting concert presence. In concert, he often expanded the songs into vehicles for his economical, tasteful guitar playing, and his pioneering use of the talk-box guitar effect became a trademark part of his performances.

"I'm back" acknowledges Peter Frampton in the song of the same name from his first studio album in nine years. "This is a very selfish album," says Peter Frampton. "It's me, doing what I want to do, for the first time in nine years." NOW, the name of Frampton's latest album, emerges as a supreme fusion of technique and emotion. Like the best of Frampton - and the best is as good as it gets - NOW is music for the ages, and for this very moment as well.

The ALLEY CATS are a perfect blend of musical talent and comic timing. Their interaction with audiences combined with their spontaneous humor makes each show refreshing and exciting. Royce, John, Mando, and Sean never miss a beat as they bring their own contemporary style to the great songs of the 50's and 60's. Together, their freshness and talent make them truly the Cat's meow!

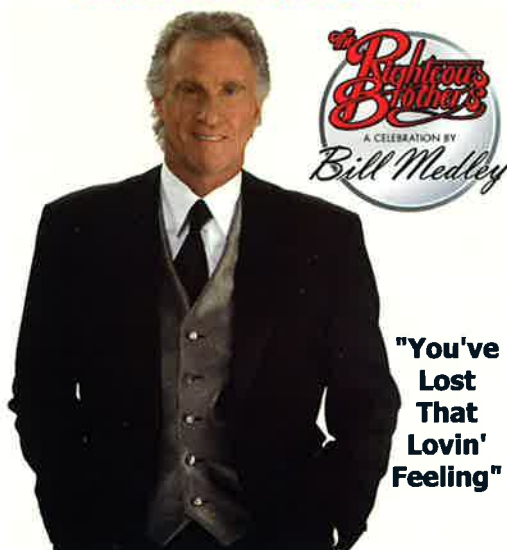

The Alley Cats

The Righteous Brothers built a tradition that continues to exist in pop music today. With the unexpected passing of his musical partner, Bobby Hatfield, Bill Medley assembled "Bill Medley Celebrates The Righteous Brothers," a concert format that allows Medley to continue the Righteous musical tradition, while still featuring Hatfield's undeniable imprint. During 2003, The Righteous Brothers recorded a live album for both CD and DVD. Sound and images from those recordings are featured in Medley's new show as a celebration of a performance style that it often times emulated, but can never be duplicated. The Righteous Brothers gave the concept of R&B a new sophistication and fans have supported the sound since the inception of The Righteous Brothers in the early 1960's. Join us to celebrate the music we have grown to know and love.

Nati Cano's Mariachi Los Camperos

sponsored by John & Monica McEntee with emerged as a major driving force of the mariachi music tradition in the United States, and to a certain extent, in Mexico as well. His life goal has been to bring greater acceptance, understanding, and respect to the mariachi tradition as a whole, and to reach the widest possible audience with his music.

Mariachi Divas

Mariachi Divas sponsored by The McNeese Family

Founded in 1999, the all-female Mariachi Divas are making big waves on the Los Angeles music scene. Mariachi Divas is a unique, multi-cultural ensemble, represented by women of: Mexican, Cuban, Samoan, Costa Rican, Panamanian, Japanese, Honduran, Swiss and Anglo decent.

You won't want to miss the Bonedaddy's if you are a fan of Rock, Funk, African, R&B, Soul, Reggae, Rock Steady, Jazz, Blues, Highlife, New Orleans Second-Line, Gospel, Hillbilly, Zydeco, and things in-between. AND-as a special treat-"Garage Sale" also features a collaboration with the great innovative architect of Rock and Roll and American national treasure --- BO DIDDLEY!

Joan Jett & The Blackhearts

sponsored by teientertainment.com

Joan Jett is a true American original. While still in her early teens, Joan, often called "the girl Elvis", founded the seminal all-girl group, THE RUNAWAYS, whos hits such as "Cherry Bomb" made them an international sensation. She became the first woman in rock to own her own record label, Blackheart Records. There, her next group, Joan Jett and the Blackhearts, became a staple in the Top 10 charts and claims the #28 song of all time, "I Love Rock n' Roll", which was number 1 on the Billboard charts for two months after 23 major record labels refused to give her a deal.
