The Most Holy Trinity - June 4, 2023

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. - Jn 3:16-17

VBS Church Camp this summer!!!

SMA invites your child, grades Pre-K—5th, to attend

July 17th—July 21st; 9:00am—12:00pm

Registration is available at:
www.smachurch.com/youth

Please consider volunteering.
 This can only happen if we have enough volunteers!

Praise the Holy Trinity

Some truths, like the very existence of God, can be known by human reason alone. Other truths, like the fact that God is One in Three Persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – can only be known if God reveals them to us. We could never conclude on our own that God is a Trinity.

Today's Feast is not only an opportunity for thanking God for telling us more about himself. It is an occasion to take courage as we strive for deeper unity within the human family.

God reveals himself to us in order to make us more like himself – not just as individuals, but as families, nations, and an international community. We grow in unity as we give ourselves away to one another, just as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit give themselves to each other completely.

In your charity, please pray for all who have gone before us and all the deceased of St. Mary of the Assumption.

Anthony J. Rulis
 Brother of Parishioner, Bernice Smith

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity."
(Ex 34:6)

Psalm:

Glory and praise for ever! (Dn 3:52b)

Second Reading:

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. (2 Cor 13:13)

Gospel:

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.
(Jn 3:17)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are reminded to encourage one another, to show affection and support. Can we do it? Can we do it in our daily interactions, in our families? Can we even do it on social media?

Observances for the week of June 4, 2023

- Sunday: The Most Holy Trinity
Monday: St. Boniface, Bishop and Martyr
Tuesday: St. Norbert, Bishop
Friday: St. Ephrem, Deacon and Doctor of the Church
Next Sunday: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Saint of the week

Servant of God Julia Greeley, Denver's Angel of Charity, was born into slavery and emancipated after the Civil War. She spent her life serving the poor with a special devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and a love for children and praying for the city's fire fighters.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, Your servant Julia Greeley dedicated her life to honoring the Sacred Heart of Your son and to the humble service of the poor. Grant to me a generous heart like Your son's, and if it be in accordance with your holy will, please grant this favor I now ask through Julia's intercession (insert intention).

I pray this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

We Bear the Name of the Lord

The name of the Lord is a curiously powerful thing. Say it deliberately, even in a group of people who are not particularly religious, and you'll know what I mean. There is a shift in the mood, a change in the atmosphere. When we utter the name of the Lord, He turns His head.

Once, in confession, I admitted to the sin of using the Lord's name in vain. "When you do that, tell God that you love him," advised the priest, who was wise enough to know that I would repeat this sin at some point. "You've said His name, after all. You have His attention."

We hear the name of the Lord, and we think of what it represents — John 3:16, salvation history summed up in a neat little sentence, the why and the how and the who of it all laid out before us. The Lord, so slow to anger that He offers us a million chances. The Lord, so rich in kindness and fidelity that He literally gave Himself to us that we might be saved.

But the name of the Lord is more than that. It is not just a symbol, it is an invitation. I think of Moses clutching the commandments, beseeching the Lord: "Come with us. Forgive us. Receive us as your own." The Lord accompanies us down the mountain. We bear the name of the Lord into the world with us wherever we go.

I have to ask myself: do I do that name justice?

*"Blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages."
— Daniel 3:52*

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

We live in a country that upholds the separation of Church and state. What is the role of Catholics in society?

Answer:

The role of the Church in the world has taken different forms over time, but the theme is the same. Be disciples in it! As the lay faithful — that is, not vowed priest or religious — we are called to live and love in the circumstances of our daily lives. St. John Paul II wrote a document about the laity. In it he wrote, "In their situation in the world God manifests His plan and communicates to them their particular vocation of seeking the Kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs and by ordering them according to the plan of God" (On the Lay Members of Christ's Faithful, 15).

God wants us in the hospitals, the board rooms, the law offices, the food pantries, and the little league games! We are to engage in the affairs of the world. But when we're there, we should live the plan of God. We need to respect those around us, engage in just business and legal practices, and love our children. We should care for the earth, use our money wisely, and get to know our neighbors. We must advocate for social policies that respect human dignity and human freedom. No matter our state in life, we are invited to build the kingdom of God!

LEGION OF MARY

"FILLING UP WHAT IS WANTING"

Similar to that text in general import is that other intriguing one from the same inspired writer, where he refers to a "filling up of what is wanting of the sufferings of Christ." (Ep. (Q Colossians, i, 24). This sounds mysterious, for of course nothing was defective in what Our Lord suffered or otherwise did. He left nothing undone that He had come to do. What is meant is that He gave what had to be given, that is what was beyond the power of man to produce. He imparted divine value to our acts. Without that contribution of divine worth which proceeds from Him all our acts and prayers would have no more value than the wind blowing through the trees or the flying of a bird. He also suffered to pay much of what man would refuse to expiate, but after that it was His policy to call on us to weigh in fully in every department of life. For instance, we can give Faith, and it is something that is demanded from us; faith is the basis of the Christian system. We can also contribute other virtuous ingredients - effort, suffering, prayer; and so we are permitted and stimulated to supply those things and to the fullest possible extent, That idea of looking to us, and indeed requiring of us, to make our own contribution towards Redemption is not a severity transaction - as if we were members of a chain gang or slaves where the task master wants to get the last drop out of us. On the contrary it is part of the law of love. It is for our benefit. It is the noblest conception imaginable.

We are being moulded to the life of Christ here, rendered like unto Him in His earthly conditions, permitted to share every burden of His, privileged to play a real co-operative part in His Mission. As the author of a standard treatise on the Mystical Body observes: "There is nothing in the life of Christ so personal as to exclude participation by His members therein." (Anger). We are thus formed into a oneness with Him here on earth, so that later on we merge into His Heavenly state and share His divinity.

The final end will be in strict proportion to our behaviour while on earth. If we give little here, that proportion will be carried on into Heaven. If we share much in His life here we will enjoy the fullness of Him in the life hereafter.

Therefore the position in regard to Our Lord and ourselves is very much like that of the human body, in which the head does not do everything. It does not take over the duties of the feet, or the hands, or any other organ of the body. It has its own quite essential duty, but it does not supplant the other functions. The other parts must play their respective roles to the full.

-from Gems of Wisdom by Frank Duff
Submitted by the Legion of Mary

As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise.

Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them.

Divine Will Prayer Group

Tuesdays—10:30 a.m.—11:30 a.m.

What is the Gift of Living in the Divine Will?

“The work is already done. There is nothing left except to make it known, so that, not only you, but also others may take part in these great blessings.”

“It behooves you to know that acts done in My Will Form the pathways that will serve to admit souls to live in My Will, and they are not so very necessary that if heroic souls do not first come forth in order to live in it and form the principal pathways of its kingdom generations, not finding those pathways, will not know what to do to enter into My Will. Do you see how necessary these pathways?”

“I told you many times that the mission of calling a soul to live in My Will is the greatest one; it is the highest and most sublime call. There is no other call that can match it.”!!!
