From the desk of Fr. Russell ...

As we approach the final days of the Christmas Season we see Isaiah repeatedly pointing to the Gospel of our Salvation.

Last week he pointed to the Epiphany we celebrated:

“The wealth of the nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian & Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold & frankincense, And proclaiming the praises of the LORD.”

This week he points to same Lamb that John the Baptist pointed out:

“In the desert prepare the way of the LORD! Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God! Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill shall be made low; the rugged country, a broad valley.

Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, And all people shall see it together; For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

The voice of the Father comes from heaven:

“You are my beloved Son; with you I am pleased.”

This was “After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying,

Heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove.”

John the Baptist had prepared the people and Jesus, the Son of God who became a baby in the womb of a woman, continued to show the way to salvation by his own example.

He sanctifies the waters of the Jordan that sanctify us. He who is without sin showed the path of cleansing repentance for the sinner. The people had been filled with expectation about the one John said would: “Baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” How grateful we are for the Divine Life that enters our world and enters us!

In Christ, son of Mary,
 Fr. Russell

JUBILEE 2025

Prayer for Daily Use

Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith You have gifted us in Your son Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity
 kindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us, the blessed hope for the coming of Your Kingdom.
 May Your grace transform us into diligent cultivators of the evangelical seeds that make humanity and the cosmos rise unto the confident expectation of the new heavens and the new earth,
 when with the powers of evil overcome,
 Your glory shall be manifested eternally.
 May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
 the yearning for heavenly treasures
 and pour over all the earth
 the joy and peace of our Redeemer.
 To You, God, blessed in eternity,
 be praise and glory for ever and ever.

Francis Amen.

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they begin to believe in him. Everyday, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.
 Your gift to the Society of SVDP becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

STEWARDSHIP
2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." 1 (CORINTHIANS 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

"There is such a wide spectrum of issues involving the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. Good people frequently disagree on which problems to address, which policies to adopt and how best to apply them. But for citizens and elected officials alike, the basic principle is simple: We must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. In other words, the choice of certain ways of acting is always and radically incompatible with the love of God and the dignity of the human person created in His image."

St Agnes January 21, Martyr

St. Agnes was but twelve years old when she was led to the altar of Minerva at Rome and commanded to obey the persecuting laws of Diocletian by offering incense. In the midst of the idolatrous rites she raised her hands to Christ, her spouse, and made the sign of the life-giving cross. She did not shrink when she was bound hand and foot, though the gyves slipped from her young hands, and the heathens who stood around her were moved to tears. The bonds were not needed for her, and she hastened gladly to the place of her torture. Next, when the judge saw that pain had no terrors for her, he inflicted an insult worse than death: her clothes were stripped off, and she had to stand in the street before a pagan crowd; yet even this did not daunt her. "Christ," she said, "will guard His own." So it was. Christ showed, by a miracle, the value which He sets upon the custody of the eyes. Whilst the crowd turned away their eyes from the spouse of Christ, as she stood exposed to view in the street, there was one young man who dared to gaze at the innocent child with immodest eyes. A flash of light struck him blind, and his companions bore him away half dead with pain and terror. Lastly, her fidelity to Christ was proved by flattery and offers of marriage. But she answered, "Christ is my Spouse: He chose me first, and His I will be." At length the sentence of death was passed. For a moment she stood erect in prayer, and then bowed her neck to the sword. At one stroke her head was severed from her body, and the angels bore her pure soul to Paradise.

Reflection: Her innocence endeared St. Agnes to Christ, as it has endeared her to His Church ever since. Even as penitents we may imitate this innocence of hers in our own degree. Let us strictly guard our eyes, and Christ, when He sees that we keep our hearts pure for love of Him, will renew our youth and give us back the years which the canker-worm has wasted.
