"Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?'"

John 11:40

Many of us say that we believe in God. We attend Sunday Mass and participate in parish events. But when life gets hard and the pressure is on, when things aren't going our way, do we really believe? Do we really put our trust in the Lord? When we live a life of gratitude, recognizing all that we have been given, we really do see that God is providing for our needs. Living a grateful and generous life allows us to see God's active presence in our daily lives and we become "partakers of the divine nature."

FATHER'S CORNER

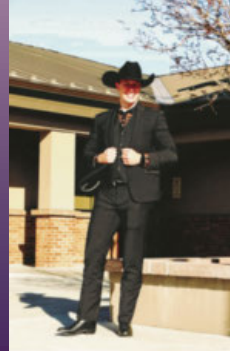

Fr. Pawel

It was a delightful day on March 24th, 1996, when my humble person was born in a city of dozens of bridges called Wroclaw. Short historical facts about my city: In the year 1000, Boleslaw I established a bishopric in Wroclaw. As a direct result of fighting during World War II, 90 percent of the city's industry and 70 percent of its residential area were heavily damaged or entirely destroyed. According to data from before World War II, Wroclaw had 303 bridges; today, there are 100 bridges and 33 gangways.

Ordained: June 3rd 2021.

My rudimentary hobby is taking pictures by my phone but in the same I love to travel.

Taking pictures gives me joy and power to see more in our world but at the same time I want to show others how alluring the earth is. During my short life I have visited over a dozen countries such as: Israel, Italy, Finland, Canada, Romania, France, Switzerland, Spain, Turkey, Germany, Austria, Slovakia, Hungary, and many others. Thanks to all the places I've visited, I've learned that everyone is different, everyone has their own culture, way of life, and we can learn from each other. Many acquaintances that I have formed in each of these countries have opened me to the world and to people. I found out that I'm not perfect and I can learn a lot from others as well.

LA ESQUINA DEL PADRE

Padre Pawel

Era un día delicioso el 24 de marzo de 1996, cuando nació mi humilde persona en una ciudad de decenas de puentes llamada Wroclaw. Breves hechos históricos sobre mi ciudad: En el año 1000, Boleslaw I estableció un obispado en Wroclaw. Como resultado directo de los combates durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial, el 90 por ciento de la industria de la ciudad y el 70 por ciento de su área residencial sufrieron graves daños o fueron completamente destruidos. Según datos anteriores a la Segunda Guerra Mundial, Wroclaw tenía 303 puentes; hoy hay 100 puentes y 33 pasarelas.

Ordenado: 3 de junio de 2021

Mi pasatiempo rudimentario es tomar fotografías con mi teléfono, pero al mismo tiempo me encanta viajar.

Tomar fotografías me da alegría y poder para ver más en nuestro mundo, pero al mismo tiempo quiero mostrarles a los demás lo atractiva que es la tierra. Durante mi corta vida he visitado más de una docena de países como: Israel, Italia, Finlandia, Canadá, Rumania, Francia, Suiza, España, Turquía, Alemania, Austria, Eslovaquia, Hungría y muchos otros. Gracias a todos los lugares que he visitado, he aprendido que todos somos diferentes, todos tenemos nuestra propia cultura, forma de vida y podemos aprender unos de otros. Muchas amistades que he formado en cada uno de estos países me han abierto al mundo ya la gente. Descubrí que no soy perfecto y que también puedo aprender mucho de los demás.
