13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith."

When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." - Mk 5:36bc, 38-39

Le dijo al jefe de la sinagoga: "No temas. Basta que tengas fe". Al llegar a la casa del jefe de la sinagoga, vio Jesús el alboroto de la gente y oyó los llantos y los alaridos que daban. Entró y les dijo: "¿Qué significa tanto llanto y alboroto? La niña no está muerta, está dormida". - Mc 5, 36. 38-39

"...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply you want, that there may be equality.

2 Corinthians 8:14

One of the tenants of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture, and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the "Body of Christ." We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

FATHER'S CORNER

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

ST. EDWARD'S SCHOOL NEWS

Lord, today bless those who have served and continue to give their lives for my freedom.

With favor and bounty meet their needs and watch over their families.

Help me to live my life in a way that glorifies you, Lord.

Give me the strength to be a blessing in someone else's life today, and grant me the opportunity to lead others into the freedom that can be found in knowing Christ.

Amen

Have a Blessed 4th of July!

LA ESQUINA DEL PADRE

El Evangelio de hoy nos narra las historias de dos mujeres, una mayor y una niña, unidas por el dolor de la enfermedad. Una de ellas fue curada por su gran fe, y la pequeña, al tomarla Jesús de la mano, volvió a la vida. A la mayoría de las personas les da pavor el pensar que están enfermas y peor aún que pueden morir. ¿Qué podemos decir a tanta persona enferma y triste? ¿Cómo podemos consolarlas en sus tribulaciones? Una manera es acompañarlas y escucharlas, estar con ellas mostrándoles interés y ayudarlas en sus necesidades. Otra forma es tomando el ejemplo de la mujer que buscó y se acercó a Jesús para ser curada. Busquemos a Jesús con la misma fe que ella lo hizo. Venció los obstáculos del miedo y de la distancia y tocó su manto. Sólo Dios puede y tiene el poder de sanar nuestros corazones y renovar nuestra vida.

Jesús pasó su vida haciendo el bien, curando y perdonando, y siempre al final de sus milagros daba una recomendación. A la mujer enferma le dijo: “Hija, tu fe te ha salvado; vete en paz y queda sana de tu enfermedad” (Marcos 5:34). Y a la pequeña: “Tomándola de la mano, dijo a la niña: Talitá kumi, que quiere decir: Niña, te lo digo, ¡levántate!... y les dijo que dieran algo de comer a la niña” (Marcos 5:41-43). No se ha terminado el tiempo de los milagros, sigue en pie, solo que ahora nos toca a nosotros los bautizados seguir haciéndolos. ¿Cómo? Sencillamente, compartiendo lo que tenemos y acompañando de corazón a los que sufren a nuestro alrededor.
