A Word from Holy Father Francis for Lent 2025

Let us journey together in hope

Dear brothers and sisters,

We begin our annual pilgrimage of Lent in faith and hope with the penitential rite of the imposition of ashes. The Church, our mother and teacher, invites us to open our hearts to God's grace, so that we can celebrate with great joy the paschal victory of Christ the Lord over sin and death, which led Saint Paul to exclaim: "Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" (*1 Cor*15:54-55). Indeed, Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, is the heart of our faith and the pledge of our hope in the Father's great promise, already fulfilled in his beloved Son: life eternal (cf.*Jn*10:28; 17:3).^[1]

This Lent, as we share in the grace of the Jubilee Year, I would like to propose a few reflections on what it means to journey together in hope, and on the summons to conversion that God in his mercy addresses to all of us, as individuals and as a community.

First of all, to journey. The Jubilee motto, "Pilgrims of Hope", evokes the lengthy journey of the people of Israel to the Promised Land, as recounted in the Book of Exodus. This arduous path from slavery to freedom was willed and guided by the Lord, who loves his people and remains ever faithful to them. It is hard to think of the biblical exodus without also thinking of those of our brothers and sisters who in our own day are fleeing situations of misery and violence in search of a better life for themselves and their loved ones. A first call to conversion thus comes from the realization that all of us are pilgrims in this life; each of us is invited to stop and ask how our lives reflect this fact. Am I really on a journey, or am I standing still, not moving, either immobilized by fear and hopelessness or reluctant to move out of my comfort zone? Am I seeking ways to leave behind the occasions of sin and situations that degrade my dignity? It would be a good Lenten exercise for us to compare our daily life with that of some migrant or foreigner, to learn how to sympathize with their experiences and in this way discover what God is asking of us so that we can better advance on our journey to the house of the Father. This would be a good "examination of conscience" for all of us wayfarers.

Second, to journey together. The Church is called to walk together, to be synodal.^[2] Christians are called to walk at the side of others, and never as lone travelers. The Holy Spirit impels us not to remain self-absorbed, but to leave ourselves behind and keep walking towards God and our brothers and sisters.^[3] Journeying together means consolidating the unity grounded in our common dignity as children of God (cf.*Gal*3:26-28). It means walking side-by-side, without shoving or stepping on others, without envy or hypocrisy, without letting anyone be left behind or excluded. Let us all walk in the same direction, tending towards the same goal, attentive to one another in love and patience.

This Lent, God is asking us to examine whether in our lives, in our families, in the places where we work and spend our time, we are capable of walking together with others, listening to them, resisting the temptation to become self-absorbed and to think only of our own needs. Let us ask ourselves in the presence of the Lord whether, as bishops, priests, consecrated persons and laity in the service of the Kingdom of God, we cooperate with others. Whether we show ourselves welcoming, with concrete gestures, to those both near and far. Whether we make others feel a part of the community or keep them at a distance.^[4] This, then, is a second call to conversion: a summons to synodality.

Third, let us journey together in hope, for we have been given a promise. May the hope that does not disappoint (cf.*Rom*5:5), the central message of the Jubilee,^[5] be the focus of our Lenten journey towards the victory of Easter. As Pope Benedict XVI taught us in the Encyclical Spe Salvi, "the human being needs unconditional love. He needs the certainty which makes him say: 'neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord' (*Rom*8:38-39)".^[6] Christ, my hope, has risen!^[7] He lives and reigns in glory. Death has been transformed into triumph, and the faith and great hope of Christians rests in this: the resurrection of Christ!

This, then, is the third call to conversion: a call to hope, to trust in God and his great promise of eternal life. Let us ask ourselves: Am I convinced that the Lord forgives my sins? Or do I act as if I can save myself? Do I long for salvation and call upon God's help to attain it? Do I concretely experience the hope that enables me to interpret the events of history and inspires in me a commitment to justice and fraternity, to care for our common home and in such a way that no one feels excluded?

Sisters and brothers, thanks to God's love in Jesus Christ, we are sustained in the hope that does not disappoint (cf.*Rom*5:5). Hope is the "sure and steadfast anchor of the soul".^[8] It moves the Church to pray for "everyone to be saved" (*1 Tim*2:4) and to look forward to her being united with Christ, her bridegroom, in the glory of heaven. This was the prayer of Saint Teresa of Avila: "Hope, O my soul, hope. You know neither the day nor the hour. Watch carefully, for everything passes quickly, even though your impatience makes doubtful what is certain, and turns a very short time into a long one" (The Exclamations of the Soul to God, 15:3).^[9]

May the Virgin Mary, Mother of Hope, intercede for us and accompany us on our Lenten journey.

Liturgy of the Hours

Join Monsignor Hennessy for a conversation on the Liturgy of the Hours, the daily prayer of the Church, which allows us to make holy our day and to pray without ceasing. We will learn about the different hours of prayer and how we can pray these collections of the Psalms, Sacred Scriptures and writings of the Church and Saints. Whether by using the official books or an app on your phone or tablet, everyone can join in this prayer and give a new rhythm to their day, even by praying just one of the hours. There is only one session left available on Thursday, March 6th from 6:30pm to 7:30pm.

Saint Alphonsus Book Club

Please join us on Monday, March 31st as we discuss The Death of Bees by Lisa O'Connell. Set in Glasgow, this novel follows Marnie and Nelly, two sisters as they navigate their lives – and complicated secrets – without their parents. Our meeting starts promptly at 7:00 pm, but all are welcome to arrive at 6:45 for a quick chat before we begin our discussion.

Come armed with questions and comments. Need to know more? Contact Joan Wolff at joanvwolff@gmail.com. Until then, happy reading!

Lenten Resource Table

Visit our Lenten Resource Table in the Narthex the weekend of March 1st and 2nd. There you can find many materials to journey through Lent with, including Little Black Books - 6 Minute Meditations; Little Purple Books for Children; Walking in His Ways - Family Devotions for Lent; Daily Lent Calendar for Kids; The Word Among us Daily Lenten Meditations; Bishop Barron's Lenten Gospel Reflections; and The Magnificat Lenten Companion.

Learn About Luke:

The Story of Salvation Fulfilled

In the next few weeks the Tuesday Morning Bible Study Group will begin the Ascension Press 8-Part series on St. Luke. Presenter Jeff Cavins and Jeffrey Morrow tell us that "Luke: the Story of Salvation Fulfilled" explores the life and teachings of Jesus Christ as told by St. Luke the Evangelist. Luke's narrative shows us how Jesus fulfills the Old Testament prophecies and everything the Scriptures foretold about the coming Messiah. As you journey through Luke's account, you will encounter Jesus in a new way and discover how his teachings fit into your life today. We meet every Tuesday at 7:30 AM in the St. Alphonsus narthex meeting room and on Zoom. For more information contact the parish office at 215-646-4600 or email rectory@stalphonsusparish.org.

Spring Pre-Cana

Our Spring session is scheduled for Friday (April 11th) evening and Saturday (12th). Friday evening is an informal hour to get to know the married and soon-to-be married couples participating and typically lasts from 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM.. Saturday's session is from 8:00 AM - 2:00 PM and includes discussions and interactive sessions to help engaged couples with a deeper understanding of marriage and each other. Visit www.stalphonsusparish.org/pre-cana or use the QR code to register!

Friday, April 11th at 7:00 PM
Saturday, April 12th at 8:00 AM
