End of Year Donations

"Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Corinthians 9:7).

Recently we began a new liturgical year, and soon we will begin a new calendar year, so I would like to take a few minutes to thank all of our donors who support both of our parishes. Your support, financially and spiritually, is deeply appreciated. In addition to your weekly tithes, we were blessed with generous benefactors who provided gifts from their estates, as well as distributions from both the Cass and Miami County Community Foundations in 2021.

All Saints and St. Charles Borromeo relies on the generosity of donors like you in order to offer programs, to maintain our historic churches for worship, and to contribute to the needs of our broader communities. Our respective finance councils have been reviewing budgets for 2022 as we look forward to building upon the success of this past year.

End of year donations can be sent to our parish office(s) or made online from our website https://cassmiamicatholic.org. Please note there are links for each parish under their respective tab (Cf. "Online Giving" under All Saints, and "Giving" under St. Charles Borromeo). You may contact Angela Braden at abraden@parish.dol-in.org or by calling the parish office for more information.

Fr. Adam Mauman

Donaciones de Fin de Año

"Cada uno debe dar como ha decidido en su corazón, no de mala gana ni por obligación, porque Dios ama al dador alegre" (2 Corintios 9:7).

Recientemente hemos comenzado un nuevo año litúrgico, y pronto comenzaremos un nuevo año civil, por lo que me gustaría tomar unos minutos para agradecer a todos nuestros donantes que apoyan a nuestras dos parroquias. Su apoyo, financiero y espiritual, es profundamente apreciado. Además de sus diezmos semanales, fuimos bendecidos con generosos benefactores que proporcionaron donaciones de sus propiedades, así como distribuciones de las Fundaciones Comunitarias del Condado de Cass y Miami en 2021.

Todos los Santos y San Carlos Borromeo dependen de la generosidad de donantes como usted para poder ofrecer programas, mantener nuestras iglesias históricas para el culto, y contribuir a las necesidades de nuestras comunidades más amplias. Nuestros respectivos consejos de finanzas han estado revisando los presupuestos para el 2022 mientras esperamos construir sobre el éxito de este año pasado.

Las donaciones de fin de año pueden enviarse a nuestra(s) oficina(s) parroquial(es) o hacerse en línea desde nuestro sitio web https://cassmiamicatholic.org. Por favor, tenga en cuenta que hay enlaces para cada parroquia bajo su respectiva pestaña (Cf. "Online Giving" bajo All Saints, y "Giving" bajo St. Charles Borromeo). Puede ponerse en contacto con Angela Braden en abraden@parish.dol-in.org o llamando a la oficina parroquial para obtener más información.

P. Adam Mauman

FROM THE UNITING IN HEART TEAM

Bishop, Vicar General, Moderator of the Curia and Chancellor

Bishop Doherty's role is to teach, sanctify and govern. "Helped by the priests, their co-workers, and by the deacons, the bishops have the duty of authentically teaching the faith, celebrating divine worship, above all the Eucharist, and guiding their Churches as true pastors. Their responsibility also includes concerns for all the Churches, with and under the pope" (Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 939). The bishop's role as a servant leader is to do everything in his power to unite the people of the diocese in heart and mind in the image and likeness of Jesus Christ, so they can continue in Christ's footsteps to build the reign of God on earth (Uniting in Heart Pastoral Planning Guide, 2015).

The vicar general/moderator of the curia as overall administrative coordinator is required, "...under the authority of the bishop to coordinate the exercise of administrative responsibilities and to see to it that other members of the curia duly fulfill the office entrusted to them" (Canon 473).

The chancellor is to see that all acts of the curia are gathered, arranged and safe-guarded in the archives of the curia, as well as secretary of the curia (Canon 483, §§ 1 and 3).

FROM THE UNITING IN HEART TEAM

Obispo, Vicario General, Moderador de la Curia y Canciller

El papel del obispo Doherty es enseñar, santificar y gobernar. "Ayudados por los sacerdotes, sus colaboradores y los diáconos, los obispos tienen el deber de enseñar auténticamente la fe, celebrar el culto divino, sobre todo la Eucaristía, y guiar a sus Iglesias como verdaderos pastores. Su responsabilidad también incluye preocupaciones por todas las Iglesias, con y bajo el Papa" (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica n. 939). El papel del obispo como líder servidor es hacer todo lo que esté a su alcance para unir de corazón y mente, a las personas de la diócesis, a imagen y semejanza de Jesucristo, para que, siguiéndolo como discípulos, contribuyan en la construcción del reino de Dios en la tierra (Guía de Planificación Pastoral Uniting in Heart, 2015).

Se requiere al Vicario General / Moderador de la Curia como coordinador administrativo general, "... bajo la autoridad del obispo para coordinar el ejercicio de las responsabilidades administrativas y velar por que otros miembros de la curia cumplan debidamente con el cargo que se les ha confiado" (Canon 473).
El Canciller velará por que todos los actos de la curia se recopilen, dispongan y custodien en los archivos de la curia, así como el secretario de la curia (Canon 483, §§ 1 y 3).

Ask the Apologist Answers

Dear Apologist, I've heard clergy say that everyone should follow their conscience. Is that Catholic teaching?

Yes. However, one must first understand what the Church says about conscience. Our culture would say conscience is an emotional intuition - what "feels right". The Church's stance is that conscience is an exercise of moral knowledge and reason [CCC 1796]. If a person has all the information necessary to properly form his conscience, that person is culpable for his actions. On the other hand, a person who is ignorant of the truth is less responsible for his actions. This is reflected in an analogy Jesus made: "The servant who knew his master's will but did not act accordingly shall receive a severe beating. But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating." [Luke 12:47-48]

The Catechism states: "A human being must always obey the certain judgment of his conscience. If he were deliberately to act against it, he would condemn himself. Yet it can happen that moral conscience remains in ignorance and makes erroneous judgments." [CCC 1790] For instance: A man of the Sikh religion would sincerely believe it is immoral for him to cut his hair. The Church thus says he should not be forced to cut his hair. That is because the integrity of his conscience, while erroneous in its judgment, is part of his dignity. Further, he should not cut his hair if he believes it offends God.

We are obligated to continually form our conscience. In this task, the Scriptures and the authoritative teachings of the Church are to be our guide [CCC 1784-1785]. A Catholic who is aware of the Church's teaching cannot ignore the Church by appealing to his conscience. God will not judge us by what we feel, but by what we know.
