Norma Himmelright

Greetings on the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

Our second reading for this Sunday from Thessalonians has this line: "For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction." When you say these words out loud what image comes to mind? How many people there where, was the speaker standing or sitting, was it a conversation? When you say these words out loud which of the words seem to speak to your heart? Is it "power and Holy Spirit" or the word "conviction"? Where does contemplation of those words take your heart and soul?

When you enter the sanctuary you notice the numbers for the Sunday readings are on the music board. This is so we can take the opportunity before Mass to look them over and contemplate Scripture. During Mass we have the "Proclamation of the Word" we are called to listen closely and use one of the methods described above to let Scripture enter our being! Remember the words we say when we sign ourselves with the cross three times before listening to the Gospel. "Lord let your word dwell in my mind, be on my lips, and settle in my heart!"

Here is some more trivia that makes you look smart at family events: The sentence: "The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog" uses every letter of the alphabet. The winter of 1932 was so cold that Niagara Falls froze completely solid. The words 'racecar', 'kayak' and 'level' are the same whether they are read left to right or right to left (palindromes). There are 293 ways to make change for a dollar. There are more chickens than people in the world.

In the Pastoral Letter, "Meeting Christ -Living Christ," Bishop Hoepfner talks about the importance of family in prayer. Please arrange your Tuesday evening schedule so you can attend as Bishop Hoepfner discusses the topic: "FAMILIES: The Domestic Church." We will also have available a Book of Blessings that can be used in family settings.

We have one more anointing Mass scheduled this month. It will be on Thursday at 10:30AM at Goldpine. Please bring your family members or friends that can use the healing power of Jesus. When I read the Scripture passage quoted above I thought of the effects I have seen when an anointing takes place. The hand of God touches His people with power and conviction.

This Thursday we also have the NET (National Evangelization Team) retreat for our middle-schoolers. Please keep them in prayer as they witness Jesus come alive in and through the lives of the visiting team members.

We close our Masses this weekend with Benediction: a traditional practice of our faith where we have the opportunity to gaze upon Jesus in the Monstrance. We do this immediately after receiving Jesus in Holy Communion. This is a wonderful time to praise God, and let Him know the intimate thoughts of our heart. We can then leave the church in the knowledge that Christ is before us and in us to strengthen us for life in the world. It is our task to bring Him to others and He wants to be with us on the journey.

Here are the last of my trivia comments: There are only four words in the English language which end in "dous": tremendous, horrendous, stupendous, and hazardous. There are two words in the English language that have all five vowels in order: "abstemious" and "facetious." In the last 4,000 years; no new animals have been domesticated. If the population of China walked past you, in single file, the line would never end because of the rate of reproduction. A shark is the only fish that can blink with both eyes. A snail can sleep for three years. "Dreamt" is the only English word that ends in the letters "mt"

Blessings on your day! Fr Chuck

KINDRED FAMILY FOCUS

Are You Ready to Make a Difference in a Child's Life? Kindred Family Focus is a private, non-profit agency designated by the Minnesota Department of Human Services to license adoptive homes and place youth who are under state or tribal guardianship for the purpose of adoption. We are currently recruiting for adoptive families in the area. Kindred Family Focus offers adoption services at no cost to families.

Our agency is in need of Foster Homes as well. Children often enter foster care through no fault of their own. They have often been abused or neglected, and they may have emotional and behavioral issues as a result. Foster care may be needed temporarily in an emergency situation to provide safety for a child or siblings, or foster care may be long-term when a child cannot be reunited with their family. The role of a foster parent is to work with children's families and social workers to reunite children with their birth families, or to provide a stable home for children.

If you are interested in Adoption or Foster Care, please call Kindred Family Focus at (218) 333-8000 or email us at kmoudry@nexus-kff.

When a woman experiences pregnancy, not as a blessing, but as an intolerable burden, it does not mean that her true needs can be met by making it possible for her to empty her womb. Some claim to be pro-abortion because they feel compassion for pregnant women in distress, but what kind of compassion would have us terminate a woman's pregnancy & yet do nothing to alleviate the misery and problems that are driving her to abortion in the first place?

- Excerpt from a pro-life clinic training manual

REMINDER: The Diocese of Crookston/Office of New Evangelization will be leading a Rosary at Planned Parenthood in Bemidji on Saturday, November 1 at 12 Noon. November 2 ends the worldwide 40 Days for Life fall campaign. Our prayers are making a difference. www.40daysforlife.com

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

Cash donations can also help us purchase any items we may be short on throughout the year. Donations can be accepted by calling Allison Forte at 218-444-1395.

UPCOMING ANOINTING MASSES

Do you know someone who is sick, anticipating surgery, under stress? During the months of October, February and June all of the Masses offered at our nursing homes will be designated as Anointing Masses. You are invited to attend and bring with you; your friend or family member to receive this powerful Sacrament of Healing. As the celebrant my heart fills with gratitude as I witness through you the power of the love of Jesus. I watched someone struggling with breathing, catch their breath, and relax; I listened as someone struggling with a terminal diagnosis said "It is now in God's hands." I looked on and shared the joy of someone who felt great relief as a burden of stress was lifted from her life. The 22 year old who was told 2 hours earlier she has cancer was able to relax and talk about what the next steps are for her. The parents of the baby were able to experience God's protection come over them and their child. The Anointing of the Sick is powerful. It is a blessing to receive this Sacrament more than once in your life. It is not only for those close to death. It is a Sacrament that can heal... literally! It heals our relationship with God. It makes us right with God. Through this Sacrament God chooses to forget our sins! He grants peace and comfort. Through the prayers of the church we call forth saints and angels and the power of the Spirit to affect our lives and our attitudes. Thanks be to God for this powerful gift!

October: Month of the Rosary

There are times we, as Catholics, are asked how the Rosary can truly be a prayer when all you do is repeat the same words over and over!+ Archbishop Fulton Sheen tells the story of a time he was doing marriage preparation with a couple and the bride to be was considering becoming Catholic. She told Sheen one of her biggest problems with Catholicism was the Rosary and how she thought just repeating the same words over and over again really wasn't true prayer, that we could not mean the words we keep repeating. Sheen asked her if her husband to be had ever told her he loved her. She said, "Yes, many times!"+ Sheen then asked when was the last time? "He tells me he loves me at the end of every phone conversation and when we leave each other after a date." The Archbishop's response was simple, "Well, if all he is doing is repeating the same words, he can't possibly mean them!"+ The bride to be got the point.

If we have ever longed for something—our wedding day, ordination day, Christmas, a loved one coming home from war—then we know what makes the Rosary so powerful. The Rosary is a longing put into words. We think about Christ and how Mary longed to protect him, speak out for him, shield him. Mary longed to be close to Jesus every moment she could. The Rosary is our echo of that longing for Jesus. We go with Mary, to her Son, longing for him to bring peace, hope, love into our lives. Longing put into words—the beautiful gift of the Rosary.
