33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Greetings,

During the consecration during the Mass, as I genuflect, I acknowledge that Jesus is my Lord, my God, and my Savior, I sometime will also get the imagery of how crowded it can get around the altar when Jesus arrives and brings with Him all the saints and angels. I read an article this week in which the author noted it is getting even more crowded as each year God calls home more and more of His sons and daughters. With a mass this week dedicated to the remembrance of those gone before us I find it helpful to reflect on how much God loves us that He would die so we could live. How He would rise from the dead so we can see that death does not have a hold over us. There is so much hope and peace we can find in the salvation promised by Jesus.

Where love is, there God is found. We can learn so much from those who have gone before us... we just need to listen! we just need to be quiet and meditate on the joys, light and example they bring.

When someone dies there is the pain of separation: knowing we will not be able to hold them, we will not be able to hear their physical voice. A favorite quote from Gabriel Garcia Marquez still speaks volumes to me: “Always say what you feel, and do what you think is good and right. If I knew that today would be the last time I’d see you, I would hug you tight and pray the Lord be the keeper of your soul. If I knew that this would be the last time you pass through this door, I’d embrace you, kiss you, and call you back for one more. If I knew that this would be the last time I would hear your voice, I’d take hold of each word to be able to hear it over and over again. If I knew this is the last time I see you, I’d tell you I love you, and would not just assume foolishly you know it already.”

Share your love for others. Give them a hug, and maybe even take the chance to say to them: “Jesus Loves you and so do I.”

We are coming to close with the Year of Marriage in the Diocese of Crookston. I want to share a website that has tremendous information and activities for spouses and families. Please checkout www.foryourmarriage.org How much time will you spend with your spouse today? Some studies say the average couple spends 20 minutes a day together. When you were dating was it hard to get 20 minutes apart? what changed? Would you like the man or woman you married back? Check out the information on the webpage.

I challenge couples to look each other in the eye and say: I love you because! and then provide the reason. Can you imagine how good it will feel when your spouse says: I love you because you have made me a whole man by bearing my children! or I love you because you show such strong love for me and the kids. I feel protected in your care.

Can you imagine the look you would get if you said, right at bedtime: I married you for better or worse! here is a “for better” that I see in you! Thank you Dear!

One last quote: “Marriage, is not so much about finding the right person as it is about being or becoming the right person. As a spouse we must always look at us and our marriage within the context of our relationship with God. We must always remember to see our spouse as the most precious gift on earth that God has presented to us. My spouse was and still is God’s precious child before he/she ever became my spouse.”

Jesus Loves you and so do I! Blessings on your day! Fr Chuck

BREAKING NEWS REPORTED ON NOV. 6, 2014 (www.40daysforlife.com)

40 Days for Life Moves Into Former Abortion Center:

Ten years ago, the very first 40 Days for Life campaign was conducted outside the Planned Parenthood abortion center in Bryan/College Station, Texas. Last year, it became the 37th abortion facility to shut down following 40 Days for Life campaigns outside of the doors. As of Nov. 6, the former Planned Parenthood abortion center in Bryan/College Station is about to become the NEW HEADQUARTERS for 40 Days for Life! This news shows what God can accomplish when His people pray, + said Shawn Carney, campaign director of 40 Days for Life. For the full story article visit the website listed above.

Overall 2014 fall worldwide campaign results will be soon reported.

START THINKING "LENT"

The weekend of Feb.26 through March 1 Fr. Don will be the spiritual director for a Men's Cursillo Weekend. Cursillo is a Thursday night to Sunday afternoon gathering of men (women's weekend is set for March 19-22). The word Cursillo+ is Spanish for short course.+ It is pronounced KER-SEE-O. During the weekend, fifteen talks are given which range from the true meaning of grace to the role of the sacraments and prayer in our life. It is a relaxing weekend when you can simply put your worldly+ mind on pause and soak in great talks, great food and plenty of fellowship! Let Christ take your worries for a few days and let him refresh you. In prayer, ask him if he wants you there! For more information on either the men's or women's weekend, contact Fr. Don.
