One of my favorite foundations of Catholic theology is what I like to call the both, and principle. Almost every significant theological discussion in Church history resolved itself through a better understanding of two very opposite theological ideas. For example, in the early centuries of the Church there was one theological facet stating that Jesus was wholly Man and another facet convinced Jesus was wholly God. The church's resolution became the doctrine of Christ as we understand it today; Jesus is both completely divine and completely human. Although this paradoxical doctrine creates more questions than answers, and leaves a lot to the mystery of God's providence and our imagination (What does it mean to be both God AND Man?), the solution also provides the most complete response to Jesus' true nature.

The both, and principle becomes the cornerstone to understanding more deeply how we pray in the liturgy every Sunday. Vatican II called our Eucharistic Liturgy the source and summit of our faith where the other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it (SC 47, LG 11). Therefore Mass on Sunday becomes the most important thing we do in our Catholic life to both stay connected to God, and to each other as a community. The liturgy is both the individual means for our body and soul to unite to God, and the communal connection that we have to each other as the family of God coming to the Eucharistic table. Imagine how the story of the Last Supper would change if there had been only John and Jesus, or Peter and Jesus. Gathering in community becomes a critical foundation to praying the Eucharist since the very beginning.

When my uncle passed away a few weeks ago, I was struck by a really beautiful bond that my cousins and uncles created and maintained through their annual deer hunting weekends. The pictures at his funeral showed deer antlers, card games, and happy campers in a mouse infested shack in the woods. It was this regular communal activity and routine of gathering that kept these otherwise busy and unconnected family members connected in a very special and unique way. When my uncle passed away, they shared stories and memories of my uncle that really strengthened their own connection and helped them to grieve. They were really connected in a way that would have not been there if they had not been a part of this special deer camp community.

Sometimes praying with others at Mass can be hard and annoying. The person next to you smells, a baby is crying, the church is too warm, and you may not like the music. Being in community is hard, you have disagreements, some people are just weird, and you may not feel a strong connection to these people in other aspects of your life, and now you have to be with them every Sunday?

Furthermore, many people feel that they genuinely pray better alone, in their room, out in nature, or fishing on one of our beautiful lakes. And I think this is wonderful. Our vocation in the world is to pray always, and the Church encourages private devotional prayer so that everyone can find their way to connect to God, even if that means you find that you can pray a lot more when the Vikings play on Sunday.

Yet, the Mass is BOTH a communal AND individual event. The Mass calls us to communion with God, and with each other, bringing us out of ourselves into deeper conversion. St. Thomas Aquinas called the Eucharist the sacrament of unity, because though we are many individuals the Body of Christ unites us into community. So we, who are many, are one body in Christ. Romans 12:5

JOIN THE CHOIR!

It is not too late to join our new choir for St. Philip's. We sang our first Sunday Mass last week. The choir sang really well, and we had a lot of fun. We sing once a month for the 9am Mass, and rehearse 45 minutes prior. This is a very informal group that will sing mostly unison and two part music. Brand new singers and experienced singers are all welcome. The first portion of rehearsal will focus on vocal technique for those who have always wanted to learn how to sing. This is a great opportunity for those with busy schedules, or those often work evenings and cannot join choirs that rehearse in the evenings. Contact Aana Freihammer if you are interested in joining, and it's okay if you have summer plans! This choir is %ome as you are, and when you can!+Our next Mass is June 28th.

CHILDREN'S LITURGICAL CAMP CHOIR

Join us for our Children's Liturgical Choir Camp this summer July 14th-July 17th from 10am-12pm. Choristers will learn throughout the week how to use their voices to sing and pray. At the end of the week we will sing for the 11am Mass on July 19th. The camp is free and open to grades 2-6 (entering Fall 2015). Contact Aana Freihammer afreihammer@stphilipsbemidji.org or 218-444-4262 to get registered for this fun week!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul Launches Recruitment Campaign...

Because of the increasing number of people in need in the Diocese of Crookston the Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) is launching an invitation to Serve, a campaign to recruit new members in Bemidji.

The largest social assistance organization in the world, SVdP is a Catholic lay organization of volunteers who come together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to those in need and living in poverty. In the United States, the organization has some 172,000 members and is active in about 4,600 communities.

Volunteers are critically needed, said Fr. Chuck Huck. We have huge numbers of individuals, families and single parents who are struggling to pay their rent, utilities, or just put food on their tables. By serving the needs of people like them, we build our faith. We want more people to experience this opportunity to serve.

The goal of Invitation to Serve is to invite caring people to give hope to those without hope by supplying food, clothing, help with rent, transportation or utility costs, and even love.

Are you looking for ways to experience God? SVdP invites you to share in their ministry of serving people living in poverty. A representative from SVdP will speak at the weekend Masses on June 13 and 14. If you are interested in becoming active in this ministry, please plan on attending an informational meeting:

This summer, 25 high school youth from St. Philip's parish will be attending the Steubenville Catholic Youth Conference in St. Paul, MN. As part of the conference, the youth are holding a Shoe Drive to help support this year's Share The Glory outreach project at the conference. No shoe goes to waste. Even shoes with considerable wear and tear can be broken down and the raw materials used to repair another shoe, or to create an entirely new pair.

Funds2Orgs micro-enterprise partners in developing countries around the world, who work to repurpose the pairs to eliminate waste. A micro-enterprise is a small business with minimal employees and minimal capital. Funds2Orgs works with micro-enterprises in developing countries to bring sustainability and income to these areas.

At the conference, our youth will help to rubber band and bag the shoes, then load them up for takeaway!

Thank you for your support and donation!

Shoe Drive Details | Easy as...
