November 29, 2015

In liturgical studies one of the first things you learn is that the word ἁγιασμα comes from the Greek word ἁγιασμος, meaning thanksgiving. Who knew that we celebrate a Thanksgiving meal every weekend at Mass? As we just closed our Thanksgiving meal, I thought it would be appropriate to explore some ideas on why we should be so grateful for our Eucharistic meal.

In the Genesis story, Adam and Eve disobeyed God and ended our perfect life in the Garden of Eden with God. From that point on, the Old Testament illustrates stories again and again of God lovingly recovering that relationship through covenants. These covenants, or contracts, show God's part of the covenant was his promise to forgive our sins. Our side always consisted of a sacrifice prepared to say we're sorry for our sins. We would say we're sorry, and we'd do better next time. Alas, we were not very good at keeping our side of the covenant. The circle of disobedience would always occur again. We needed help to fulfill our end of the covenant to get right with God.

In the New Testament we see that Jesus is the one sent to fulfill the covenant for us. ἁγιασμα For God so loved the world that he gave His only Son (John 3:16). He is the ultimate sacrifice that perfects our relationship with God. The Mass, the Liturgy, is that celebration of Christ's sacrifice. ἁγιασμα Do this in remembrance of me is a call to continually receive the Eucharist. His sacrifice on the cross and resurrection then becomes the perfect offering where we find our salvation.

It is hard to be grateful when we deal with darkness, disappointments, and frustrations daily. However, the story of Adam and Eve shows that God never let's go, never stops loving us, or pursuing us. Even in the darkness of human mishaps, he always desires us. God perfects the imperfect and brings good out of darkness. This is our hope, and this is our thanksgiving. So, no matter my imperfections, mishaps, and limitations, God just wants me to come to the altar. I will give what offering I can, and he will take care of the rest. Thank goodness!

As we have just blessed our Eucharistic Thanksgiving meal, remember these words:

Presider: ἁγιασμα The Lord be with you

Assembly: ἁγιασμα And with your spirit.

Presider: "Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God,

Happy Thanksgiving to you and your families, and this Thanksgiving among a long laundry list of items I am grateful for, I am so grateful to be serving this community of faith.

From the desk of Aana Freihammer, Director of Music and Liturgy

INFORMATION & ACTIVITIES

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS

Parents or prospective parents who wish to present a child for Baptism are asked to attend a baptism preparation class.

The next session will be on December 6. Please call the Parish Office at 444-4262 to register, or for more information.

The St. Philip $\phi$  Catholic Community welcomes through the waters of baptism, Nolan Bradley Strassburg, son of Troy and Staci Strassburg, and Ava Lynn Hanley, daughter of Justin and Stephanie Hanley. May they be filled with the Holy Spirit!

St. Philip $\phi$  extends condolences to the families of Maria Wizner and Richard Allen, father of Greg Allen. May they find rest and peace, & may their families find comfort in God $\phi$  love.

St. Philip $\phi$  extends best wishes to Nicholas Seitz and Cassandra Stroeing, who celebrated the sacrament of Marriage on August 8th at St.

Thank you to all who pledged their support to help cover the monthly operational costs of our local Catholic radio station AM 820. Together we raised $12,333 and a $4,000 match was added. You will be contacted by Real Presence Radio within the next two weeks to help you complete your pledge. May God Bless you abundantly for your generosity!

NIGHTLIGHTS

Nightlights, a support group for anyone who has a loved one with mental illness will hold its monthly meeting at 7:00-8:30 PM, Monday, November 30, 2015 in the St. Kateri Room at St. Philips Church, 7th Street and Beltrami Ave. With questions, please call 218 444 4262.

November 30 we have a featured guest: Kerry Hicks.

Kerry worked as the Child and Family Advocacy for the Family advocacy Center of Northern Minnesota. Her training includes: working with child victims of abuse, advocacy, domestic violence, assisting in preparation of Orders for Protection, advocacy in court, and dealing with manipulators. Kerry has now developed her own company to advocate for clients. At Nightlights, she will talk about how we can support the people we love, watch ourselves when we get off track, and find tools and support so that we can be a loving advocate for our families and friends.

FIRST SATURDAY ROSARY

All are invited to join praying the Rosary at Neilson Place (Chapel) on Saturday, December 5 at 10:30 AM. If you know someone at Neilson Place that you would like to invite, please call/text their name to: 766-4692.

St. Mary's Mission Appeal

The St. Mary $\phi$  Mission Appeal (SMMA) second collection takes place today. Bishop Hoepfner and the Diocese of Crookston thank you for your generosity and your concern for the children and families that St. Mary $\phi$  Mission, Red Lake serves.

If you would like to view the SMMA movie shown during Mass this weekend, you can watch it on your home computer by going to <http://www.crookston.org/smma>. Again, thank you for your care and your generosity to St. Mary $\phi$  Mission.

DEVELOPMENT NEWS

Watch your mailbox for collection envelopes to arrive in your home the last part of December as we're switching to a bi-monthly mailing format for our envelopes. Parishioners using Sunday collection envelopes will receive a packet of envelopes mailed to their homes every two months. EFT (Electronic Fund Transfer) parishioners will receive one mailing including only the special collection envelopes. We are switching to this format as it will provide additional flexibility and convenience while saving us money and time. The bi-monthly format allows for making regular changes regarding new members and deceased or moving members rather than making those changes on an annual basis. It also saves us from the annual process of mailing boxes (1st class postage) for parishioners who do not pick up their boxes. As always, thank you for your ongoing support. Your regular use of the collection envelopes allows St. Philip $\phi$  to be the vibrant parish that it is.

Father of mercies, God of all creation, Source of life and of every blessing, we thank you today, and every day of our lives, for all that you give us!

Our thanksgiving is not only a duty, but a joy and a source of strength, because it reminds us of your faithful love, and inspires us with the hope of a future filled with blessings!

Lord, we thank you for guiding our fathers, who, inspired by the prophets and by the saving work of your Son, founded a nation where all might live as one, acknowledging their dependence on you as the source of their right to life.

We thank you for your blessings in the past, and for all that, with your help, we must yet achieve.
