21st Sunday in Ordinary Time Greetings,

August 21, 2016

The 16th of August is always a special time for me. This year Valerie and I would have celebrated our 41st anniversary. That is not long by any means but it provided for a day of reflection on the relationship one should have with their spouse. Sixteen years ago when she died our relationship changed and I have grown in appreciation of how strong she is in praying for her earthly family. I can see the influence she had on me and our children in how they act and move. As most widows and widowers can attest the time of adjustment after the death of a spouse is filled with ups and downs and wonderings about what could have been. This week I have been carrying all those who have lost a spouse in my prayers. May God bless you!

I read an article this week by Fr Chuck Tobin: öMissionaries of Mercyö. He noted the Pope frequently talks about welcoming the stranger and addressing inequality, caring for those imprisoned, the elderly, and the disabled. But the biggest part of the article for me was the notes as to the 6 qualities of mercy that should apply to all priests.

1. To be a living sign of the Father's welcome to all who seek forgiveness
2. To be a facilitator of an encounter that helps people overcome obstacles that keep them from renewing their Baptismal call
3. To be guided by the awareness that we all sin, and God has mercy on us all
4. To be inspiring preachers of mercy
5. To be heralds of the joy of forgiveness
6. To be welcoming, loving, and compassionate confessors

I am thankful that Fr Don and hopefully I fulfill the 6 points offered by the Pope. It is always a joy to welcome someone to the Sacrament and witness what God's mercy can accomplish in their lives.

A challenge I found in the article for all of us as disciples of Jesus is to realize we are called to be öMissionaries of Mercyö. We can accomplish this in three areas of our life: Family, Parish and Neighborhood, and our Nation. In every area of our life there are situations where mercy, compassion, understanding, forgiveness, wisdom and love are needed. Think about how easily conflict can arise, hurts can grow, and people separate due to stress of the situation. It is my prayer that we can all respond and consider being a öMissionaries of Mercyö.

Opportunity to be a öMissionaries of Mercyö knocks more often than we think! It was a cold winter's day that Sunday. Sue noticed as she got out of the car that fellow church members were whispering among themselves as they walked to the church. As Sue got closer she saw a man leaned up against the wall outside the church. He was almost lying down as if he was asleep. He had on a long trench coat that was almost in shreds and a hat topped his head, pulled down so you could not see his face. He wore shoes that looked 30 years old, too small for his feet with holes all over them, his toes stuck out. She assumed this man was homeless, and asleep, so she walked on by through the doors of the church. There was a chance for fellowship for a few minutes, and someone brought up the man lying outside. People snickered and gossiped but no one bothered to ask him to come in, including Sue.

A few moments later church began. Everyone waited for the Preacher to take his place and begin the service, when the doors to the church opened. In came the homeless man walking down the aisle with his head down. People gasped and whispered and made faces. He made his way down the aisle and up onto the pulpit he took off his hat and coat. Hearts sank. There stood the preacher...he was the "homeless man." Consider being a öMissionaries of Mercyö.

Blessings on your day! Fr Chuck

THOUGHTS ON MERCY...

"Mary is... the one who obtained mercy in a particular and exceptional way, as no other person has. At the same time, still in an exceptional way, she made possible with the sacrifice of her own heart her own sharing in the revealing of God's mercy."

DEVELOPMENT ~ STEWARDSHIP

The Stewardship of Time and Talent

Did you happen to attend one of the ABC events over the summer? Wasn't it fun? For those of you who couldn't make it, the ABC events were a great example of the stewardship of time and talent. Robb Naylor shared his talents as the grill master for 20 different groups who met for fellowship and a meal at the rectory. Father Chuck and Father Don were generous with their time and talent inviting over 400 people into their home over the summer.

Within the next couple months, you'll see lots of opportunities to share your time and talents with the community at St. Philip's. Let's follow the examples set forth by our great priests. Here's a sneak peak of areas where you can share your time and talent.

Fall Festival (9/25) - We have an immediate need for people to sell raffle tickets after masses. The sign-up sheets for all Fall Festival activities will be available August 25th. Drop off donations for the silent auction basket items.

Time/Talent Ministry Books- Watch for the Time/Talent Ministry books in early September.

Faith Formation- To help with faith formation, contact Kris Jensen for elementary and Luke Alexander for middle school and high school.

School families- Service hour opportunities are right around the corner. We'll need help with the Marathon (9/17) and serving lunches.

For those of you who attended The Catholic Gifts of the Holy Spirit Seminar, spend some time discerning how you are being called to share your gifts.
