29th Sunday in Ordinary Time greetings,

October 16, 2016

While you are reading this I will be in Italy: 23 pilgrims visiting locations such as Orvieto, Sienna, Florence, Assisi, Rome, and of course Vatican City. I told the kids that I was going to try and exchange a white Zucchetto with Pope Francis on Wednesday. Say a prayer it works! My plan is to get the Pope to bless medals that I can bring back and share with you. My next letter will have some highlights of the trip in it.

I also will be praying for the tough decisions that need to be made here in the USA on Election Day. The decision maker for me is the stance of the candidate on all issues of LIFE. I cannot and would not tell you how to vote. I can only encourage you to please use the resources we have placed in the narthex or go to MNCatholic.org/Election

Every once in a while you will see a note at the bottom of an email. My favorites!

- ✓ Remember, growing older is mandatory, growing up is optional.
- ✓ Tonight, before you go to bed, give your problems to God. He will be up all night anyway.
- ✓ Live your life in such a way that when your feet hit the floor in the morning, Satan shudders & says... ðOh no.....she's awake!!ð
- ✓ The importance of detachment from things, the importance of poverty, is that we are supposed to be free from things that we might prefer to people. Wherever things have become more important than people, we are in trouble. That is the crux of the whole matter. (Thomas Merton)
- ✓ "Insanity: doing the same thing over and over again and expecting different results." ~~ Albert Einstein (1879 - 1955)
- ✓ "What good would it do to open all the Holy Doors of all the Basilicas in the world...if the doors of our own heart are closed to Love, if our hands are closed to giving, if our homes are closed to hospitality, and our churches to welcome and acceptance." Pope Francis
- ✓ "There are two kinds of people: those who say to God, 'Thy will be done,' and those to whom God says, 'All right, then, have it your way.'" - C. S. Lewis
- ✓ Mother Teresa: Peace begins with a Smile!
- ✓ Let your week reflect the God you worship on Sunday
- ✓ ðSo many people have helped me to come here to this night. Some of you are here, some are far away and some are even in Heaven. All of us have special ones who loved us into being. Would you just take, along with me, 10 seconds to think of the people who have helped you become who you are, those who cared about you and wanted what was best for you in life.ð Mr Rogers...

Here is a cute story: There's a little old lady living next door to an atheist. Every morning the lady comes out onto her front porch and shouts ðPraise the Lord!". The atheist yells back, "There is no God". She does this every morning with the same result. As time goes on the lady runs into financial difficulties and has trouble buying food. She goes out onto the porch and asks God for help with groceries, then says "Praise the Lord". The next morning she goes out onto the porch and there's the groceries she's asked for, of course she says "Praise the Lord". The atheist jumps out from behind a bush and says, "Ha, I bought those groceries - there is no God". The lady looks at him and smiles, she shouts "Praise the Lord, not only did you provide for me Lord, you made a non believer pay for the groceries!!"

Blessings on your week! Fr. Chuck

THOUGHTS ON MERCY...

"The Church does not regard God's mercy as an exclusive privilege, nor does the greatness of the privilege it enjoys make it feel unconcerned for those who do not share it. One the contrary, it finds in its own salvation an argument for showing more concern and more love for those who live close at hand, or to whom it can go in its endeavor to make all alike share the blessing of salvation."

~ Blessed Paul VI

Conclusion of the Holy Year of Mercy In the Bull of Indiction Misericordiae Vultus, Pope Francis decreed that the Holy Year would conclude on November 20, 2016, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, with the closing of the Holy Door in the Basilica of St. Peter's at the Vatican. On the preceding Sunday, November 13, the Thirty-Third Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Jubilee will be brought to a close in local churches, the cathedrals of the entire world's bishops. The Holy Door that opened at our Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception of Mary last December will be ceremonially closed at the end of the Vigil Mass for the Thirty-Third Sunday on Saturday, November 12th beginning at 5:00 pm. Both the nature of the day and the Church's tradition make it most fitting, the entire celebration of the Eucharist will be presided over by Most Reverend Michael J. Hoepfner with Reverend Augie Gothman, parochial vicar of the cathedral, concelebrating. Priests, Deacons, Acolytes, and Lectors, as well as the faithful of the entire Diocese of Crookston are encouraged to attend inasmuch as it is possible. All will be held in prayer that the fruits of this Year of Mercy will continue to flourish and grow for ever in our hearts, minds, and souls. Continuing to incorporate the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy into our lives is a lifelong endeavor. After the Prayer after Communion, Bishop Hoepfner, in a way harmonious with the liturgical celebration, will give thanks to God for the graces received during the Jubilee Year and will invite all present in the assembly to join him in giving thanks. Our voices will then be raised in the singing of the Magnificat, our Blessed Mother's song of thanksgiving shared by the Church. Bishop Hoepfner will then extend his hands over all assembled and impart a final prayer and blessing. The closing procession will lead all the assembled out and through the Holy Door one last time and the Holy Door will be closed, bringing the Year of Mercy to a close in our diocese. Even though our Door will be closed, we still unite with Pope Francis for another seven days of prayer in preparation for the closing of the primary Holy Door at St. Peter's on November 20th. Between now and the 12th November, pilgrims are still encouraged to visit and fulfill the activities to gain a plenary indulgence. Please visit the diocesan website for information on making a pilgrimage and obtaining the indulgence. "Show us your mercy, Lord, and come to the aid of your people who call upon you as their shepherd and guide; restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored. Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

– Concluding Prayer for Closing of Holy Door

Blessings on your Day!

HELP NEEDED AT CHURCHES UNITED

The parish of St. Philip's is a strong supporter of Churches United. As one of the founding parishes we help them with financial and volunteer support. As their mission they exist to help those who are down on their luck, in need of direction to the right social agency, or just a small bit of help to get through the difficulty they face. Normally, they are open Mon. - Fri. Presently Churches United is not open Fridays due to lack of volunteers. Are you willing, or do you know someone we could ask to consider being a volunteer? Sometimes being asked is taken as a sign we maybe should do something. Please contact Churches United at 444-1380 or our Parish representative, Dan Walter at 444-3940 or the Parish Office, 444-4262.
