Greetings on the Feast of Christ the King of the Universe,

November 20, 2016

This is the last Sunday of the Church year. Next week we start the First Sunday of Advent and we are on our way to Christmas. Thanksgiving Day is this week and the traditional beginning to the shopping, baking, gift giving, party season. Families may experience stress and concern over how much and when to spend. Stress and chaos often cause short tempers. Consider taking time for some quiet and peace in your home. Set aside time for hot chocolate and some of those cookies.

Valerie and I had some great conversations over a hot drink after the kids went to bed. But we had to work at it to make sure the time was set aside. TV off and conversation on! Sometimes it was, dying to self and what I wanted to do, to be present but it paid dividends in our temperament around the house. I know she told me many times it helped to have us both on the same page. Funny how something simple like a conversation can make life pleasant.

Thinking about gift giving: how about something for Jesus: As a present for Jesus, for His birthday, maybe you would like to make a commitment to try an hour of adoration a week for the season of Advent. Many of your fellow parishioners say they would not give up their time before Jesus. If they need a substitute for a particular week they miss their time and cannot wait to return. Ask any person who is on the adorers list and they will be willing to show you how easy it is to sit in the presence of the Lord and receive His love and grace. Cannot commit an hour, stop by for 15 minutes. You are invited to talk to the One who loves you and wants you to be in heaven with Him forever. Who knows Jesus may give you a gift of peace, serenity, and joy you have not experienced before.

As pastor, I wanted to make the parish aware of changes and to ask for prayer as we search to replace three wonderful dedicated women.

A big thank you to: Ann Welch and those who have helped her with our funeral luncheon ministry. It is hard to top a St. Philip's luncheon! Earlier this fall Ann, after 20 years of service, expressed a desire to step down from the position of funeral luncheon leadership. We wish to thank her for her outstanding and generous service. As Ann moves forward it leaves the question: how do we carry-on this ministry of service to grieving families? Our bulletin and verbal requests have not been fruitful in identifying an individual or individuals willing to take on this voluntary ministry. Is that person you? Do you know of someone who would be a perfect fit?

Early in October, Maggie McCalip, resigned from her position as Dir. of Stewardship and Development. This important part-time position helps the parish with programs of planning, public relations, and charitable giving concepts. Our bulletin and verbal requests have not been fruitful in identifying an individual willing to apply for this paid position in ministry. Is that person you? Do you know of someone who would be a perfect fit?

June 30, 2017 will be a big day for Mrs. Carol Rettinger. Carol will complete 30 years of service to our school. Serving as principal the last 22 years Carol is leaving a legacy of quality education and love for the students. She brings out the best in the staff and students. She has worked hard to help us grow and provide a quality education for all. This week the St. Philip's search committee will release the job description and begin accepting job applications for the position of Principal.

As the church year closes we realize we have so many things to be thankful for. We also realize we have a future filled with the goodness of God ahead of us. Let us join in prayer giving God thanks and also asking for future blessings.

Jesus loves you and so do I, Blessings on your day! Father Chuck

Opportunity to be of service to the Church of the Diocese of Crookston

In order to serve the needs of the faithful within the diocese we are establishing Diocesan Commissions. The leader of each commission will be: Dr. Mark Krejci, the Director of the Office of Marriage, Family, and Life; AJ Garcia, the Director of the Office of New Evangelization and Justice; and Anthony Lavorata, the Director of the Office of Youth Ministry and Catechesis. Each commission is composed of deacons and the laity from parishes. The Commissions (described below) are a response to the Great Commission: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations; baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19-20)

Members of each commission will assist the directors in visioning, developing, promoting, and most importantly praying for all of the ministries in the Diocese of Crookston. It is our hope that the grassroots efforts will provide education and formation that will inspire parishioners into action.

Format for the work of the Commissions: Members of the Commissions will commit to meeting two times per year with the Director (Dr. Mark Krejci, AJ Garcia and Anthony Lavorata) in order to guide the vision, expansion and life of each ministry in the Diocese of Crookston. The 3 hour meetings will begin with prayer followed by a catechesis or short presentation on the topic. This will be followed by a review of the program and the development of an operational plan.

Membership: Priests and deacons will be invited to serve on each Commission but the majority of members will be lay faithful. Parish pastors of the Diocese of Crookston are invited to nominate one person/couple per commission from each parish.

Commissions

The Marriage and Family Life Commission (with Dr. Krejci) will focus on the areas of ministry as indicated by the title. This group will review, reflect on, and pray about marriage and family life in the Diocese of Crookston, generate ideas for and review all programs concerning the preparation of married couples, the sustenance of marital vocations and the strengthening of family life within the Domestic Church. As they are able, members of this Commission will assist Dr. Krejci in spreading the word about marriage and family life events at the Diocesan, Deanery and Parish levels as these are offered.

Priests are invited to nominate 1 married couple, a single parent or grandparent(s) to the Marriage and Family Life Commission

The Life and Justice Commission (with Dr. Krejci) will focus on enhancing respect life issues from conception until natural death and in so doing support the dignity of every person. This group will review, reflect on, and pray about life and justice issues in the Diocese of Crookston, generate ideas for and review all programs concerning the corporal works of mercy. Specific areas this commission will focus on are; respect life month, support for pregnant women/couples, respect-life advocacy, Project Rachel ministry to post-abortive women and men, promote awareness for the sick and needy, to be aware of the needs of the White Earth and Red Lake Reservations and finally to collaborate with the efforts of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) and the Minnesota Catholic Conference (MCC).

Priests are invited to nominate 1 parishioner for the Life and Justice Commission

The Evangelization and Discipleship Commission (With AJ Garcia) will focus on supporting and developing the evangelization efforts and outreach programs taking place in our parishes and communities. This group will reflect and assess the current evangelization efforts and groups already active in parishes and seek to more vibrantly live out the spiritual works of mercy. Through spiritual, intellectual, human, and apostolic formation rooted in prayer and thorough study of the lives of saints and Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, this group will assist others to become missionary disciples.

Priests are invited to nominate 1 parishioner for the Evangelization and Discipleship Commission

The Youth Ministry Commission (with Anthony Lavorata) will focus on the continued spiritual development and evangelization of the youth in the Crookston Diocese. This group will review, reflect on, and pray for our current outreach programs in addition to looking forward to the needs of future generations of Catholics. Through prayer and open discussion, it is the goal of this commission to encourage programming that generates faithful and joy-filled Catholic youth.

Priests are invited to nominate 1 parishioner for the Youth Ministry Commission.

Commission members are invited to serve a three-year term for their designated commission. The meetings will take place in each deanery. If you are interested please let Fr Chuck know before December 1st.
