5th Sunday in Easter Time

May 14, 2017

Since Tuesday's announcement of the additional lawsuit against the Diocese of Crookston and specifically Bishop Hoepfner we have experienced a rough week. Emotions can run strong and high. During the media presentation my heart wept. I questioned, how much more can the people of God endure? I prayed for the victims of abuse; I thought this has to reopen the wounds and the thoughts of betrayal for all victims. St. Philip's is a parish with a list of victims.

When is someone guilty and when is someone innocent? We know in our minds that our laws state a person is innocent until proven guilty. But in reality many times people are judged guilty before all the facts are known. This is a time we must be alert and move with caution. We need to practice some patience, and allow for all facts to become known before final judgment is rendered.

My heart was hurt listening and watching the pain that Ron Vasek was expressing. There is no question his pain was real. This week the comments, letters, and emails ask similar questions: How long can we let this go on? When will it end? Is there anything else out there? Will Bishop step aside during the investigation?

I do not have the answers. I am powerless to make things move faster. But one way to not be powerless is with the opportunity and the desire to pray. Jesus Christ is the light of the world. His light dispels darkness. The darkness that comes from secrets needs to be exposed. No one should have to carry the pain of abuse for a lifetime. I commit myself to a time (one hour) of daily prayer for victims of abuse, for a change of heart for abusers and for an opportunity to reconcile.

There is no difference in the desire of the parish administration of St. Philip's to keep you informed as things develop. We have done that in the past and will continue to make clear what we know and when we know it.

Inside this bulletin is a statement from Bishop Hoepfner. Please take the time to read it and to bring forward any questions it raises for you. I will listen. I will share. I will pray.

The priests of the Diocese gather together this week for more study and discussion. Both Fr. Don and I will be gone until Friday afternoon.

Please take a moment for prayer for all victims and abusers. I am and will do the same. May God bless us on this difficult part of our journey in faith!

Fr. Chuck

ONE, TWO, NO THREE NOTES OF THANKSGIVING

Alleluia! It was wonderful to celebrate First Holy Communion. The excitement is evident in the way the young people approach the altar. Congratulations to the students and parents: Keep coming back to the Altar and receiving Jesus!

Alleluia! The Gala was a wonderful gathering of friends and families. We celebrated 90 years of a great tradition. Special thanks to the organizers (countless hours of preparation). Thanks to those in attendance and those who donated the wonderful items that were auctioned off in support of our great school.

Alleluia! The benefit for Abigail Freihammer was beyond compare. Hearts were opened for a little girl who needs a heart. It was organized and was one of the best. It demonstrates how much love and support is available from family, friends, parishioners and staff. Thank you!

My Dear Christ's Faithful of the Diocese of Crookston,

I, like you, am deeply saddened and troubled whenever I hear allegations of sexual abuse by a clergyman and certainly when I hear of allegations of misconduct by a bishop. I know you understand that there are two sides to every story and there is another, a very different side to the story reported last week.

As a result of the legal action now taken by Mr. Vasek, civil and church processes have begun that take a thorough and fair look at the allegation. As was indicated in the statement from the Diocese of Crookston released last week, Msgr. Grundhaus has been removed from active priestly ministry. I, your bishop, deny that I "in any way forced, coerced or encouraged Mr. Vasek to not pursue" making allegations against Msgr. Grundhaus.

These processes that have begun, will take time. While we are dealing with this matter, I ask, please (1) be patient and kind and non-judgmental; (2) pray daily for a fair, just and timely resolve to this matter; (3) include the following prayer in the Prayers of General Intercession in every Sunday Mass celebrated in the Diocese of Crookston: Let us pray for a fair and just resolve to all our law suits and for all persons harmed in any way in matters involving sexual abuse, let us pray to the Lord ... (4) join me in making each Friday a day of fasting and abstinence from eating meat as a sign that we know our most important sustenance comes from our loving God.

I and the Diocese of Crookston do take seriously all allegations of sexual abuse and we continue to work to provide a safe environment for all. I will do all I can to keep you informed as these matters move forward.

In the Name of the Lord Jesus,

Most Reverend Michael J. Hoeppner
Bishop of Crookston

HOSPITAL MINISTRY

"... naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me." ~Matthew 25:36

If you or a loved one has ever been hospitalized and someone visited you and brought you communion, how did that make you feel? Did it bring you closer to God? Did you feel good knowing that prayers were being said for your recovery? Think about the opportunity to give back. St. Philip's Hospital Ministry is a way to carry the healing comfort of the Gospel to hospitalized parishioners and their families by praying for them and ministering Holy Communion to them if they desire to receive. Each volunteer is asked to be responsible for a visit one day per month. New volunteers will partner with an experienced minister until they are comfortable on their own. Volunteers will be certified by Sanford. Please pray about visiting the sick. For more information, please contact Fr. Chuck or Fr. Don at the Parish Office, 444-4262; or Sharon Zarrett at 751-1606, or email her at zarrettsa@gmail.com.

Become a part of Mary's Shrine and help to bring to completion our church! For more information, please visit: www.trinitydome.org.

The program is called "All-Pro Dad's" and is geared for Dad's and/or other Father Figures and their kids and/or nieces, nephews, grandkids, etc. The program's primary focus is to help strengthen the bond between dad's and their kids and provide Father Figures with some great opportunities to do just that. The first All-Pro Dad Breakfast is scheduled for next Saturday, May 20th, right here at St. Philip's Church, beginning at 9:00. The morning will begin with a nice breakfast followed by a short explanation of what All-Pro Dad's is all about, before closing with a fun craft project. This is the first of nine such breakfasts that the group has planned for this first year. The morning will conclude by 10:30 and all kids in attendance will receive a very nice door prize as well. We hope many of you (and your kids) will consider attending this first breakfast.
