12th Sunday in Ordinary Time Greetings,

June 25, 2017

As we near the end of our fiscal year (Friday June 30th is it) I was reminded about how often it is important to take a look back and examine: what have we accomplished, how we have done! In the next few weeks I will be sending a financial report to all parish families. I will be sending statistics on number of sacraments we have celebrated, the number of parishioners we have buried. I was wondering to myself: how much of this information will really matter 100 years from now or at the end of time. Then Jesus lead me to this wonderful article printed in Bruderhof regarding: "The Question" by Henri J.M. Nouwen.

Our lives as we live them seem like lives that anticipate questions that never will be asked. It seems as if we are getting ourselves ready for the questions, "How much did you earn during your lifetime?" or "How many friends did you make?" or "How much progress did you make in your career?" or "How much influence did you have on people?" or "How many conversions did you make?"

Were any of these to be the question Christ will ask when he comes again in glory, many of us could approach the judgment day with great confidence. But nobody is going to hear any of these questions. The question we all are going to face is the question we are least prepared for. It is: "What have you done for the least of mine?" As long as there are strangers; hungry, naked, and sick people; prisoners, refugees, and slaves; people who are handicapped physically, mentally, or emotionally; people without work, a home, or a piece of land. There will be that haunting question from the throne of judgment: "What have you done for the least of mine?"

I love the stories people share about encountering Jesus in everyday life. When we review our day, we can see God in action, or when we sit in silence and listen we can hear God at work, talking to His creation. Have you shared a story of where you saw or heard Jesus in our world, in this time and in this place?

Here is a thought based on last Sunday's celebration of the Body and Blood of Jesus. It is a danger in our noisy, busy world that we may take the Eucharist for granted. When you walk up the Communion aisle have you asked yourself: How will this encounter with the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus change me? Our faith tells us it is an encounter with Jesus. When we receive the Eucharist, we are called to change whatever it is in our life that does not reflect the manner in which Jesus calls us to live. He desires us to be holy, happy, and healthy people. It is important that we do not confuse the gift and the giver. Here is a quote from “The Gift and the Giver” by Edward Farrell.

We ask for a piece of sand and He gives us a beach.

*We ask for a drop of water
and He gives us an ocean.*

*We ask for time
and He gives us life eternal.*

*And it is so easy for us
to fall in love with the gift
and forget the giver.*

I will pray for you. Please say a prayer for me. Blessings on your day! Fr. Chuck

Helping Hands

The Knights of Columbus Council #1544 is offering assistance to St. Philip's parishioners with minor home repairs and household chores. To qualify for this help you must be unable to do the work yourself and have no one to assist you. We have a number of Knights with various skills who are on call to help with these projects. The project must be at your primary residence and you will be required to sign a waiver of release. If there is any cost for materials it will be the responsibility of the party receiving the services to pay for them. Every effort will be made to keep costs down. There will be no labor charge for the service. If the party wishes to donate to the Knights for the service, the donations will go to a charitable cause. For more information or to schedule to have this service, please contact either Pat Welch at 218-444-5858 or Rick Coe at 218-751-9695.

Known as one of the first televangelists, Venerable Fulton Sheen was an American Bishop known for his preaching and especially for his work on radio and later, television, from 1930 through 1968. He was loved and admired by people of all faiths as he tackled the important topics of that time. His message is just as relevant today and we are blessed to have recordings of those broadcasts which are aired weekly on Real Presence Radio. He combines humor with solid Catholic teaching on topics which continue to impact our lives and the world in which we live. Tune in each Saturday evening, 8:00 p.m. on 1280 AM, 1370 AM and 820 AM.

A 10 to 15 minute survey has been prepared for members of a faith community that attend Mass at least 2-3 times a month. We are asking for your participation. Three reasons to take the confidential survey are: Faith communities play an important role in suicide prevention. Results of the study will be used to develop suicide prevention resources for clergy and faith communities. At the end of the survey, you will be re-directed to the Suicide Prevention Resource Center to access suicide prevention resources for faith communities and other settings. Responses are CONFIDENTIAL and will be reported ONLY in summary form.
