Happy 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time,

September 10, 2017

Our second reading this weekend from St. Paul's letter to the Romans talks about the importance of love in the world. God's commandments which deal with our relationships with others are summed up in this saying, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no evil to the neighbor. What a beautiful city, state, country and world we could have if everyone lived up to this simple statement. The whole world could be like the Garden of Eden.

Saint Paul proposed to the Romans that if they truly loved their neighbor as themselves there would be no murder, theft, adultery, or even coveting. That all could live in peace and harmony. May each of us strive to live in this way and pray that our neighbors do the same.

In the Gospel for today from Matthew, Jesus is teaching his disciples how to carefully handle the situation when a neighbor does not live in love. Jesus teaches to approach the neighbor with respect. Go to him one on one and share with him how you feel he has wronged you. If he listens, perhaps forgiveness can result and compromise be reached. Friendship may be formed. If no agreement is found we may need to involve backup, such as a couple of friends. If still no resolution is found the next step is to involve the authorities. Depending on the situation, this may be church authorities or civil authorities. However, we should always be looking for a fair and just solution, not for revenge or to hurt the other person.

My prayer for St. Philip's, our parish and school, is that all will know us and remember us as a community that lives by the message of the Gospel of Jesus, a community of love!

It is a very busy place around here this month as we begin our new school year and prepare to start our new year of Faith Formation. Please remember to keep St. Philip's School and Faith Formation programs in your prayers.

God bless,

From the desk of Deacon Kermit

PARISH LIFE

Single? Would you like to join in gatherings of other singles, rather than couples? Would you like to visit with others who share your road, whether widowed, divorced, single; single parent, empty nest, no kids? Tell your single friends! Let's get together over pizza on Saturday, September 16 at 4:00 in the Social Hall to figure out how to navigate this course, together! We can look at possible bible studies, volunteer opportunities, and social events. Your input is needed. If interested, come to the Contra Dance later that evening from 7-10 at the Rail River Folk School. (It's free, but donations are accepted for the musicians & callers.)

Pro-Life Presentation — All are welcome!

Minnesota citizens Concerned for Life (MCCL) will offer a brief pro-life presentation on Saturday, October 7, 11 AM at St. Philip's. You will learn about how to help pregnant women in need, Minnesota abortion statistics, efforts to overturn our law against assisted suicide, and more. Discover how you can make a difference in protecting innocent human life. Enjoy lunch prepared by the Knights of Columbus.

The Diocese of Crookston is on social media!

Get up-to-date info regarding diocesan events and ministries on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram by following @DioCrookston!

Hatched from an egg or part of a family?

If part of a family, save the evenings of October 23-25 for a parish-wide retreat experience, focused on relationships within the family, led by Dea. Mark Krejci, Ph.D. Young & old, married or single, this is for you!

Collection for the Church in Latin America

This weekend is the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Please prayerfully consider supporting this collection, which strengthens the faith of our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean. Your support is bringing the faith to those in remote villages who would otherwise not have access to church programs and outreach. Share your faith! To learn more, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Grandmas Wanted! If you would like to see the young families in our parish thrive and enjoy this wonderful faith community, won't you consider giving one hour a month to babysit? Sign up for one to eight months! The young families will meet the last Sundays of the month. Childcare is needed between 4:30-5:30, so moms & dads can grow spiritually & socialize. Families reunite at 5:30 to share a meal and you are invited to stay for the meal; 6-6:30 is clean up before Mass. Call Nancy at 441-4907 to volunteer for one month or more!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul Need...

NEWMAN NEWS

Are you a single, young adult? On campus, off campus, or working? Let's build up the young, single community at St. Philip's! We'll start at 6:00 on Tuesdays, attend Mass, share a meal, friendship and conversation. (We have some Sundays activities planned to follow the 11:00 Mass, too!) The road we're on is more enjoyable, better & safer when traveled with others. We were made to be in community with one another, to support each other - let's do it! Questions or need more info? Call Nancy at 218-441-4907 or email, ngoodman@stphilipsbemidji.org.

Attention: Young Families

Would you be interested in mentoring young adults from BSU, NTC & in our community? Undoubtedly your hands are full, but think of the potential benefits. You are living the life many of these young adults want for themselves in the not-so-far-off future. Maybe they could use your advice & direction; maybe you could use some help with the kids or the yard? The possibilities are endless! Attend mass together - maybe they will be just the distraction your little ones needed! Share meals, pray for each other. Please let me know if you are interested or have more ideas! Please leave a message for Nancy Goodman, Director of Campus of Catholic Campus & Young Adult Ministries at 218-441-4907 or ngoodman@stphilipsbemidji.org
