MY TWO CENTS by Fr. Don Braukmann

December 3, 2017

I remember when my Dad told the story of his favorite Christmas. I, of course, thought it would include piles of gifts with wrapping paper and empty boxes strewn throughout the living room. You can imagine my surprise when the story he told was far from what I imagined.

My Dad was born in 1911, a middle child of nine. Farming was like riding a roller coaster each year. A farmer is dependent upon the weather and the market for his/her livelihood. In short, Dad grew up with very little by today's standards.

Yet, Christmas around the year 1920 was his favorite and until the day he died, when he told the story, tears welled up in his eyes.

Dad remembers how that particular winter had already been a harsh one by Christmas time. The summer was dry and the harvest was not good. It was only because of the children hauling water from the well that the garden flourished and the store room was full with food for the winter.

On Christmas morning, brutally cold, Dad remembers waking up to find a pot of water frozen on the wood stove. The fire had gone out and the house was an ice cube.

But the cold in the air did not matter when Dad stepped into their small living room and saw the Christmas tree surrounded with gifts! The tree was one he and his older siblings had gone out to cut out of the woods a couple weeks before. The pine smell filled the air and, slowly, the smell and heat of burning wood began to thaw the house as Grandma filled the stove with wood.

When the barn chores were completed the family went to Christmas morning Mass. Once home they gathered around the tree and Dad remembers the three gifts he received. They were precious to him because he knew the sacrifice made by his parents to make this Christmas special.

Dad opened his gifts. The first was an orange...a rare gift in the winter! Second was a new #2 pencil...he had never had a new unsharpened pencil to himself! And third, he opened the best gift ever in his 75 years on earth...a "Chief" writing tablet!

An orange, a pencil and a "Chief" writing tablet made the best Christmas ever! How things have changed, along with our expectations for this beautiful season.

There is so much turmoil in the world—it is hard to step out of the chaos of this season and reflect upon what these days are all about. My Dad remained very close to his family all his life. Remembering the little he had that Christmas long ago made what he received all the more precious. Family was first...and then the sacrifice made to give him an orange, a pencil and a "Chief" writing tablet.

I pray we can keep Christ in Christmas. Keep it simple. And, remember, the best part of Christmas are the gifts around the tree, not under it!

The Silence of Advent...

Starting December 3 our first Sunday of Advent you will notice our priests, deacons, and ministers emphasizing the Church's prescribed moments of silence in the liturgy more than in the past. The Church asks us to be silent within the rhythm of the liturgy but particularly during in the following times.

- at the Act of Penitence
- after the priest says, "Let us pray"
- after each Scripture reading
- after the homily
- after all have received Communion

This is an excellent time to improve liturgical silence as the season of Advent asks us to pray with hopeful anticipation for Christ's coming to earth both at the Nativity, and at the end of time Silence is not just a vacuum of time where there is no noise or actions, but a conscious opportunity to breath in the spirit and become aware of God's presence. Sacred silence ensures that our hearts and minds match our exterior actions and experiences. Through this learned behavior, we can find the supernatural in the natural. Silence is difficult for everyone, so do not be concerned or agitated if the you find these experiences frustrating, just continue to breath and ask for God's presence within you.

For Your Safety and Security...

Just a reminder to all parishioners and visitors. Please keep your valuables with you at all times. Do not leave anything important in cars, on the coat rack, or in meeting rooms. Secondly, the best strategy for safety at Church is to extend the love of Christ to all newcomers, even those who may look out of place. In general, people who want to cause mischief in a crowd will want to remain anonymous. Consider greeting newcomers or even joining them for a donut after Mass. If everyone is greeted with the love of Christ, we will create an even more welcoming parish and a safer environment for our community.

Four ways to make your selection:

1. Browse through the categories of Study, Watch, Listen, Read (use < or > to scroll)
2. Search by typing in a word, phrase, topic or title.

The screenshot shows the FORMED website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'FORMED' in blue, followed by 'STUDY', 'WATCH', 'LISTEN', 'READ', and a magnifying glass icon. A search bar contains 'Joan d'Arc' with a clear button (X). To the right is a 'DC >' link. Below the navigation bar, it says 'Search results for Joan d'Arc (3/5)'. There are four tabs: 'READ (3)' (highlighted in blue), 'WATCH (2)', 'STUDY (0)', and 'LISTEN (0)'. Under the 'READ' tab, three book covers are listed: 'Joan of Arc' by Ignatius Press, 'Golden Legend of Young Saints' by Sophia Institute Press, and 'The Young People's Book of Saints' by Sophia Institute Press. All are marked 'Currently unrated'. To the right of these results is a yellow box with the text: 'Questions? Problems? Ideas? Call Nancy at 441-4907 or Luke at 441-4908'.

3. At the bottom of the screen, choose "Content List" to see everything that is offered.

The screenshot shows the footer of the FORMED website. It has a grey background with several links: 'Help', 'Leader Resources', 'Testimonials', 'Terms', 'Privacy Policy', 'Content List' (circled in red with a red arrow pointing to it from the text above), and a blue 'DONATE' button. Below the links, it says 'Copyright ©2015-2017, Augustine Institute. All Rights Reserved'.

4. OR, get recommendations for that particular month, based on feast days & the liturgical calendar.

The screenshot shows the 'Content Directory' page. The title 'Content Directory' is in large, bold, black letters. Below it, there's a paragraph: 'The following is a comprehensive, categorized list of FORMED content. Here, you have direct access and links for programs, books, movies, audio talks, audio books and Spanish content. Feel free to use this directory to browse FORMED content or copy the links to share a program with a colleague or friend.' A red circle is drawn around this paragraph. The background of the page is a collage of various book covers and religious images.

Advent

Advent marks the beginning of the Church's liturgical year, the four weeks of Advent before Christmas. The sights and sounds of Advent signal our hearts that Christ is coming. This season sharpens our sense of the world's need for a savior, and of the great mystery of God's becoming human for us, the incarnation.

Advent is a Latin word meaning the coming. We celebrate during this time the three comings of Christ: His birth in the past, his mysterious coming through his Church and the sacraments, and his promised return as our Judge at the end of time.

Advent is an opportunity to shed the temporary world around us and prepare our minds and hearts for the coming of Christ. This is the time to wrestle with the mystery of God coming to earth so we can live with him forever. This season reminds us that we are playing the long game, not living for this world, but getting ready for the next.

During this season, the Church adorn itself with the color the purple symbolizing repentance and joyful expectation. The Church decoration is more simple, representing the austerity of our time of waiting. The Advent wreath will be placed near the ambo, and the four candles are symbols of Christ as the Light of the World who overcomes the darkness.

Celebrate at Home

At home you can celebrate with your own Advent wreath, lighting the candles before meals or before bed time. To celebrate the coming of Christ, some families will eliminate screen and phone time, and do an activity together. This designated "chill out" time is especially nice when Advent can become the most hectic and consumeristic time of the year. Many families make a special effort to help out the less fortunate either by helping at the Clothing Depot, Bemidji Community Food Shelf, or Tubs of Love.

You can sign up for daily Advent messages through adventreflections.com or download an app to your phone to receive the Mass readings for the day. Consider getting up a few minutes early to spend a few minutes of silence in God's presence. Be sure to attend our "Day of Grace" on December 15 where priests will be available all day from 7 AM -7 PM to hear individual confessions.

Throughout this season of Advent we will also be learning more about the liturgy, the most important prayer of the Church. Father Chuck and Father Don will be teaching us about the parts of the liturgy during our weekend Masses.

Especially during our Christmas season, please say hello and make room for new faces in our midst. We all are disciples celebrating the birth of Christ.
