Happy Advent,

December 10, 2017

Jesus is coming, someday, sometime and we don't know when! Are you ready? We know Christmas is coming on December 25th and we will celebrate the first coming of Jesus as a baby boy born in Bethlehem. We are decorating our homes and making cookies. We are making travel plans and buying gifts, and all of that is exciting and important. Celebrating Christmas is one of the highlights of our year as Christian Catholics. But, are we ready for the second coming?

It is more important to be ready for when Jesus comes again. It is more important for me to know that when my life here on earth ends that I will be sharing eternity in heaven with the Holy Trinity and all the Saints. What preparations am I making to insure that I will be spending eternity in heaven?

This is what Advent is about. This weekend we hear from the second Letter of Saint Peter, "But the day of the Lord will come like a thief." And, "But according to his promise we await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you await these things, be eager to be found without spot or blemish before him, at peace."

This coming Friday, Dec. 15th, is a day of grace here at St. Philip's. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available from 7 AM until 7 PM. Fr. Don and Fr. Chuck, along with the five other priests from our Deanery will be here, ready to celebrate the Sacrament with us. This will be a wonderful opportunity for each of us to be prepared for the coming of Christmas and even more importantly be ready for the second coming of Jesus.

My goal as a Christian is to get to heaven. My goal as a husband and father is to get my wife and children to heaven. And my goal as Deacon is to help each of you get to heaven. May we rejoice together in heaven when Jesus comes again!

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths: all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Peace be with you,
Deacon Kermit

For Your Safety and Security...

Just a reminder to all parishioners and visitors. Please keep your valuables with you at all times. Do not leave anything important in cars, on the coat rack, or in meeting rooms. Secondly, the best strategy for safety at Church is to extend the love of Christ to all newcomers, even those who may look out of place. In general, people who want to cause mischief in a crowd will want to remain anonymous. Consider greeting newcomers or even joining them for a donut after Mass. If everyone is greeted with the love of Christ, we will create an even more welcoming parish and a safer environment for our community.
