Happy Advent!

December 1, 2019

Some of you may know about the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which is a book that slowly works its way through the various articles of our Catholic-Christian faith. If you don't have one, I'd definitely recommend purchasing one - I think you can find one for around $10. Anyway, I was thinking about what to write for this bulletin article and decided to see what the Catechism has to say about Advent. There are only a few paragraphs specifically about Advent. I want to quote one here:

When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present this ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Savior's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for his second coming. By celebrating the precursor's birth and martyrdom, the Church unites herself to [John the Baptist's] desire: "He must increase, but I must decrease" (John 3:30). CCC 524

Here's something that really struck me: I don't know very many people who have an "ardent desire" for the second coming of Jesus. I was talking to some fourth grade students at Faith Formation a couple of weeks ago, talking about Jesus' Second Coming and people being taken into Heaven. I mentioned that Jesus could come back any day, which would bring the end of this world as we know it. One girl responded by saying she hopes he doesn't come too soon because she really wants to go to Disney World with her family this winter. I told her that I understood her desire, but that Heaven is way better than Disney World. She only persisted in her preference.

I think many of us would have to admit to sharing in this girl's concern, if we're going to be honest. Going to Heaven sounds great, but only after we drink our fill of the goods of this world. Heaven sounds great, but I want to go there on my own terms, after I've completed everything here that I intend to complete. I often consider something like this: It would be so great if Jesus wanted me to be in Heaven right now, but I really want to make a greater impact here first. Once I've reached this line of thinking and actually admitted to it, then I am ready for Advent.

I know this time of the year can get so busy with various events going on all over the place. Between family, friends, and work, it can seem like life speeds up at the very time it's meant to slow down. I want to encourage you: Don't be afraid to push against the culture. Don't be afraid to TAKE extra time (because you will never FIND extra time) to reflect on your relationship with Jesus and how ardent your desire is to be with him in Heaven right now. If you find that you share the mentality I described above, ask Jesus to do something new in you: Ask him to make you desire his Second Coming more than you desire anything else. That will make this Advent truly unique, even if he doesn't end up coming again soon.

May the Lord give you his peace!

-Fr. Bryan

OND Electronic Option Available

Our Northland Diocese, official publication of the Diocese of Crookston since 1946, is now available via eOND, an electronic newsletter. In addition to monthly print issues delivered to parishioner homes, eOND arrives to email inboxes twice monthly and offers local, national and world news published digitally between print issues. Our parish pays an annual subscription rate of $15.36 per household for both print and digital news, but opt-in is required for eOND. Subscribing is as simple as providing the Diocese of Crookston with your name and email address. There are cards at the entrances of the church that explain how to sign up so you can begin receiving eOND. Please make use of this opportunity.

We are very blessed at St. Philip's Faith Formation to have people who are called to help our children and youth grow in the Catholic Faith. They come from many walks of life: high schoolers, college students, adults with children in Faith Formation and adults who do not. What they all have in common is a desire to guide the children and youth along their faith journey and to share our faith and beliefs with them. We are most thankful for their dedication.

THE ADVENT GIVING TREE

The Giving Tree is an opportunity for adults, children, individuals, families, or groups to do something for others during the Advent season. Local service organizations have provided us with lists of items that will brighten the lives of their clients during the holiday season, and you are invited to participate.

To do this, choose one or more of the ornaments from the Giving Tree located in the Narthex. Purchase the item listed on the ornament. Do Not wrap, rather tape the ornament to the item/items. Bring the items to the Parish Office, no later than Monday, December 16 so that they may be distributed during the Christmas season.

Thank you for bring a gift to Jesus.

Christmas Flowers for St. Philip's Church are supplied, in part, through the generous donations given by parishioners in memory of deceased loved ones, or in honor of the living.

If you wish to make a memorial, please use your Christmas Flower offering envelope in your packet of envelopes. Or, place your donation in an envelope clearly marked Christmas Flowers. Please indicate the name of the deceased person(s) your gift is in memory of or the name of the living person(s) your gift is in honor of.

Place your envelope in the collection basket or turn it in to the Parish Office as soon as possible. All memorials will be published in the parish bulletin after the Christmas season.
