Blessed Are We Who Are Called to the Supper of the Lamb

January 19, 2020

In this weekend's Gospel, we hear John the Baptist clarifying what he meant when he told the priests and Levites, "but there is one among you whom you do not recognize," (John 1:26). Then, the next thing you know, the very next day, Jesus Himself walks up to John the Baptist, and John cries out in recognition, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29).

As we ponder this term "Lamb of God", which we hear over and over again at Mass, it may seem strange to us. Yet, it's perhaps the most fitting description. Jewish life for many centuries embraced rituals of sacrifice to God - offerings, gifts of love - to please God.

What terminology would we use if Jesus came today? "Here comes Jesus Christ Superstar!" or, "Here is that guy whose words have gone viral?" Hmmm. Somehow, those substitutes don't seem to fit. We need to go back to Old Testament times in order to better understand and appreciate the term "Lamb of God" and how it became so appropriate to our Catholic faith.

We remember the sacrifice Abraham was asked to make of his only beloved son, Isaac. This was heading toward being a sad scene that instead, turns into a joyous one, when Abraham's sacrifice of Isaac was halted by an angel. "Abraham looked up and saw a single ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So, Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering in place of his son." (Genesis 22:13).

The lamb is also central to the Passover story as God passed through the land of Egypt, striking down the firstborn of each household. Yet, the homes of the Jews who marked their doors with the blood of a lamb are "passed over." In the Book of Revelation, the term "lamb" is used 29 times, always referring to Christ, whose blood saves the "new Israel" from sin and death. Each time we receive Christ in Communion, we hear, "This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world."

The sacrifice made by the Lamb of God was a perfect sacrifice. The sacrifices we make as Christians, as sheep of the Good Shepherd (and if genuine) will be perfectly acceptable to God. We're asked to be in communion with the Lamb, in our sacrifices as well as at a meal. And, for sure, to be a Christian, many sacrifices are expected of us. Yet, mostly we're asked to stay faithful, knowing that, as St. Paul said, "He has now reconciled in his fleshly body and through His death, to present you holy, without blemish, and irreproachable before Him." (Colossians 1:22). Our beloved St. John Paul II spoke about this required sacrifice, saying, "To believe in Jesus today demands a new martyrdom . . . to go against the tide . . . to follow the Lamb wherever He goes." The Lamb is with us, and we know the Lamb is the Lamb of God.

So, as we hear "Behold, the Lamb of God!", and receive the martyred Lamb in the Eucharist at Mass, even though we assert we're not worthy to enter under His roof, we are blessed, "we, who are called to the supper of the Lamb."

Blessings on your week, Deacon Robb

Is date night overdue? Need some time away from the kids? Make your reservations & plans now! Bring your kids to St. Philip's Friday evening, January 24. The Newman Club young adults will entertain & watch your kids as a fundraiser for their spring-break mission trip. (Our mission trip will include working with children in the St. Jude's Hospital in Memphis, TN so we can practice our entertainment skills on your kids while you enjoy a night out!) Free-will childcare will be available 5:30-8:30 Friday, January 24, 2020. Use the parking lot door (#2), check-in will be near the restrooms. We will be watching Brother Francis & videos, as well as games, coloring, and having fun in the gym. Questions? Leave message for Nancy: ngoodman@stphilipsbemidji.org (218) 441-4907.

Knights of Columbus Family of the Month

The Bemidji Council of the Knights of Columbus is very pleased to announce the Family of the Month for January to the Mark and Anita Froelich Family. Mark and Anita and their four boys are very involved with the Church, School and the Council. Most importantly they are role models of good Catholic Family Values. If you wish to nominate someone for Family of the Month, please contact Dan Shea at sheadaniel@gmail.com. The father does not need to be a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Second Collection This Weekend

This week, we take up the collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. The people of Africa are joyous and faith-filled, but they also face challenges due to poverty, high rates of disease, food shortages, and migration. This collection is an opportunity to stand with the people of Africa and support pastoral projects that this continent so needs. Please be generous today.

FIRST EUCHARIST PARENT SESSIONS TUES., FEBRUARY 11, 5:15 PM OR THURS., FEBRUARY 20, 6:30 PM

Two opportunities to attend the First Eucharist Parent Session will be offered: February 11 at 5:15 PM and February 20 at 6:30 PM at the Social Hall. Parents/guardians only need to attend one session. These two sessions will be the only sessions offered this year, so mark your calendars now! The session is for parents/guardians who will be preparing their child to receive the Sacrament of First Eucharist this year. This is a parent only Session, one parent must attend (both are welcome). Children preparing to receive the Sacrament should be in second grade or older and attending Faith Formation or St. Philip's School. An overview of the Sacrament, the preparation program and the time line will be discussed. Parents/guardians are responsible for the preparation of their child to receive the Sacrament. Packets will be handed out and there will be an opportunity for questions and discussion. Please contact Kris Jensen (441-4944) for additional information.

New Study Group Opportunity

Would you like to be part of a small Study Group? Come discuss the books received at Christmas, The Bible is a Catholic Book by Jimmy Akin or The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity by Matthew Kelly? Being part of small study group motivates you to actually read the book (instead of intending to), to share your reaction and hear others differing perspectives related to the reading. It's also a good, safe place to wonder out loud (& maybe even find some answers)! We will begin the weekend of January 26, which has been designated the "Sunday of God's Word" by Pope Francis. Leave message for Nancy if you are interested: (218) 441-4907 or ngoodman@stphilipsbemidji.org. Please indicate which book you have & want to study, along with your contact information.

It is a supreme injustice and arbitrariness when some make themselves the judges of who should live and who should die.
- The Gospel of Life, 66 (St. Pope John Paul II's 1995 encyclical, The Gospel of Life).

Why I Am Pro-Life...

Children are a precious gift from God. Back in the early 1990's, my wife and I had many pregnancies, which for us all ended in miscarriages. The pain at each lost child became more intense each time. The loss of twin boys at 5 months and the loss of our little girl at 7 months, left deep hollow in my heart. The idea that a parent would deliberately end their child's life is really almost too hard to imagine. These tiny human lives are not ours to destroy for our convenience or because we feel pressured into a dead end by society. The lies told by the abortion industry to these women, and men, lead them to a decision that many will come to regret as life goes on. Life begins at conception and we must protect these most vulnerable people who cannot speak for themselves.

"Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb..." (Isaiah 49:5)

God has given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and generously share them with others.
