Lent Calls Us into a Deeper Life of Faith and Mission February 21, 2021

In this weekend's first reading, after saving Noah and all who had been on the ark, God establishes a covenant with Noah and his descendants who would come after him. As a sign of this covenant, God placed the rainbow in the clouds.

In the second reading, St. Peter said that Jesus "suffered for us that He might lead us to God." That's the good news of the Gospel ... our Lord has opened the doors to salvation in heaven to us!

Mark's Gospel message describes the 40 days Christ spent in the desert. We hear that Jesus was tempted, and then ministered to by the Angels. The importance of Mark's Gospel is how it sums up the heart of the New Testament message: Jesus says, "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." Jesus' time in the desert was a time of preparation for His ministry. We can also prepare during Lent for the coming Paschal Mystery by dwelling on three questions.

First: How have we been saved by God already in our lives? What times of trial has Our Lord delivered us from? It's always easiest to see only what's ahead of us, and how we suffer in the present, however, we need to reflect back on times gone by and seek out the ways that God has delivered us in the past. Doing this helps to deepen our trust in God.

Second: How have we been led to God? How have we been blessed, and saved? What kinds of prayer have brought us closest to Him? We need to use those lessons and take advantage of them during this Lent.

And the Third question: How can we best follow our Lord into the desert? Perhaps Focusing on all the penitential practices of this Lenten season might be a way to open our hearts to the God's Kingdom. And, this Kingdom, having been planted in our hearts, enables us to bring this Kingdom to others ... our Mission.

Let the grace of the sacraments bring us into deeper union with our saving Lord.

God's Blessing on Your Lenten Journey of Faith,

Dcn. Robb

Parish Life

"After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God...." ~Mark 1:14

Do you ever think about how difficult it must have been for Jesus to come into Galilee, knowing that John had just been arrested for teaching the same message that Jesus was proclaiming. It must have taken great love and trust for Jesus to do what the Father had sent Him here on earth to do. In the same way, following a life of stewardship takes great love and trust from us. We must be willing to surrender completely to God, trusting that God will always give us all that we need to fulfill His plan for us.

Please pray for our First Eucharist Children, Confirmation Candidates, their families, and Confirmation Sponsors.

Prayer Cards listing the children and candidates are available on a table in the Narthex. One card per family please. A list of the children and candidates are also included in this week's bulletin. Thank you for your prayer support!

Formation Opportunity by Diocese of Crookston

The Diocese of Crookston is partnering with Revive Parishes to make their online content available to parishes and people of the Diocese of Crookston.

"It is a universal approach to engage parishioners, inviting them to expand their knowledge of the Catholic faith while equipping them with the confidence to share their faith with others," said Deacon Aaron Kaiser, Pastoral Associate with the Office of Formation in Discipleship.

As an online leadership academy, Revive Parishes offers free courses with over 50 hours of content available on demand. Topics covered include missionary discipleship, evangelization, understanding and ministering to different generations, youth ministry, preaching and fundraising. Courses are presented by leaders in these fields such as Chris Stefanick, Katie Prejean McGrady, Mark Hart and Father Mike Schmitz. Each course takes two to three hours to complete.

"The platform is extremely portable as it is web-based," Deacon Kaiser said. "The website is simple to navigate with practical material that is fun to watch and learn."

Courses can be started and stopped at any time. Each one includes professionally produced videos, discussion guides and examples of how to apply the information.

The courses are geared toward parish leaders, priests, staff members and volunteers to support them in ministry, however they are available to anyone.

"Parishes could use this resource for small group discussions or Lenten Missions," Deacon Kaiser said. "One course we recommend for a Lenten mission is titled 'Loving and Serving the Poor' by Father Mark-Mary, CFR."

The process to sign up is simple. Go to www.reviveparishes.com/crookston and click "sign up now" to get started. Registrants are asked to provide their email address and the name of their parish. An email with final instructions is sent to the address provided and after confirmation, the courses are available.

"COVID has shocked us all with a major reset," Deacon Kaiser said. "What are you going to do different? You can't go back, all we have is what is in front of us ... so let's develop new routines and new habits."

Revive Parishes hosted an online discussion Feb. 4 for parish leaders focused on engaging parishioners when in person ministry begins. Three panelists who are also instructors of Revive courses — Katie Prejean McGrady, Tim Glemkowski and Chris Stefanick — joined Revive Parishes founder Dan Rogers to share their thoughts and ideas. They focused on ways to begin engaging parishioners now to lay the groundwork for returning to in person ministry.

More than 400 people attended the webinar, including a few from the Diocese of Crookston. After the panel offered suggestions, they spent time answering questions from attendees.

Contact Deacon Kaiser with any questions or to learn more about what Revive Parishes offers.

The Office of Formation in Discipleship is made possible by your support of the Diocesan Annual Appeal.
