The Year of St. Joseph

Pope Francis, while proclaiming this the Year of St. Joseph, composed a letter about this beloved Patron Saint of the Catholic Church and legal father of Jesus. Pope Francis speaks of the many attributes of St. Joseph... today I will share with you the attribute of being a tender and loving father.

Joseph saw Jesus grow daily "in wisdom and in years and in divine and human favour" (Lk 2:52). As the Lord had done with Israel, so Joseph did with Jesus: he taught him to walk, taking him by the hand; he was for him like a father who raises an infant to his cheeks, bending down to him and feeding him (cf. Hos 11:3-4).

In Joseph, Jesus saw the tender love of God: "As a father has compassion for his children, so the Lord has compassion for those who fear him" (Ps 103:13).

In the synagogue, during the praying of the Psalms, Joseph would surely have heard again and again that the God of Israel is a God of tender love, who is good to all, whose "compassion is over all that he has made" (Ps 145:9).

The history of salvation is worked out "in hope against hope" (Rom 4:18), through our weaknesses. All too often, we think that God works only through our better parts, yet most of his plans are realized in and despite our frailty. Thus St. Paul could say: "To keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me: 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness'" (2 Cor 12:7-9).

Since this is part of the entire economy of salvation, we must learn to look upon our weaknesses with tender mercy.

The evil one makes us see and condemn our frailty, whereas the Spirit brings it to light with tender love. Tenderness is the best way to touch the frailty within us. Pointing fingers and judging others are frequently signs of an inability to accept our own weaknesses, our own frailty. Only tender love will save us from the snares of the accuser (cf. Rev 12:10). That is why it is so important to encounter God's mercy, especially in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, where we experience his truth and tenderness. Paradoxically, the evil one can also speak the truth to us, yet he does so only to condemn us. We know that God's truth does not condemn, but instead welcomes, embraces, sustains and forgives us. The truth always presents itself to us like the merciful father in Jesus' parable (cf. Lk 15:11-32). It comes out to meet us, restores our dignity, sets us back on our feet and rejoices for us, for, as the father says: "This my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found" (v. 24).

Even through Joseph's fears, God's will, his history and his plan were at work. Joseph, then, teaches us that faith in God includes believing that he can work even through our fears, our frailties and our weaknesses. He also teaches us that amid the tempests of life, we must never be afraid to let the Lord steer our course. At times, we want to be in complete control, yet God always sees the bigger picture.

The Prayer to Saint Joseph

*Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.*

*Blessed Joseph, to us too,
Show yourself a father
And guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
And defend us from every evil. Amen.*

This is for parents who will be preparing their child (2nd grade or older) for First Reconciliation this year. It is the policy of the Diocese of Crookston that the reception of the Sacrament of Reconciliation precedes the reception of First Eucharist. SPEAK LIFE 2021 #31

I am twenty-nine. Twenty-nine weeks old. At first, when my brain was developing it looked smooth. Now its folds and grooves are like the surface of a walnut or cauliflower—hint, hint. My neurons are really firing, making connections all through my central nervous system. I feel so alive! I am feeling strong because more calcium is being added to my skeleton every day. I like wriggling around. I've got some moves! From head to toe—Momma—I am nearly 15 inches long. I weigh almost two and a half pounds and I'm about as big as a—you guessed it! The head of cauliflower. ~a.m.opdahl

Please call or text Christi Brooks at (218) 969-0289 for information.

"So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." (Genesis 2:19)

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

Carmelite Corner

Lay Carmelites of The Most Pure Heart of Mary

History Carmelites may be asked, "Where do you get your spirit?" We are fired by the prophet Elijah, who, 9 centuries before Christ, lived on the mountain top of Mt. Carmel and was the founder of the group of hermits. This was the site of his victorious encounter with 450 prophets of Baal, as told in the 3rd book of Kings. The prophets cried to the false god Baal all day, but he would not consume their offering. Then it was Elijah's turn, and the Lord's fire consumed not only the offering, but also the altar and even the water in the trench! After this, the false prophets were killed, and the Israelites returned their hearts to God. Carmelites understand that Elijah's spirit came from his closeness with God. Elijah provided us with our motto, "With zeal I am zealous for the Lord God".

The next Lay Carmelite meeting is October 19 at 5 PM in the St. Elizabeth Room.

The PERFECT FIT Campaign

This weekend we learned more about the Perfect Fit Capital Campaign. Many have responded to our diocesan capital campaign. When each family offers their good faith intention in the form of a pledge, it will allow us to enrich the faith life of our diocese and Catholic communities for years to come. Thank you for your continued support!

Our diocese was built on the sacrifices of our families and friends many years ago. Let us do the same for our children and grandchildren. Bishop Emeritus Victor Balke and Bishop Richard Pates, our apostolic administrator, say in accord that this is an extraordinary moment in the life of our diocese. We have before us an opportunity to begin anew in a spacious and modern pastoral center, leaving the troubled waters of the past behind us! Through today's sacrifice, we can reach our goal, rebuild the faith and expand our outreach to the Body of Christ while continuing to serve our Catholic community for years to come.

There are many ways to help sacrificially in addition to pledging monthly or annually. We have seen many different types of gifts to the campaign such as: appreciated stocks, real estate gifts, IRA distributions and harvest/land conveyances. Please contact Reathel Giannonatti with the Diocese of Crookston Catholic Community Foundation at 218-281-4533 (ext. 420) for any questions you may have about different types of gifts. You can make payments using your credit card, direct debit, check or safely and securely make an online gift at: www.crookston.org/perfectfit

If you have not yet participated, please mail your gift directly to the Diocese of Crookston or return your pledge card to the Parish Office as soon as possible.

"There is nothing we have; nothing; that is not a gift. Everything we are and everything we have is founded in the loving generosity of the Creator. When we know this, not just in our minds but in the depths of our hearts, then life takes on a whole new meaning. Then we have a whole different perspective about our time or our talents or our treasure, our bodies, our minds, hearts – everything that we are and everything that we have – takes on a completely different perspective."
