IN OUR MIDST

When we find out that we did well on a big test or we're offered a job we've always wanted, it's only natural that we want to share that news with others. In today's Gospel, Mary and Elizabeth demonstrate that natural desire to share joy. When the two expectant women see and hear each other, they show joy and gratitude ... even the infant, John, leaps in Elizabeth's womb.

While expecting a child is a miraculous experience, it's one that can include worry and difficulty as well. I'm sure they both women shared some difficulties as well joys. In this way, Mary and Elizabeth teach us something about Christian community. And ... as they came closer together to share their joy, pain, and difficulty ... Jesus was in their midst.

Yet, from an outsider's viewpoint, they probably looked like any other women. If the Messiah would come, who would've thought He would come as a vulnerable infant? This weekend's first reading contains the prophecy of the birth of the Messiah. Micah proclaims that the ruler of Israel will come from Bethlehem. The Messiah will be born in a place of little worldly importance ... just like He will be born of a lowly virgin. Lowly in the world's eyes, but certainly not lowly to God. Because in this way, God will establish His new covenant.

God makes holy these lowly and seemingly unimportant people and places. Through them, the Messiah is brought into the world for the salvation of all mankind. What a joyous truth that we are invited to share. While it can be difficult to hear the call of Jesus sometimes, He's here in our midst and has given us the Holy Spirit to help us. The season of Advent reminds us of the joyful anticipation of celebrating our Messiah's birth, and of his second coming.

And so, just like Mary and Elizabeth, we come together as a Christian family to share in this joyful anticipation. We share our joys and accomplishments, as well as our pains and difficulties. When we come together, we ask Jesus to be present amidst our shared experiences. Some of us have things to celebrate. Others carry grief in our hearts, especially as the holidays approach and serve as a reminder of those who will not be with us this year. As a Christian community, we are called to embrace one another to provide support ... and, most especially ... to share in the joy that through everything, Jesus is in our midst.

Continued Blessings for Advent,
Deacon Robb

"For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy." ~LUKE 1:44

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading at Mass, do you "leap for joy?" If not, don't blame the lecturer or priest, rather look inside yourself. What are you doing to grow in friendship with Jesus? How do you prepare for Mass each week? Or, do you just show up and expect to be entertained? As the Body of Christ, we are called to be active participants, not just passive observers.

Safe Environment

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

STEWARDSHIP ~ A HABIT OF THE HEART

"There is nothing we have; nothing; that is not a gift. Everything we are and everything we have is founded in the loving generosity of the Creator. When we know this, not just in our minds but in the depths of our hearts, then life takes on a whole new meaning. Then we have a whole different perspective about our time or our talents or our treasure, our bodies, our minds, hearts – everything that we are and everything that we have – takes on a completely different perspective."

Lay Carmelites of The Most Pure Heart of Mary

St. John Paul II's homily at Mass, 1978, talks about Joseph's relationship with the birth of Christ. Joseph by himself is only a silent witness. Joseph, full of admiration, not speaking and respectful, contemplates the child and its mother. After Mary, he was the first person to see the Son of God made man. No one could have experienced more happiness than he, when he took in his arms, the Messiah.

If we stay close to Joseph during these few days between now and Christmas, he will help us to contemplate this tremendous mystery of which he was a silent witness and to gaze lovingly at Mary as she holds the Son of God made man. Today, ask Joseph to make us simple of heart so that we will know how to show our love for the child Jesus, as he did.

SPEAK LIFE 2021 #42

I am thirty-seven. Thirty-seven weeks old. When my thumb isn't in my mouth, I cough to keep training my lungs to breathe. What shall we do today, Mom?

We could hang out while you wash my baby clothes or reorganize my nursery for the seventh time. Or—maybe we could take a nap? Or two? Don't worry, I'll still wake up at 3 a.m. with you. Oh! What was that? It felt like a quick hug. Thanks, Mom. So you like the nap idea best? Okay. Me too. Hey before you get too comfortable—I want you to know that I'm about the size of a bunch of swiss chard.

THE ADVENT GIVING TREE

The Giving Tree is an opportunity for adults, children, families, individuals, or groups to do something for others during the Advent season. Local service organizations have provided us with lists of items that will brighten the lives of their clients during the holiday season, and you are invited to participate.

To do this, choose one or more of the ornaments from the Giving Tree located in the Narthex. Purchase the item listed on the ornament. Do not wrap, rather tape the ornament to the item/items. Bring the items to the Parish Office, no later than Monday, December 20 so that they may be distributed during the Christmas season.
