An Overflowing and Never-Ending Mercy April 24, 2022

It's Blessed Divine Mercy Sunday! Today, as we continue to celebrate the resurrection of Christ, we're reminded of His incredible gift of mercy. In this weekend's Gospel Jesus appears to his disciples, offering them peace and showing them His wounds. Then, He breathes on them, saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, we're joined with Christ; the Holy Spirit dwells in us, increasing our faith and letting the divine life take root and flourish in us. Despite our sinfulness, we're drawn to our God by His overflowing, never-ending mercy and love.

I'm sure each of us could use some more grace! Jesus tells us exactly how to obtain this grace: by going to Confession, and by receiving Holy Eucharist. Only God forgives our sins because they are, first and foremost, an offense against Him. And we also see in the Gospel Jesus giving His Apostles the power to forgive sins in His name, in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

When we approach our priest, acting 'in persona Christi' (in the person of Christ) for confession, we humble ourselves and speak aloud our sins and shortcomings. In doing this, we meet Jesus who is waiting to surround us in His mercy. Jesus gave the Apostles and their successors, our Bishops and Priests, that authority. Jesus knew our hearts yearn to hear those words of forgiveness. Through Him and in His name, the priest says at the end of confession: "I absolve you." Our sins are not only forgiven, but we're also set free. Free from the chains of sin that restrain us and keep us from loving God as we should.

Whatever sin is present in our hearts today ... whatever sin is holding us down, binding us, and keeping us from loving God as we should ... we need to invite Jesus into that space. Let us allow Him to come and say, "Peace be with you." And let us meet Him in the confessional, where He waits, longing to shower each of us in His divine mercy ... telling us we're forgiven ... "go, and sin no more."

Blessings for Easter,
Dcn. Robb

Parish Life

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month

Did you know...The Catholic Church is deeply committed to protecting children from abuse and holding people accountable for inflicting such pain. In December 2021, the revised Book VI of the Code of Canon Law went into effect. This is the most recent of several documents that specifically address the issue of the abuse of children. Other documents include Vos estis lux mundi and Vademecum. These documents expand the acts which are considered abusive, clarify the manner in which the cases are processed, and hold people accountable for their action or inaction with regard to processing of a case. Of significant importance is attention given to the care of victim survivors and all who have been harmed. Bishops in the US lead the way for these changes with the implementation of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People 20 years ago. Today every diocese and eparchy must have in place systems for tending to those who have been harmed, protecting those in our care and seeking restorative justice.

Second Collection This Week

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States.

Greetings and may this Easter season be filled with grace for all. I reach out to you with exciting news for our parish.

Bishop Cozzens has given permission for us to start offering the Precious Blood at Mass once again (ALLELUIA, PRAISE GOD). We will begin this on the weekend of April 30/May 1. This weekend is also First Communion Sunday, which to me is very appropriate as we welcome these youth to the banquet of the Lord. With this I want to encourage you to use your discretion about receiving from the common cup. You do not have to receive from the cup if you are uncomfortable about doing so; you receive the fullness of the sacrament by receiving only the Precious Body. Please, if you do not receive from the cup just stop in front of the cup minister and a humble bow to reverence and acknowledge the Precious Blood. Also, this means that we need double the Eucharistic Ministers for each Mass as we include Precious Blood. We need you, so let us know if you can help with this ministry.

Next month seminarian John Wilebski will be ordained a transitional Deacon for our diocese. Transitional in that with God's grace he will be ordained a priest next year. Bishop Cozzens has determined that Deacon John will continue his training here at St. Philips for the summer months. Yea, God continues to bless our parish. Let's welcome Deacon John with our support and prayers this summer.

Jesus loves you,
Fr. Bill

It's time to plan St. Philip's Block Party! We are looking for people to join the organizing committee. Please consider helping to make this event happen and raise funds for our parish—our first meeting is Wed., Apr 27 at 5:15 PM in the St. Kateri Rm. Please contact Maryhelen Chadwick at mhcadwick@stphilipsbemidji.org or call 218-441-4906.

ONE MILLION ROSARIES FOR UNBORN BABIES

May 6 – 8, 2022

Be one of the persons who will participate in the multinational ONE MILLION ROSARIES FOR UNBORN BABIES for an end to the surgical and non-surgical killing of unborn human persons. If many people will pray at least one Rosary (May 6 – 8), the goal of 1,000,000 Rosaries can be reached.

This multinational pro-life prayer event, coordinated by the Saint Michael the Archangel Organization, first began more than ten years ago. "Although there are many worthwhile intentions to pray for, it can be very easy to neglect praying for the unborn babies," said Patrick Benedict, Director of the St. Michael the Archangel Organization. "And, yet, each day (on average) over 100,000 unborn human persons are killed. And, that number, as horrific as it is, does not even include all of the non-surgical killings.

Rosie & Charlie #59 Speak LIFE

We are ten. Ten weeks old. See? Now stop saying I didn't give you a turn. Well, it's about time you let me go first. Hey, is your forehead bulging like mine? You're changing the subject. How about your ears and chin? Are they fully developed? You're still changing the subject. What about your arms and legs? Can you rotate them? You're still not talking about how you don't let me talk first. Did you know we're as big as grapes this week? week? Wait—now you want to talk about snacks? Yes. Well, now you're talking!

"Encountering the Risen Jesus in the Stranger on the Road"

Dr. Arthur E. Zannoni, scripture scholar and theologian, will explore Luke's most famous and challenging of the Gospel stories of Jesus' resurrection. Does this story have a special message for our age? For a believer, what action follows acceptance of the story and belief in its implications? April 25, 7-9 PM, St. Frances Cabrini Church, Minneapolis, MN live and on zoom. Free but registration required for this Tegeder Talks event: <https://cabrinimn.org/tegeder-talks>

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.
