Happy Fifth Sunday of Easter,

May 15, 2022

It is very exciting to celebrate all of the things happening in our parish and in our Diocese of Crookston during this Easter season and beyond. It is wonderful when the Sacraments are being celebrated as God's grace is being poured out in abundance upon our whole faith community.

This past weekend we celebrated with 45 of our young children who received Jesus for the first time in the Holy Eucharist! Next Sunday May 22 we have 19 youth who are to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation. Also, during the Easter season we have 17 children who have or will soon celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism.

In addition, we also have exciting celebrations happening in our diocese. On May 21st, John Wilebski III will be ordained a Transitional Deacon and on June 11th, four men, Brent Hoffner, Jeffrey Reese, Trevor Pikula and Robert Thom will be ordained as Permanent Deacons. May God's grace flow upon each of these men and help them in their ministry of service to their parishes and our Diocese of Crookston. This brings back memories for me of my own ordination. It is hard to believe that it has been nine years since I received God's grace through this Sacrament.

Please continue to pray for young men of our parish to be open to the possibility of the priesthood, as well as for men 35 and up to be open to answering God's call to the Diaconate. If you are a male member of our parish between the ages of 30 and 55, and you feel that you should be giving more back to God for all that he has done for you, please pray about the possibility that God may be calling you to consider becoming a Deacon!!! It is very rewarding!

Just like the early disciples in our first reading this week, God has a great plan for the salvation of the world, but he needs us to cooperate with the plan and share the "Good news" with others! Whether we are ordained or not, we are called through our baptism to share in Christ's mission.

As Jesus says in our Gospel this week, "I give you a new commandment: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how you will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

God bless,

Deacon Kermit Erickson

Parish Life

Spring Cleanup at Holy Cross Cemetery

Please remove any winter decorations as soon as you are able... We will be doing our spring cleanup the week of May 23rd. Please do not put new decorations on gravesites until May 28 for ease of getting our cemetery ready for Memorial Day.

Holy Land Crafts back to St. Philip's

Representatives from Catholic Bethlehem Christian Families will be with us the weekend of May 21/22 to ask for your help and blessing for the native people of the Holy Land in Bethlehem. These families have relied on the income from their religious hand carved olive wood artifacts to tourists. So, we have come the USA to try help support these families by bringing their artifacts here to sell. All the proceeds from sales will be sent back to the families of the Holy Land so that they may be able to keep their homes and provide for their families. The past few years have been very tough for the Christian families, and this is the only source of income for them.

Come by to browse these beautiful items after all Masses on May 21/22 and maybe take home a piece of the Holy Land.

Diocese of Crookston faithful are cordially invited to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Bishop Andrew Cozzens' ordination to the priesthood. Bishop Cozzens was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis by Archbishop Harry J. Flynn on May 31, 1997. Bishop Cozzens will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 24 at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Crookston. Light refreshments will follow the Mass.

Quilts needed for the new Diocese of Crookston Retreat Center

As the Diocese prepares to open the new diocesan retreat center, when we considered the need to purchase bedding, the idea was suggested that we cover each bed in its own unique quilt made by people from across the Diocese. Some parishes have quilting groups while most have individuals who make quilts for a hobby. If you or your group are willing to make a quilt for the Diocesan retreat center, please contact Dcn. Mark Krejci (mkrejci@crookston.org) who will send you information about the size needed for the beds. It would be wonderful if every parish would submit a quilt as a support to people who are on retreat.

Experiencing grief?

Come to GriefShare, a non-denominational Christian grief support group that explores and discusses topics related to the grieving process over 14 weeks, to help you through this difficult journey. You can come for one, several, all, or even repeat sessions when you feel the need. GriefShare will be held at Calvary Lutheran Church on Thursday evenings at 5:00 PM beginning May 12, but you may start at any time. ## Rosie & Charlie #62 Speak LIFE

We are twelve. Twelve weeks old. What was that? What? A slurping sound. What are you doing? I'm practicing nursing. Uh—maybe you should focus on growing your cartilage instead. That would be quieter. Yeah, but not as interesting. Hey, what should we get Mom to crave today? How about an avocado? Nah, that's boring. We need something crazy. What do you suggest? I don't know. I guess an avocado does sound good. You think any food sounds good. Yeah, so? How about guacamole? Yum! Perfect! Because we're about as big as avocado pits this week! ~a.m. optdahl

Carmelite Corner

Lay Carmelites of The Most Pure Heart of Mary

St. Therese of Lisieux was recognized as a good nun, but nothing more. Exteriorly there was nothing remarkable about this Carmelite nun. We would never know about her hidden, interior life except for the fact that her sister, Pauline, who was the prioress of the Lisieux Carmel, ordered her to write her autobiography, called 'The Story of a Soul.' Millions of copies have been sold and translated into some forty languages. Its appeal is universal. It is an astounding document that somehow touches the heart of modern people, of every state and condition of life. ~Fr. Terrence Sempowski, O. Carm.

The next meeting of St. Philip's Lay Order of Carmelites is May 17 at 5 PM in the St. Elizabeth room. You are welcome to attend. For more information, call Pat Stark at 218-444-2302 or text Judith Selby at 218-556-8253.

Your Help is Needed

Now that Covid-19 restrictions have finally eased, St. Philip's is again able to serve the homebound. Do you know of someone who is ill or homebound that may like a visit from us? We would love to call on them, so please be our eyes and ears so that these folks don't fall through the cracks! Often times, the only way we are notified of a need is through friends and neighbors who have witnessed a concern. If you know of someone or would like to be trained in the homebound ministry, call the Parish Office, 444-4262.

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." ~John 13:34

"As I have loved you," this is the hard part – Jesus's love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbor" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know or someone that doesn't look like you.
