As we enter this new calendar year many people might be preparing themselves for some changes. Those changes might come in the form of a New Year's resolution. Every January many people resolve to increase good practices, change an undesired trait, accomplish a personal goal, or improve their life in some way. According to some statistics very few people succeed in their resolutions. One study found that 43% of all people expect to fail before February. Most people quit before the end of January, and only 9% see their resolutions through until succession. We might ask the question: Why is this the case? One very likely reason is due to fear. Many people fear change especially when it involves difficulties and challenges. "Fear is the chief activator of our faults." This adage, sometimes attributed to St. Teresa of Avila and often used in twelve-step programs, touches on a profound truth: specifically, how we can be ruled by fear. It is not for nothing that a common phrase throughout the Scriptures is "Do not be afraid." Whether from our Lord Himself or from His angelic messengers, the exhortation touches on a basic reaction of fallen humanity: "I was afraid...and I hid myself" (Gen 3:10). Those first words of Adam neatly summarize humanity's behavior throughout the ages. We can discern the presence of fear at the deepest root of every sin. Even in the sin of Adam we can perhaps detect the fear of missing out on becoming like a god if he did not eat of the tree. So also today, we commit sins of even the greatest gravity not out of malice but out of fear. We fear rejection, suffering, pain, so we try to control our situation – and make a mess of it instead. Our anger and envy, for example, usually proceed from a fear of being less than others, of being passed over.

What do we fear? Perhaps we fear failure. The saints had plenty of failures on their way to perfection. Indeed, perfection was not theirs until they entered heaven. Perhaps we fear losing the kind of life we want, in which case we should meditate on God's goodness to us, that He desires something for us far exceeding what we can imagine. Perhaps we fear the effort needed, that it would disrupt an otherwise comfortable life. Ironically this often drives us to expend more energy avoiding the Lord and burying our gifts than simple outright generosity would demand. In the end, it is a failure of love, a failure to think first of God, that leads to fear. "Perfect love casts out fear" (1 Jn 4:18), because when we enter into that relationship of love with the Father, we realize that we have nothing to fear in our attempts to serve Him. He is patient with His children and delights in their efforts. We should not bury our gifts out of fear but invest them in full confidence that our heavenly Father delights in even the smallest effort to bear fruit. What ever resolution you make this year, allow it to be rooted in faith and guided by the hand of our heavenly Father. Only God has the power to help us conquer our fear and lift His children in a fallen world. May we continue to pray for each other in the year of Our Lord two-thousand twenty-three.

In Christ,

Fr. Michael

December 15, 2022 marked the anniversary of Doe v. Gomez (Dec. 15, 1995) – the Minnesota Supreme Court decision that requires a policy of abortion-on-demand and taxpayer funding of abortion. It has now led to the elimination of most of Minnesota's longstanding abortion-related laws, including informed consent and parental notification requirements.

For further coverage see the Press Release (December 15, 2022) at mccl.org (Minnesota Citizens Concerned for Life). The Doe v. Gomez decision has led to abortion extremism in Minnesota. There is much more work that needs to be done in Minnesota to end the holocaust of abortion in our midst.

"And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart." ~Luke 2:19

After Jesus, we look to Mary as an ideal steward. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God's call. She heard God's message, and immediately said "yes." Mary teaches us to live with joy and gratitude for the many blessings God has given us. Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ. Like Mary, we are called to reflect Christ's light to the world. We do this through lives of gratitude and generosity.
