In the Greek Church Holy Week bears the solemn title the "Sacred and Great Week." In the Latin Church the official term is the "Greater Week." The popular names are "Great Week" among the Slavic nations, and "Holy Week" in other countries. The German name Karwoche means "Week of Mourning." In ancient times Holy Week was also called "Week of Remission," since the public sinners were absolved on Maundy Thursday (Holy Thursday). Another name was "Laborious Week" because of the increased burden of penance and fasting. The faithful of the Eastern Churches also call it the "Week of Salvation."

From the very beginning of Christianity Holy Week has always been devoted to a special commemoration of Christ's Passion and death though the practice of meditation, prayer, fasting, and penance. After the great persecutions, the Christian emperors of both the East and West Roman Empires issued various decrees forbidding not only amusements and games, but also regular work in trade, business, professions, and courts. The sacred days were to be spent free from worldly occupations, entirely devoted to religious exercises. Every year during Holy Week an imperial edict granted pardon to a majority of those detained in prison; in the courts many charges were withdrawn in honor of Christ's Passion. Following this custom, kings and rulers in medieval days retired from all secular business during Holy Week to spend the time in recollection and prayer, often within the seclusion of a monastery. Farmers set aside their plows, artisans their tools, schools and government offices closed, and courts did not hold session. Popular feeling caused the banning not only of music, dancing, and secular singing but also of hunting and any other kind of sport. It was truly a "quiet" and "holy" week even in public life.

The Sacred Triduum of Holy Week (Thursday, Friday, Saturday) was a time of holyday obligation all through the Middle Ages. The Christian people, freed from servile work, were all present at the impressive ceremonies of these days. Due to the changed conditions of social life, however, Pope Urban VIII, in 1642, rescinded this obligation. Since then the last three days of Holy Week have been classified as working days, despite the sacred and important character they bear, which was powerfully stressed by the renewal of the liturgical order of Holy Week in 1955.

According to an ancient tradition, the three days after Palm Sunday are devoted in many countries to a thorough cleaning of the house, the most vigorous of the whole year. Carpets, couches, armchairs, and mattresses are carried into the open and every speck of dust beaten out of them. Scrubbing and waxing floors, dusting furniture, changing curtains, washing windows; the home is buzzing with activity. No time is wasted on the usual kitchen work; the meals are very casual and light. On Wednesday night everything has to be back in place, glossy and shining, ready for the great feast. In Poland and other Slavic countries people also decorate their homes with green plants and artificial flowers made of colored paper carrying out ancient designs. This traditional spring cleaning is, of course, to make the home as neat as possible for the greatest holidays of the year, a custom taken over from the ancient Jewish practice of a ritual cleansing and sweeping of the whole house as prescribed in preparation for the Feast of Passover.

May you have a blessed Holy Week,

Fr. Michael

A Food Shelf Thank You

Once again, the parishioners of St. Philip's Church showed the magnitude of their hearts during the 2023 March FoodShare Drive to alleviate food insecurity in the Bemidji area.

The Knights of Columbus began the drive March 1 with a $2,500 donation and Faith Formation students finished the effort this week by collecting $422.65. In between, parishioners added $7,171.90.

The $10,094.55 total is the largest St. Philip contribution ever for a Bemidji FoodShare Drive.

The dollars will help feed the many men, women, and children who face hunger daily. With its purchasing power, each $100 the Food Shelf spends may feed a family of four for two weeks.

Last year the Food Shelf served 28,894 people from 9,219 families. It also distributed food monthly to individuals in Kelliher and Blackduck.

It is my pleasure to work supporting the Food Shelf in such a caring and generous congregation. Thank you for your continued support of the Bemidji Community Food Shelf.

STEWARDSHIP ~ A HABIT OF THE HEART

Collection for the People of Malawi

The worst cyclone in Malawi history, Cyclone Freddy, struck Fr. Christon's homeland two weeks ago. Father's Diocese of Blantyre was particularly hard hit, with hundreds losing their lives and home. Bishop Thomas Msusa, Archbishop of Blantyre, has appealed to all people of good will for disaster relief support. A second collection will be taken up this weekend, March 25/26, for disaster relief support for the people of Fr. Christon's diocese. Please give generously and keep Fr. Christon, his family, and the people of his country in your prayers as they recover from this disaster. Our Knights of Columbus Council 1544 has begun this relief effort by pledging $1500 to the cause. Checks should be made out to St. Philip's and may be dropped off at the Parish Office.*

You may participate in this 1-question survey by visiting www.crookston.org/vision, use this QR code, or by asking your parish for a hard copy of the survey. Thanks for sharing your insights. Your responses will be kept anonymous.

Please indicate the name of the deceased person(s) your gift is in memory of or the name of the living person(s) your gift is in honor of. PROTECTION FOR NEWBORNS WOULD BE REPEALED BY MINNESOTA HOUSE OMNIBUS BILL – March 27, 2023—Press Release/MCCL (Minnesota Citizens Concerned for Life); mccl.org

A newly introduced health omnibus bill would repeal a measure protecting babies who are already born. If the bill became law, Minnesota would not require efforts “to preserve the life and health” of any baby born alive, whether or not they were born after surviving an abortion. A full article description can be found on MCCL’s website.

602 Building Update

At a public hearing March 23, the Greater Bemidji Area Joint Planning Commission voted unanimously to recommend the daycare program use in the 602 Beltrami Avenue building. The commission now will recommend a Conditional Use Permit to the full Joint Planning Board. Larry Mack and Jana Norgaard spoke briefly regarding the project.

Larry Mack continues to work with the architect and sub-contractors to prepare plans and facilitate estimates and bids.

Staff continue to pursue grants for the building and the daycare program.

Holy Week Ministries
