Luke 2:1-14

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole world should be enrolled.

This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria.

So all went to be enrolled, each to his own town.

And Joseph too went up from Galilee from the town of Nazareth to Judea, to the city of David that is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child.

While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn son.

She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Now there were shepherds in that region living in the fields and keeping the night watch over their flock.

The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were struck with great fear.

The angel said to them,

"Do not be afraid;

for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people.

For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord.

And this will be a sign for you:

you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger."

And suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying:

"Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

“Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you!” – Luke 1:28

After Jesus, we look to Mary as an ideal steward. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God’s call. Mary teaches us to live with joy for all we have been given. Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ. Like Mary, we are called to reflect Christ’s light to the world through our gratitude and generosity.

In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

Year End Appeal – Financial Stewardship

As we near the end of the calendar year, and at the beginning of the Liturgical Year, we find it a good time to ask our parishioners to give strong consideration and prayer to increasing their level of giving to St. Philip's. Our parish family is provided with a large array of services that are an answer to our Parish Mission: To Accomplish God's Work. Many/most of these services and ministries have a financial cost, and we are working to meet those needs as each month goes by. It comes as no surprise to parishioners to know that the cost of running a parish, a school, religious formation, and the many other services has gone up. Please consider increasing your weekly and monthly giving by 6 – 10%. We would also welcome year-end lump sum gifts.

We also want to encourage people that have not done regular giving in the past. Time after time, we hear from people that talk about how much their lives were enriched once they started regular giving. Whether it is through setting up an ACH for funds to flow automatically, or through dropping a contribution into the baskets at Mass, your gifts will come back to you tenfold in blessings.

For help in receiving envelopes to use at Mass or for help with setting up an ACH, please contact Tammy at 218-444-4262.

(From the booklet of 31 prayers for Eucharistic Revival.) The next meeting of the Lay Order of Carmelites is January 15, at PM in the St. Elizabeth room. Mass Obligations for the 4th Sunday of Advent (Dec. 24th) and Christmas.

Catholics are obliged (blessed!) to attend Mass two times in that period of three days. Either Saturday evening or Sunday morning, for the 4th Sunday of Advent, as well as Sunday evening or Monday morning for Christmas. Technically some canonists argue you could attend two Christmas Masses, one on Sunday and one on Monday or even two on Sunday and fulfill your two obligations. At any rate, please inform the faithful of their obligations to attend two Masses in those three days.

Mass schedule for the 4th Sunday of Advent: Saturday evening (Dec. 23) at 5:30 PM and Sunday morning (Dec. 24) 7:30, 9:00, and 11:00 AM.

Mass schedule for Christmas: Sunday evening (Dec. 24) at 4:00, 6:30, and 10:00 PM and on Monday (Dec. 25) at 10:00 AM.
