From the introduction to the Vatican II document —

The Church in the Modern World

Some years back, my brother Paul took some courses at St. John's University at Collegeville. Introduced to the Vatican II documents, he could not stop talking about how inspiring they were and insisted I put parts of them in the bulletin. I thought of him when I recently read these words in our Office of Readings: (Fr. John K.)

"The world of today reveals itself as at once powerful and weak, capable of achieving the best or the worst. There lies open before it the way to freedom or slavery, progress or regression, brotherhood or hatred. In addition, man is becoming aware that it is for himself to give the right direction to the forces that he has himself awakened, forces that can be his master or his servant. In man himself many elements are in conflict with each other. On one side, he has an experience of his many limitations as a creature. On the other, he knows that there is no limit to his aspirations, and that he is called to a higher state of life.

Many things compete for his attention, but he is always compelled to make a choice among them, and to renounce some. What is more, in his weakness and sinfulness, he often does what he does not want to do, and fails to do what he would like to do. In consequence, he suffers from a conflict within himself, and this in turn gives rise to so many great tensions in society.

Very many people, infected as they are with a material way of life, cannot see this dramatic state of affairs in all its clarity. Many think that they can find peace in the different philosophies that are proposed. Some look for complete liberation for man from man's efforts alone. There are those who despair of finding any meaning in life; and they commend the boldness of those who seek to impose a total meaning on it only from within themselves.

But there is an ever increasing number of people who are asking the most fundamental questions or are seeing them with a keener awareness: What is man? What is the meaning of pain, evil, of death which still persists in spite of such great progress? What can man contribute to society, what can he expect from society? What will come after this life on earth?

The Church believes that Christ died and rose for all and can give man light and strength through his Spirit to fulfill his highest calling; his is the only name under heaven in which man can be saved. So too the Church believes that the center and goal of all human history is found in her Lord and Master.

The Church also affirms that underlying all changes there are many things that do not change; they have their ultimate foundation in Christ who is the same yesterday, today and forever." (Vatican Council II --1962-65 - Read the 16 documents yourself)

This is a good opportunity to shop for First Holy Communion, Confirmation, Easter, Mother's Day, or Wedding Gifts. These make wonderful Faith expression items for your own home as well. ## Abortion in the Minnesota Constitution?

Already, state legislators last year enacted a law establishing abortion-up-to-birth in Minnesota statute. But that law could be repealed by future pro-life legislators and a pro-life governor. That's why abortion supporters want to put unlimited abortion in the Constitution itself—because it is much harder to change and would likely solidify Minnesota as an abortion haven for a long time to come.

The exact wording of the amendment isn't known yet, but it would—if passed by the legislature and then approved by voters—enshrine abortion-up-to-birth in the Minnesota Constitution. *It is very important that you contact both your state representative and state senator—regardless of how you think they will vote. Please join us on Mondays, either at 9:15 AM or 6:30 PM. The study will run through March 18. Sessions are open to all, come as you are able.

Session 6 (Mar 11): The Story of the Eucharist. The story of the Eucharist can be traced throughout Scripture. From Genesis to the present day, this session explores how the Cross is the new Tree of Life, and the Eucharist is its fruit.

The Sunday of Divine Mercy

Plan on celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday with us on April 7 beginning at 2 PM. The feast and the veneration of Jesus in the image will be explained. There will be time for group veneration and individually. At 3 PM The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be sung, followed by benediction and repose of the Blessed Sacrament.

In 1931, in Plock, Poland, St. Faustina received a vision of our Lord, Jesus. He tells her to paint an image of Jesus according to what she sees, with the signature of "Jesus, I trust in You"

Jesus spoke to St. Faustina many times during her life concerning the veneration of Jesus in the image. On the Feast of Divine Mercy, tell the whole world of my great mercy. I desire that this image be displayed in public, the first Sunday after Easter. Through the Word Incarnate, I make known the bottomless depth of my mercy. At 3 o'clock implore my mercy, immerse yourself in my passion. I will allow you to enter into my mortal sorrow. In this hour, I will refuse no thing to the soul that makes a request of me in virtue of my passion. Whoever approaches the Fount of Life (Jesus in the Divine Mercy image), on this day, will be granted complete remission of sin and punishment. (To benefit in all the graces, receive confession and communion within 10 days.)

Jesus extended this grace to the whole world. When people pray the chaplet of Divine Mercy for a sick or dying person, the same forgiveness will be granted.

To learn more about Divine Mercy, attend the Divine Mercy Cenacle, that meets the first and third Wednesday every month, at 9:30 AM in the St. Elizabeth Room. Pamphlets are located in the Narthex.

St. Philip's Prayer Chain

We would like to let you know of a "new" prayer ministry at St. Philip's that we are looking for interested parishioners to be a part of: a St. Philip's prayer "chain."

On a daily basis, we will gather prayer requests received from parishioners and send those requests, along with a short prayer for the intention(s), to our prayer chain participants. (We will send you at most, one email per day.) You would decide how much you'd like to pray for the intentions, either just praying the short prayer that is sent, or more prayers of your choosing.

This is called a prayer "chain", but you do not have to forward the requests to anyone else, like in the "old" days. This email has been set up to send and receive prayers requests: stphilipsprayers@gmail.com. Prayer requests can also be sent to our parish secretary and she will forward them.

This is a great ministry that is easy to be a part of whether you are a student, work full time, are retired, or anywhere in-between!

If you would like to be a part of this prayer ministry by praying for the intentions we receive, please send an email with your name and email address to stphilipsprayers@gmail.com. Questions can also be directed to that email.

By his cross you have been saved
