OUR LIVES MUST BEAR THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

During the time of His public ministry, Jesus had made it clear that to be His true follower would require us to bear a "cross" of our own. Jesus said: "If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross every day and follow me" (Luke 9:23). As the time of His passion approached, Jesus emphasized this, teaching us that: "Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit" . . . dying to ourselves so we can live for Christ.

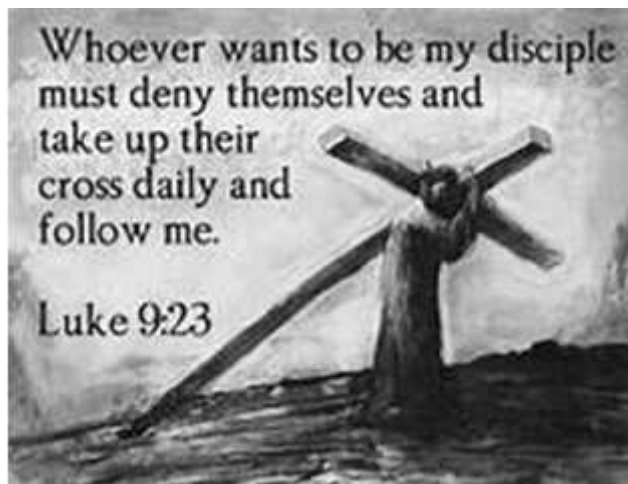

To be a true Christian is to be where Christ is: "Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be." And where do we find our Lord and Savior? He is always pouring out his life for others on the cross, giving Himself for the good of others through self-forgetful love. These are lessons for us from the Gospels, and from the Eucharist - preserved throughout the history of Christ's self-sacrifice on Calvary. And so, that's also where we should be, just like our Lord, Jesus Christ, giving our lives for God and our neighbors.

The greatest commandment Jesus gave us was to love others as He has loved us, and He did this not only by the example of His Passion, but also by the words he spoke during the Last Supper: "A man can have no greater love than to lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). St. Paul learned this lesson well; In Sacred Scripture St. Paul speaks often about the cross. As he wrote to the Corinthians: ". . . the only knowledge I claimed to have was about Jesus, and only about Him as the Crucified Christ" (1 Corinthians 2:2).

As followers of Christ, we should expect that we will have to bear crosses, difficulties, and even, at times, suffer persecution of our own. To be a true Christian, involves not just wearing a crucifix or hanging one on the wall, but bearing the sign of the cross in the very essence of our lives. Yet, we won't bear these things alone, as He has promised that He will be with us always.

Praying your Lenten journey is a blessed one,

Dcn. Robb

Eucharistic Adoration March 22

Our parish will offer Eucharistic Adoration/Holy Hour one Saturday a month at 9:00 AM with Exposition and Benediction in the Church. Our next Holy Hour will be Saturday, March 22 from 9 to 10 AM. We will provide reminders every month as to when the future Holy Hours will take place. Every Holy Hour will include a monthly prayer intention. Our prayer intention for March is for those who have left the church or have turned from God. We pray that God will bring these souls back into the light of Christ and to remove whatever is blinding them from the truth.

Thank you! Newman Catholic Campus Ministry would like to thank all parishioners who have provided prayer and financial support to our BSU students and FOCUS missionaries over spring break. Thankfully, the violence and mayhem in neighboring Haiti did not threaten our group in the Dominican Republic. If you would like to hear more about their trip, come after the 11:00 Mass on March 23 to the St. Elizabeth Room to hear Izzy talk about their experience and their work supplying clean water to families in the Dominican Republic.
