

All St. Philip's Catholic School social media pages will focus on celebrating and supporting our schools, students, and teachers, as well as sharing news and communicating event information. We encourage you to share your support, connect with other supporters, and visit frequently for news and updates.

While everyone is welcome and encouraged to comment, our first priority is to protect students, staff and community members. Comments and/or posts that do not follow this Commenting Guideline may be removed.

We do not tolerate cyberbullying and/or posts or comments that are discriminatory, political, racist, sexist, abusive, profane, violent, obscene, spam, contain falsehoods or are wildly off-topic, or that libel, incite, threaten, or make ad hominem attacks on students, employees, guests, or other individuals. We also do not permit messages selling products or promoting commercial or other ventures. You participate at your own risk, taking personal responsibility for your comments, your username and any information provided. We reserve the right to delete or hide comments or topics and even ban users if needed. Please be aware that all content and posts are bound by Facebook's Terms of Use.

St. Philip's Catholic School encourages user interaction on its social pages but is not responsible for comments or wall postings made by visitors to the page. Additionally, the appearance of external links, as posted by fans of this page or other Facebook users, does not constitute endorsement on behalf St. Philip's Catholic School. In most if not all cases, external links posted by fans will be removed.

You should not provide private or personal information (phone, email, addresses etc.) regarding yourself or others on this page. Any posts or comments containing personal information of this nature will be deleted.
