PASTOR'S DESK

RECONCILIATION

Lent is, of course, a penitential time, a time to contemplate how we might improve our spiritual life and thus our life. It is a time for self-examination and consideration if what we value and how we act is consistent with the example and teaching of Christ and the faith in him that we profess.

Humiliated as He was on the cross, in this season we humbly acknowledge our sins against him and against others. Sin alienates us and we seek to reconcile ourselves as we would do in any situation with those we love.

Years ago, there was a widely viewed movie called "Love Story" starring a beautiful couple, played by Ali McGraw and Ryan O'Neill. One of the memorable lines was "Love means never having to say you're sorry." But it does mean that. Whether by word or by gesture, saying I'm sorry, asking for forgiveness opens many doors in a relationship that may have been ajar or even closed.

In the sacrament of Reconciliation, we ask for forgiveness, express our sorrow so that we might be reconciled to the Lord and the community of Faith. It is an encounter of three, penitent, priest and the merciful God who has promised to be part of this sacramental face-to-face.

The final in our five services on Thursday nights in Lent will be a Parish Reconciliation Service at 7:30 pm on Thursday evening April 11. There will be readings, a homily, a communal examination of conscience and the opportunity for private confession with any of three priests. Please plan to join us.

Related to this, on Sunday, April 7 at coffee hour, after the 8:45 AM Mass Dr. Joe Favazza, a parishioner and neighbor will present on the subject of "Forgiveness and Reconciliation." Joe who holds a Ph.D. (Religious Studies) from the Catholic University of Louvain (Leuven) in Belgium has lectured and written widely on the topic.

Please plan to join us for this presentation. It will be a worthy consideration of an appropriate Lenten topic and perhaps even preparation for the celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation on April 11.

REMINDER

In the pews this weekend, you will find cards requesting your response to two questions about "Disciples in Mission." "Disciples in Mission" is the Archdiocesan program for revitalizing parishes by establishing collaboratives and promoting the creation of three year pastoral plans in all parishes. Many of you participated in this latter process through a survey and focus groups this past year. Based on that input our parish planning team has submitted a preliminary draft of the vision and goals of our plan and will be continuing to work to flesh it out with particular actions.

Please respond on the cards in the pew and place the completed ones in the basket or drop them at the basket in the back on the way out. Thank you.

~Fr. Frank

Weekly Collection Mar. 24, 2019

The average cost to run the parish is $9,800 per week. Our expectation is that 70% or $6,860 will come from the weekly offertory. Parishioners contributed $6,505 for the week ending March 24, 2019. Thank you.

Thursday Evenings During Lent

April 4th at 7:30 PM ~ CRS Solidarity Prayer

Walk: A self-guided meditation using photography and written reflection.

April 11th at 7:30 PM ~ Parish Reconciliation Service

Easter Basket Service Project

Please remember to return Easter Baskets for the Evelyn House homeless shelter by the weekend of April 6-7. Baskets may be left under the Giving Tree in the alcove. For questions, please contact Mary Ann LaHive at malahive@verizon.net. Thank you from the Christian Services Commission.

Disciples In Mission

Disciples in Mission is the name for the Archdiocesan New Evangelization Program. Revitalizing parishes through fostering collaboratives and pastoral planning are its major efforts.

Here at OLOS, we have been doing that pastoral planning and have prepared a first draft of the three year pastoral plan. Many of you gave us substantial input by participating in that process through a survey and focus group.

This weekend, March 30/31, the Archdiocese will ask you to fill out a simple survey card with your views on this process. Look for the cards in the pews. Thank you.

~ Fr. Frank

From Senior Deacon Mike

In the midst of Lent, for the fourth week, we celebrate the Gospel narrative of Luke entitled 'The prodigal Son'. As a reminder of God's mercy, consider the last paragraph of the story.

He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'

Coffee Hour Presentation on April 7th ~ Dr. Joe Favazza on Reconciliation

Join us after the 8:45 AM Mass in O'Connell Hall.

At the heart of our Catholic tradition are the experiences of forgiveness and reconciliation. But these terms are not interchangeable. This presentation will explore the essential moments in the dual process of forgiveness and reconciliation. We will use a short, first person account of how one man learned to forgive to guide us as we explore the great challenge of Matthew 18:21-22: "Then Peter, approaching, asked Jesus, 'Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive him? As many as seven times?' Jesus answered, 'I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times.'

Dr. Joseph Favazza moved to Sharon in July, 2005, and is the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at Stonehill College. Joe holds a Ph.D. (Religious Studies) from the Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium. He has published and presented widely on issues related to forgiveness and reconciliation.

CRS Rice Bowls - Stories of Hope along Our Lenten Journey

How CRS Works:

CRS uses a holistic approach called integral human development to help people reach their full potential in an atmosphere of peace, social justice and human dignity. This long-term, dynamic process facilitates collaboration across civil society and the public and private sectors. CRS engages people at every level—individual, family, community, regional, national and international—to promote transformative and sustainable change.

Stories of Hope: Waisa and Kumba in Sierra Leone

When Waisa was young, no one thought girls should receive an education. Plus, there was work to do at her family's farm. Now, things have changed in Sinkunia, a town in the north of Sierra Leone. Waisa knows the importance of education—especially for girls. "If there's education, Sierra Leone will develop," she says. "Our students will make sure of it."

That's why Waisa insists that her 12-year-old granddaughter, Kumba, attends the nearby CRS-sponsored school. Kumba wants to be a nurse. A nurse, Kumba says, helps cure the sick, and if there were more nurses in Sinkunia, those who get sick wouldn't have to leave the town to get healthcare.

Waisa works hard to support her family. With no shade from the hot sun, Waisa cares for the family's garden, watering eggplants, tomatoes, onions and more to be harvested and sold through the streets of Sinkunia. Kumba helps her every day after school. "I'm happy if I can support my daughters and granddaughters, even through university," Waisa says. With a smile, she adds, "I know that educated girls help their parents and their communities."

Opportunity for you:

Prepare the meal Ground Nut Stew found in the Rice Bowls calendar and read more about Waisa and her granddaughter, Kumba, at <https://www.crsricebowl.org/stories-of-hope/week-4>
