PASTOR'S DESK

MOTHER'S DAY

We want to ask special blessings for all mothers on this day dedicated to them. None of us need to be told what joy and goodness they bring to our lives. Frequently people talk of their mothers in conversation even long after they have gone home to God.

Of course, our model is the Mother of God, Mary. As a young woman, she became the model for all believers because of her courage and acceptance in the face of being asked the impossible. Like our mothers, she cared for the Savior through all the adversity he faced in his life and endured the pain and heaviness of heart that made her Our Lady of Sorrows.

Like her, our mothers are there in good times and in bad, loving us no matter what and calling out in us qualities that make us more than we would be if they were not in our lives. Even when mothers due to human limitations that affect us all, may not live up to Mary the model, we are still bound to them by bonds of affection and care.

Today, to mothers and all women in our lives, thank you. We are so much more than we would be without your love and care.

FIRST COMMUNION

We congratulate those who are receiving their first communion this week-end. The Eucharist is at the heart and center of our faith and to have them join us in the fullness of communion is a great joy. Thanks also to their parents and all those on our staff and volunteers who helped prepare them for this signature event in their lives.

PASTORAL PLAN

The group developing our three year Pastoral Plan has received initial positive feedback from the Archdiocese and will now be moving to develop specific actions to flesh out the plan. Next week we will include it in the bulletin again and I will talk about it in the "Pastor's Desk" column.

SACRAMENTAL SEASON

In addition to Communion and Confirmation, it is also time for ordination of priests which will take place in the Cathedral on May 18. This is the largest class Boston will ordain in a number of years.

Recently, I visited Pope St John XXIII National Seminary where I spent an academic year prior to return to ministry. One of the men who came as a first year student the year I was there was ordained for the diocese of St Augustine, Florida last Saturday. It was a joy to see him as a priest and I know he will be a good one. Another friend from Pope John will be ordained next weekend. He is a good friend, half my age. What a gift it is to have some of your friends be that much younger. In any case, it is another reason to give thanks to God when his sacramental presence is popping up all over the place like the new life of spring.

~Fr. Frank

Weekly Collection May 5, 2019

The average cost to run the parish is $9,800 per week. Our expectation is that 70% or $6,860 will come from the weekly offertory. Parishioners contributed $6,834 for the week ending May 5, 2019.

From Senior Deacon Mike:

Continuing to celebrate the fifty days of Easter, we rejoice with the Gospel of John (chapter 10) as Jesus proclaims his identity as shepherd.

Donate Travel-Size Toiletries for Personal Care Kits

May 18 - June 2, 2019

Do you travel often and accumulate travel-size toiletries? The Christian Services Commission will be collecting travel-size toiletries from May 18-June 2 in the alcove of the church.

From these donated items, we will assemble Personal Care Kits for the women and men living in shelters for displaced families as well as for families unexpectedly displaced. With your donations last year, we were able to create almost 200 Personal Care Kits!

We can use individual or trial size: shampoos & conditioners, soaps, hand & body moisturizers, toothpaste & toothbrushes, tissue packs, towelettes or body wipes, and other personal care items.

Please contact Kate Mason at 781-784-6163 if you have any questions. Thank you in advance.
