Although there is still time to enjoy the beautiful summer weather we've been having, it's only a few more weeks to the beginning of another school year. This means extra expenses for parents for school supplies, books, clothes, etc. and of course less money for food and other necessities. Our parish has always been more than generous with donations to the Food Pantry and now that there's an increased need for food staples, there's no doubt that we can give just a little more each week to help those less fortunate. And as always the volunteers at the Food Pantry are most grateful for your contributions. Thank you!

From Senior Deacon Mike

The Gospel of Luke for the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time presents a clear statement about the mission of Jesus.

He understands that there will be questions and different ideas that result in disagreement within those who listen to his teaching.

In today's culture, this dialogue continues. Be alert!

"...Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth?
No, I tell you, but rather division..."

Adult Faith Formation Coffee Hour: Continue the Conversation with Fr. Clooney

Engage more deeply with the Liturgy of the Word through dialogue in community. Join Fr. Frank Clooney and fellow parishioners in the Bullock Center for a cup of coffee and conversation about the day's readings and homily THIS Sunday, August 18th following the 10:30 AM Mass.

Consider serving as a Faith Formation Volunteer!

Faith Formation volunteers help young people come to know Christ and the riches of our faith by teaching weekly PreK-Grade 5 Faith Formation classes or facilitating a small group in the Middle School or Confirmation Program.

In order to serve as a Catechist, you must:

- Be available on Sunday mornings from 8:45 am until 9:45am
- Be comfortable and able to communicate effectively with the age group that you teach
- Prepare weekly lessons (based on lesson plans provided within our curriculum Blest Are We)
- Attend a catechist training session in the fall

An Assistant Catechist helps the catechist in their work by:

- Helping children who require special assistance;
- Taking attendance
- Accompanying children to restroom
- Monitoring children until catechist arrives
- Substitute teaching if catechist is absent
- Other duties as negotiated with catechist

Hall Monitors are available during PreK-Grade 5 classes to help as needs arise; Substitute Catechists are “on-call” to fill in when Catechists are away or sick.

Middle School Facilitators assist the middle school faith formation teacher and must:

- Commit to serving in either the Sunday night program (meets once a month from 5-6:30 p.m.) or the Tuesday night program (meets once a month from 7-8:30 p.m.)
- Lead small group discussions and small group activities throughout the session
- Be a positive-adult presence throughout the session and help with other needs as they arise

- Lead approximately two small group discussions/activities per class (small group discussion prompts and activity instructions provided)
- Be a positive-adult presence throughout the class, and help create a safe and welcoming space

Training and on-going support are provided for all of our Faith Formation volunteers. All volunteers must comply with Archdiocesan Child Safety and Protection requirements, including: signing a Code of Conduct; attending a Protecting God's Children training session; completing a CORI form.
