Lenten Evening Prayer

Thursday, March 14, 2024
7:00 PM

The Church's most ancient prayer form, The Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office, is grounded in the worship of the synagogue. During Evening Prayer (vespers) we praise God in hymns and psalms, listen to sacred readings, lift up the needs of the Church and the world, and conclude by singing the Magnificat and Our Father. Great care is taken to create a prayerful atmosphere with candles, incense, subdued lighting, periods of silence, and song. All are welcome to the 45-minute service.

Holiday Cards for Seniors

HAVE A HAPPY SPRING

This is the day the Lord has made;
We will rejoice and
be glad in it.

PSALM 118:24 NKJV

Help us let our senior neighbors know we are thinking of them! We are extending a simple cheerful message to those in our parish and surrounding communities during the Winter and Spring seasons. These cards will be colored during faith formation Sunday coffee hours in February and March. We will have a table set up with printed cards, stickers, markers, and crayons for all to create and decorate. We need two people to attend and help with the activity. Please contact Tzipora Stessman (781-784-2265 or email: tstessman@olosharon.org) for more information.

CRS Rice Bowl Campaign at OLOS

This Lent, Our Lady of Sorrows is once again supporting Catholic Relief Services' Rice Bowl campaign. Join Catholics from across the U.S. in putting our faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Seventy-five percent of your rice bowl donation funds Catholic Relief Services' work throughout the world, while 25% of your donation stays in the Archdiocese of Boston for local efforts to relieve hunger and poverty.

To learn more about CRS, its work and the Rice Bowl campaign, visit crsricebowl.org. Also, be sure to join us at OLOS for a CRS Lenten meal and Prayer Walk on Thursday, February 29th. For more information about the meal and prayer walk, contact Monica LaFond at mlafond@olossharon.org.

There are three easy ways to donate to the CRS Rice Bowl campaign at OLOS:

- (1) Pick up a rice bowl from the baskets in the Church, O'Connell Hall, or the Bullock Center. Return your rice bowl to the baskets in the church during Holy Week.
- (2) Send a check payable to OLOS at 59 Cottage Street, Sharon, MA 02067 with "CRS Rice Bowl" in the memo line.
- (3) Donate via PayPal by scanning this QR code. Please be sure to include "CRS Rice Bowl" in the note section.

Breakfast Donations for Mainspring House

Easter Cards for Seminarians

As we enter Lent, OLOS is preparing to send Easter cards to the men studying to become priests at Saint John's Seminary and are looking for new and returning writers to send a card and/or note to one or more of the men. Writers of all ages are appreciated. If you are willing to help out, contact Tzipora Stessman at tstessman@olossharon.org and you will be provided with the name(s) of a seminarian in need of a card. Cards should be returned in an unsealed envelope to the Bullock Center by Sunday, March 17. Thank you for your help and support of the men who will one day serve in parishes such as ours.

Thank you to everyone who wrote cards to the seminarians for Thanksgiving. We received messages from some of the men expressing how much they appreciated the words of encouragement. One seminarian noted that he had the cards proudly on display in his room.

START YOUR DAY WITH GOD...

This Lent take advantage of the early mass! Stop by on your way to work, school, or wherever else the day will take you!
