PARISH FINANCIAL NEWS

DONATE TO OUR LADY OF SORROWS

On average, it costs $9,600 per week to run the parish. There are two sources for this amount: the Grand Annual Campaign and the weekly offertory. Last week's offertory amount was $3,979 and the six month average for electronic giving is $3,000 per week. Thank you to all who contributed.

For those of you who are not contributing at this time but would like to begin and for those of you who are able to increase your amount, there are two easy ways to donate:

1. If you have online banking, you can set up Our Lady of Sorrows as a regular "payee." While this is not an electronic funds transfer (we still get a paper check directly from your bank), it does allow you to make regular gifts to the offertory on a weekly or a monthly basis.
2. You can also support OLOS on a regular basis by going to www.weshare.com and setting up an account for a regular automatic gift.

SAVE THE DATE FOR A MEMORIAL MASS AND LUNCHEON FOR DEACON MIKE IWANOWICZ ON SUNDAY, JUNE 1st

This June marks the five year anniversary of the passing of Deacon Mike Iwanowicz, who served the Our Lady of Sorrows community for nearly forty years. Please mark your calendar for a memorial Mass followed by a luncheon where we will gather with Deacon Mike's family and friends to remember Mike and his beloved wife Pat.

If you have a memory or photo of Deacon Mike to share, please contact Monica at 781-784-2265 or mlafond@olssharon.org.

Graduating from High School or College? We want to hear from you!

We want to acknowledge and celebrate all our graduates this spring. Please email the names of parishioners who are graduating from high school or college to mlafond@olssharon.org. For seniors graduating from somewhere other than Sharon High, please include the name of the school and the date of graduation. For college graduates, please include the name of the school and degree awarded.

Saint Bernardine of Siena

1380-1444 | FEAST DAY — MAY 20

This renowned Italian preacher was canonized only six years after he died. He was born near Siena and studied at the university there. He was ordained a Franciscan priest in 1404. From 1417 until his death 27 years later, he crisscrossed northern and central Italy as an itinerant preacher who drew enormous crowds by focusing on honest and penitential living and on reverence for the holy name of Jesus which led to the spread of this devotion. He also preached against gambling and materialism and turned down three requests to become a bishop.

The next meeting of the OLOS Book Group is scheduled for Sunday, May 18th from 2:30-3:30 p.m.

We will meet via Zoom to discuss Absolution by Alice McDermott.

The Book Group meets one Sunday afternoon a month to discuss books that broadly deal with spiritual or religious themes.

For the Zoom link for the meeting, please contact Monica LaFond at mlafond@olossaron.org.

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

The local animal shelter was at a school assembly explaining to the students the various things they needed to do to take care of their pets. He explained that pets do not understand us when we tell them we love them. The only thing they understand is what we do. You must show them that you love them.

People are like that. Sometimes they do not understand us when we say we love them. We have to show them. It's all about our attitude, our conversation, our helpfulness, our willingness to listen, our ability to change and grow and to spend time together. When words don't adequately explain what we feel, or when those closest to us seem distant, we have to let our love and concern come through what we do. A gesture, a helping hand, a quiet conversation or our silent yet supportive presence can be the most eloquent witness to the deepest treasures of our heart.

We can even show God our love. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." "Whatsoever you do to the least of my brothers and sisters, you do to me." Actions count and they mean something. Mercy, forgiveness and compassion are things we do, not ideas we debate. They only become real when we actually show mercy, when we are forgiving and when we are compassionate. Let a little love show in your life. People will get the message.

~James Gaffney.

According to a custom that is as old as the human race, a sign carried on the forehead is a sign of belonging. Slaves, especially, often had such a sign branded on their foreheads (or arms); it told others who their owner was. In the sacrament of baptism Jesus who suffered and died and conquered on the cross takes possession of the children whom their parents have brought to him. The children will belong to him not as slaves used to belong to their masters, but they will belong to Christ the way lovers belong to each other.

~Balthasar Fischer

In Word & Deed

Instead of a bucket list, Christians should have a "Gospel List," things they need to do so they live what they believe. Some things may take time to do, but there should always be something on our list that's just waiting for some attention. Live the Beatitudes. Practice the Works of Mercy. Pray daily, read the Scriptures, receive the sacraments. Don't wait until the last minute to try and live a lifetime of faith in a few moments. Use a big bucket! You'll find it is better filled with blessings than wishes!

~James Gaffney

A Help Button Should Go Where You Go!

To be truly independent, your personal emergency device needs to work on the go.

MobileHelp® allows you to summon emergency help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by simply pressing your personal help button. Unlike traditional systems that only work inside your home, a MobileHelp medical alert system extends help beyond the home. Now you can participate in all your favorite activities such as gardening, taking walks, shopping and traveling all with the peace of mind of having a personal alert system with you. MobileHelp, the "on-the-go" help button, is powered by one of the nation's largest cellular networks, so there's virtually no limit to your help button's range.

No landline? No problem! While traditional alert systems require a landline, with the MobileHelp system, a landline is not necessary. Whether you are home or away from home, a simple press of your help button activates your system, providing the central station with your information and location. Our trained emergency operators will know who you are and where you are located. If you're one of the millions of people that have waited for an alert service because it didn't fit your lifestyle, or settled for a traditional system even though it only worked in the home, then we welcome you to try MobileHelp. Experience peace of mind in the home or on the go.
