Pastor's Notes

Dear Parish Family,

One of the themes of this weekend's Gospel, that I hope to draw to your attention, is the instantaneous conversion of heart that sometimes occurs in human souls when they are called by God. Similar to the dramatic conversion of St. Paul, Zacchaeus, a man who was considered a sinner, immediately sought to make amends for his sins after his encounter with Christ. When we reflect on the history of salvation, we see that from the time of the fall of Adam and Eve to the coming of Christ right up to our modern times, God allows things to unfold in a manner that is very gradual. For the majority of us, our spiritual life is something that takes years of prayer and diligent effort to develop. When we read the lives of the saints, in particular those like St. John of the Cross, we come to see that there are periods in which our faith is tested, dry, and seemingly void of God's presence. St. Teresa of Calcutta, in spite of her heroic works, also had periods in which she experienced a profound absence of God's presence in her life.

What are we to do when these spiritually dry periods come before us? We must remember the New Testament stories of Zacchaeus and St. Paul, and take heart that, when we least expect it, Jesus will call us by name and flood our hearts with His peace, joy, and zeal for God. The story of Zacchaeus provides us hope. It demonstrates to us that Jesus knows each of us by name, and regardless of the sins that we have committed, He desires our salvation.

The great blessing of our Catholic Faith is our belief in the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist. I encourage you to seek Him out frequently through the reception of Holy Communion at Mass and at other times through Eucharistic Adoration. Our Parish is so incredibly blessed to have Adoration Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. in the Cody Center Chapel. Go and make yourself available for His call!

As we begin the month of November, we are called to remember all those who have passed on. I want to thank all those who attended our All Souls Day Mass and blessing of the graves this Saturday.

Next week I will be traveling to India to partake in several events with my Religious Community, Carmelites of Mary Immaculate. I will return prior to Thanksgiving, and I ask that you keep me in prayers as I, too, will pray for you while I am away. I thank Fr. John and Fr. Bernie for the extra care they will provide during my absence.

God bless, Fr. Sebastian

Did You Know?

The Fourth Commandment reminds grown children of their responsibilities toward their parents, especially as they age. As much as they can, they are to provide their parents material and moral support as well as provide for them in times of illness, loneliness, or distress. Jesus calls us to this as well in Mk 7:10-12, "Whoever honors his father will be gladdened by his own children and whoever glorifies his mother is like one who lays up treasure." (CCC#2218)

El Cuarto Mandamiento recuerda a los hijos mayores de edad sus responsabilidades hacia sus padres, especialmente a medida que envejecen. Tanto como puedan, deben proporcionar a sus padres apoyo material y moral, así como proveerles en tiempos de enfermedad, soledad o angustia. Jesús también nos llama a esto en Mc 7:10-12, "Quien honre a su padre será alegrado por sus propios hijos y quien glorifique a su madre es como aquel que pone tesoros." (CCC #2218)

Becoming a Catholic

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? Are you answering a call to become Catholic but are not sure how or where to begin? If you are, please consider attending the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). The Catholic Church uses the RCIA Process to instruct and welcome new members. RCIA provides instruction that covers all major aspects of the Catholic Faith, an opportunity to ask questions about the Faith, and a parish community who will support you on your journey. RCIA Meetings are on Sundays in the Marian Chapel of the Main Church from 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. and includes participation in the 10:00 a.m. Mass Liturgy of the Word.

New this year! Refresh | Are you a confirmed Catholic who has questions about your faith? Would you like to be refreshed on major aspects of your faith? St. Joseph's is offering the opportunity for any parishioner to come and REFRESH his/her understanding of our Catholic Faith. The REFRESH group will join the RCIA catechumens and candidates on Sundays at 9:00 a.m. in the Marian Chapel of the Main Church to receive instruction about our Catholic Faith. Father John Sollee will be teaching many of these classes. The REFRESH group will then be dismissed at 10:00 a.m. to give them the opportunity to attend the 10:00 a.m. Mass. The first meeting was last Sunday.

To enroll in either RCIA or Refresh, or if you have any questions, please contact Mike and Michelle Peters at michellecpeters@hotmail.com or 904-710-2508.
