OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Pastor's Notes

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend we celebrate the great feast of Christ the King! This feast, which marks the end of our liturgical year, is one that is particularly important this year in light of our recent elections. I say this because as Catholics we must always remember that life is temporary and with each day, we move closer and closer to the Eternal Kingdom. The entry into the Kingdom of Heaven is outlined in this weekend's Gospel. The care, love, and compassion which we show those around us, particularly the strangers and the impoverished, are the standard by which God will judge us. We will all be held accountable for the actions of our lives and I encourage you to turn your focus towards these great works of charity as we enter the season of Advent next weekend. St. Joseph Parish is blessed to have many ministries that focus on the works of charity and I hope you will take this opportunity to join one and serve our community to the best of your ability.

Monday, the 23rd, will be the annual Mandarin Food Bank Thanksgiving Giveaway and I want to thank the many volunteers who will ensure that the many, in our area, in need will receive a proper Thanksgiving meal. I also want to thank the many donors who have supplied the turkeys, trimmings, and funds necessary to ensure the success of the giveaway.

Friday, November 27 will be the opening of the St. Joseph Christmas Tree Lot located in the wooded area on the corner of Old St. Augustine Road and Hood Landing. The lot will open on Friday at 9:00am and will remain open daily until all the trees are sold. There is a limited number of trees so get yours early!

Please join us on Wednesday, December 16 at 6:30pm in the Cody Center for our Advent Penance service. There will be priests from around the diocese here for private confession. Don't miss this powerful prayer event that will aid you in your preparation to receive the King of Kings this Christmas!

We are on track to reopen the Main Church and resume Masses there on Saturday, December 19. Bishop Estévez will join us that evening as the main presider at the 5:30pm Vigil Mass. I am looking forward for all in the Parish to experience the great restoration work that has taken place!

God bless,

Fr. Sebastian

Prepare the way for the Lord

PARISH ADVENT DEVOTIONAL

This year, to prepare the way of the Lord collectively as a parish community - moving back to our renovated church, still navigating through the trying days of 2020 - , we will have a parish devotional/activity each weekend of advent to truly put Christ back in Christmas and remember the "reason for the season"

Second Sunday of Advent

Prepare the way of the Lord (Mk 1:3;cf. Is 40:3)

The season of Advent recalls in a literal sense the days of "preparation" before the entrance of the Lord Jesus into human history in the Incarnation at Christmas. However, we should always remember to prepare ourselves for His coming to us each day in the Sacrament, the Eucharist. As Saint John reminds us, the way we show our love of God is principally through Christian charity, for whoever does not love a brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen (1 Jn 4:20). Uniting these two senses, parishioners are encouraged to provide baby diapers which will be collected before and after each of the Masses on Dec. 5/6, to be given to the Divine Mercy House and other Women's Help Centers.

First Sunday of Advent

Be watchful! Be alert!
(Mk 13:33)

Part of remaining watchful and vigilant in the life of faith, as the Rite of Baptism states, is to have the light of faith "kept burning brightly, so that [we] may walk always as a child of the light and, persevering in the Lord when he comes". To remind us of our lofty Christian vocation, each family is encouraged to bring their advent candles or other candles that serve to illuminate your family prayer times and dinners to be blessed at each of the Masses on Nov. 28/29, the First Sunday of Advent.

Third Sunday of Advent

Bring glad tidings to the poor
(Is 61:1)

On the Third Sunday of Advent, we hear the prophetic words of Isaiah on the messianic mission which Jesus fulfills in His Person (indeed, the words he proclaims are fulfilled at the beginning of His public ministry in Saint Luke's Gospel). By virtue of our Christian vocation - and in particular by virtue of the Sacrament of Confirmation, in which we, too, are anointed in this kingly office of the Lord Jesus - we also are called to bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to captives and release to the prisoners (Is 61:1). Blessed as we are to have Deacon Corky, the Diocesan Director of Prison Ministry, our parish activity this week will be writing Christmas cards to those in prison. Please bring your Christmas card in a stamped envelope, unsealed, and signed only with your first names to Masses on the weekend of Dec. 12/13, and as you receive the mailing label, remember to pray for the person you will adopt in a special way this Advent/Christmas season.

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord
(Lk 1:38)

In a special way, the Fourth Sunday of Advent always reminds us of the Lord's indwelling, particularly focusing on the perfect example given by the handmaid of Nazareth, Mary, our Mother and Queen. Join us after our two evening Masses - after the 5:30pm Vigil on Dec. 19 and after the 5pm Sunday Mass on Dec. 20 - outside the main church for a candlelight rosary.

Christmas Tree Lot

COMING THIS THANKSGIVING WEEKEND!

On the Corner of Hood Landing and Old St. Augustine

Opening day: Friday, 11/27 from 9am-9pm

OPEN DAILY UNTIL WE ARE OUT OF TREES

Come early to get your tree!

Contact Patrick Kinnare for more information

pkinnare@stjosephsjax.org

ALL PARISHIONERS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND

10:00am

Thanksgiving Day Mass!

You are welcome to bring in a basket with some of the items from your dinner table to be blessed.

THIS YEAR DUE TO COVID-19, PLEASE KEEP YOUR ITEMS WITH YOU AT YOUR SEAT, AS THE CLERGY BLESSES THEM. WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU AT THE MASS AS WE GIVE THANKS.

Christmas Flower Envelopes

Due to space constraints with the bulletin, the Christmas flower envelope names will not be published in the bulletin.

Instead the Christmas flower envelopes will be placed on the altar, to pray for our loved ones during the Christmas Season.

SUNDAY READINGS

READING 1: EZ 34:11-12, 15-17

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:
23:1-2, 2-3, 5-6

Thus says the Lord GOD:

I myself will look after and tend my sheep.

As a shepherd tends his flock
when he finds himself among his scattered sheep,
so will I tend my sheep.
I will rescue them from every place
where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark.
I myself will pasture my sheep;
I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD.
The lost I will seek out,
the strayed I will bring back,
the injured I will bind up,
the sick I will heal,
but the sleek and the strong I will destroy,
shepherding them rightly. .As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and
another,
between rams and goats.

The LORD is my shepherd; there is nothing I lack. In green pastures he makes me lie down; to still waters he leads me; he restores my soul. He guides me along right paths for the sake of his name.

*You set a table before me in front of my enemies;You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Indeed, goodness and mercy will pursue me all the days of my life; I will dwell in the house of the LORD for endless days.

SUNDAY READINGS

READING 2: 1 COR 15:20-26, 28

Brothers and sisters:

Christ has been raised from the dead,

the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man.

For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life,

but each one in proper order:

Christ the firstfruits;

then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ;

then comes the end,

when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father,

when he has destroyed every sovereignty

and every authority and power.

For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

When everything is subjected to him,

then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him,

so that God may be all in all.

ALLELUIA: JN 15:4A, 5B

.R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Remain in me as I remain in you, says the Lord.

Whoever remains in me bears much fruit.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

SUNDAY READINGS

GOSPEL: MT 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples:

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory,

and all the angels with him,
he will sit upon his glorious throne,
and all the nations will be assembled before him.

And he will separate them one from
another,

as a shepherd separates the sheep
from the goats.

He will place the sheep on his right
and the goats on his left.

Then the king will say to those on his right,

'Come, you who are blessed by my Father.

Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

For I was hungry and you gave me
food,

I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
a stranger and you welcomed me,
naked and you clothed me,
ill and you cared for me,
in prison and you visited me.'

Then the righteous will answer him
and say,

'Lord, when did we see you hungry
and feed you,
or thirsty and give you drink?

When did we see you a stranger and welcome you,
or naked and clothe you?

When did we see you ill or in prison,
and visit you?'

And the king will say to them in reply,

'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did

for one of the least brothers of mine,
you did for me.'

SUNDAY READINGS

Then he will say to those on his left,
'Depart from me, you accursed,
into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels.

For I was hungry and you gave me
no food,

I was thirsty and you gave me no
drink,

a stranger and you gave me no
welcome,

naked and you gave me no clothing,
ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.'

Then they will answer and say,
'Lord, when did we see you hungry
or thirsty
or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison,

and not minister to your needs?'

He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you,

what you did not do for one of these
least ones,

you did not do for me.'

And these will go off to eternal punishment,

but the righteous to eternal life."
